Eleanor Tollfree,2001 The Home, Nations and Empires, and Ephemeral Exhibition Spaces Dominique Bauer,Camilla Murgia,2025-10-01 This book explores ephemeral exhibition spaces between 1750 and 1918 The chapters focus on two related spaces the domestic interior and its imagery and exhibitions and museums that display both national imperial identity and the otherness that lurks beyond a country s borders What is revealed is that the same tension operates in these private and public realms namely that between identification and self projection on the one hand and alienation otherness and objectification on the other In uncovering this the authors show that the self the citizen society and the other are realities that are constantly being asserted defined and objectified This takes place they demonstrate in a ceaseless dynamic of projection versus alienation and intimacy versus distancing "Exhibiting Outside the Academy, Salon and Biennial, 1775-1999 "

Andrew Graciano,2017-07-05 In recent years there has been increasing scholarly interest in the history of museums academies and major exhibitions There has been however little to no sustained interest in the histories of alternative exhibitions single artwork solo artist artist mounted entrepreneurial privately funded ephemeral etc with the notable exception of those publications that deal with situations involving major artists or those who would become so for example J L David s exhibition of Intervention of the Sabine Women 1799 and The First Impressionist Exhibition of 1874 despite the fact that these sorts of exhibitions and critical scholarship about them have become commonplace and no less important in the contemporary art world The present volume uses and contextualizes eleven case studies to advance some overarching themes and commonalities among alternative exhibitions in the long modern period from the late eighteenth to the late twentieth centuries and beyond These include the issue of control in the interrelation and elision of the roles of artist and curator and the relationship of such alternative exhibitions to the dominant modes structures of display and cultural ideology The Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857

ElizabethA. Pergam,2017-07-05 An overdue study of a groundbreaking event this is the first book length examination of the Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Intended to rehabilitate Manchester s image at a heady time of economic prosperity the Exhibition became a touchstone for aesthetic social and economic issues of the mid nineteenth century Reverberations of this moment can be followed to the present day in the discipline of art history and its practice in public museums of Europe and America Highlighting the tension between art and commerce philanthropy and profit the book examines the Exhibition s organization and the presentation of the works of art in the purpose built Art Treasures Palace Pergam places the Exhibition in the context of contemporary debates about museum architecture and display With an analysis of the reception of both Ancient and Modern paintings the book questions the function of exhibitions in the construction of an art historical canon The book also provides an essential reference tool a compiled list of all of the paintings exhibited in 1857 that are now in public collections throughout the world with an analysis of the collecting trends manifest in their provenance

The Art Museum from Boullée to Bilbao Andrew McClellan, 2008-01-02 Art museums cases of beauty and calm in a fast paced world have emerged in recent decades as the most vibrant and popular of all cultural institutions But as they have become more popular their direction and values have been contested as never before This engaging thematic history of the art museum from its inception in the eighteenth century to the present offers an essential framework for understanding contemporary debates as they have evolved in Europe and the United States Museum Bodies Helen Rees Leahy, 2016-04-15 Museum Bodies provides an account of how museums have staged prescribed and accommodated a repertoire of bodily practices from their emergence in the eighteenth century to the present day As long as museums have existed their visitors have been scrutinised both formally and informally and their behaviour calibrated as a register of cognitive receptivity and cultural competence Yet there has been little sustained theoretical or practical attention given to the visitors embodied encounter with the museum In Museum Bodies Helen Rees Leahy discusses the politics and practice of visitor studies and the differentiation and exclusion of certain bodies on the basis of for example age gender educational attainment ethnicity and disability At a time when museums are more than ever concerned with size demographic mix and the diversity of their audiences as well as with the ways in which visitors engage with and respond to institutional space and content this wide ranging study of visitors embodied experience of the museum is long overdue Jean-Baptiste-Pierre LeBrun Bette W. Oliver, 2018-06-18 Jean Baptiste Pierre LeBrun s life was marked by his intense interest in art first as an artist and then from 1770 until his death in 1813 as an art dealer connoisseur and as a participant in the transformation of the Louvre into a national museum during the French Revolution He managed to accommodate whichever regime assumed power from monarchy to republic to empire He married the artist Elisabeth Vigée in 1776 and together they figured prominently in the pre revolutionary cultural world of Paris LeBrun travelled widely buying art for his gallery and contributing to a number of aristocratic collections His expertise in attributions of 17th century Dutch and Flemish paintings was acknowledged internationally while his reference work on the subject was considered the most comprehensive ever written LeBrun the grand nephew of the illustrious artist Charles LeBrun became one of the most successful art dealers in Paris He played an active role in the politics of art between 1789 and 1802 serving as an expert commissioner in restoration at the national museum His inventories of artworks confiscated from all over Europe by Napoleon s armies have provided a valuable record of the development of the French national museum In addition his inventories have been useful in the identification and recovery of Nazi confiscations during World War II LeBrun s accomplishments during a tumultuous period of political and artistic change present evidence of his contributions to the concept of the modern art museum notably in the areas of conservation restoration and arrangement Fashion Installation Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2019-06-13 Gone are the days when fashion relied on a runway launch with coinciding press promotions to show a couturier s new range Today design houses are thinking beyond traditional methods of display to stimulate interest in their collections such as to the internet fashion film and more recently fashion installations This book offers a critical evaluation of the changing ways in which fashion has been exhibited focusing specifically on the recent turn toward installation whether in the form of static presentations interactive performances or the more conventional curated designer exhibition Connecting viewers and consumers on an immersive level the fashion world has begun to appropriate installation methods traditionally associated with displays of experimental art transcending the runway system and its constraints This book turns to the designers who have pioneered fashion installations such as Aitor Throup Muccia Prada Walter Van Beirendonck and Hussein Chalayan among others and also looks back to the early influential fashion displays by designers such as Worth and Poiret to provide historical context Divided into three parts and covering a variety of installations from Vivienne Westwood s fashioned concept stores to Gareth Pugh s immersive films this ground breaking book positions the designer as the curator and exhibition maker and offers the first focused study of the pertinent concept of fashion installation

Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 149, no. 4, 2005) , National Galleries Simon Knell,2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism
