

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the

ROMANS

Greeting

1 Paul, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated to the gospel of God

2 which He promised before through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, and declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, through whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for His name, to the glory of His Father Jesus Christ the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

4 For I am writing you this letter because I have found many in Laodicea who are living in an easy conscience, without the knowledge of God's righteousness, who are not submitting to the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ, who are not submitting to the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ, who are not submitting to the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ.

revealed from faith to faith, as it is written, "The just shall live by faith."

God's Wrath on Unrighteousness

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth, as unrighteousness is.

19 Because what they knew of God, they did not honor Him as God, nor gave thanks to Him, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

20 So that the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against them that are so unrighteous as to suppress the truth, for that which is known about God is evident within them; they understand His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, though they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

21 Therefore God gave them up to dishonorable passions. Their foolish hearts were darkened. They became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

22 For when they knew God, they did not honor Him as God, nor gave thanks to Him, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

The Epistle To The Romans

The Epistle To The Romans:

The Epistle to the Romans Douglas J. Moo, 1996-09-30 Paul's letter to the Romans has been called the quintessence and perfection of saving doctrine. Perhaps the most challenging and thoroughly doctrinal book of the entire New Testament, Romans deals with many issues that are basic to Christian theology and practice. In The Epistle to the Romans, respected New Testament scholar Douglas Moo provides a superb study of Paul's letter to the Roman Christians and restates the enduring message of Romans for Christians today. Originally written for the Wycliffe Exegetical Commentary series, this work has been substantially expanded and adapted for the NICNT series; it now treats the entire book of Romans rather than the first half. Based on the English text but bringing into the discussion the underlying Greek at every point, this commentary focuses both on theological meaning and on contemporary significance. Moo makes a contribution to the continuing debate regarding Paul's teaching on such issues as Jewish law and the relationship between the Jews and Gentiles in the people of God. He also critically interacts with the new perspective on Paul. Highlights Romans's emphasis on practical divinity and traces the theme of gospel throughout the epistle.

The Epistle to the Romans Charles Kingsley Barrett, 1991. Since its appearance nearly 35 years ago, Black's New Testament Commentary Series has been hailed by both scholars and pastors for its insightful interpretations and reliable commentary. Each book in the series includes an insightful introduction to the important historical, literary, and theological issues; key terms and phrases from the translation highlighted in the commentary where they are discussed; explanations of special Greek or foreign terms; references to important primary and secondary literature; and a Scripture index. C. K. Barrett's exegetical prowess evidenced most distinctly in his volumes on the First and Second Epistles to the Corinthians, also in the Black's series, has long been appreciated in the world of biblical studies. Now in his long-awaited, newly revised verse-by-verse exposition of The Epistle to the Romans, Barrett further enhances our understanding of the book of Romans, early Christianity, the apostle Paul, and his theology and the New Testament. This revised edition has been reworked, updated, and retypeset, and the inclusion of an index of ancient sources further adds to its usefulness. A master of thoroughness, historical backgrounds, and ancient languages, Barrett offers insights for scholars, ministers, students, and anyone who wants to know more about Paul's Epistle to the Romans.

The Epistle to the Romans Jan Wells, 2003-09. This inductive Bible study focuses on a message for the early Christian church in the city of Rome, carefully examining the apostle Paul's concerns for believers. This in-depth, 23-week study takes a close look at the theology presented by Paul and investigates the practical guidelines for those who are in a relationship with Christ.

The Letter of Paul to the Romans Frederick Fyvie Bruce, 1985. F. F. Bruce's study on Romans is a contribution to the Tyndale New Testament Commentaries, a popular commentary designed to help the general Bible reader understand clearly what the text actually says and what it means without undue recourse to scholarly technicalities.

The Epistle to the Romans Richard N. Longenecker, 2016-01-18. This highly anticipated commentary on the Greek text of Romans by veteran New Testament scholar Richard Longenecker provides solid scholarship and innovative solutions to long standing interpretive problems. Critical exegetical and constructive yet pastoral in its application, Longenecker's monumental work on Romans sets a course for the future that will promote a better understanding of this most famous of Paul's letters and a more relevant contextualization of its message.

Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans, Books 1-5 Origen, 2009-09

Origen of Alexandria's Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans is the oldest extant commentary on Romans, ca. 246. This volume presents the first English translation of the commentary covering his exegesis of Rom 1:1 to 6:11. One of his longest and most mature works, it is the only commentary of Origen available in a coherent form from beginning to end. The work was originally composed in Greek in Caesarea but only fragments of the archetype have survived. Fortunately, Origen's admirer Rufinus of Aquileia translated the work into Latin, ca. 406. Origen's exegesis predates the controversy between Augustine and Pelagius by 170 years, thus it offers a striking perspective on Romans. Opposition to Gnostic interpretations of Paul is an important characteristic of the commentary. Above all, Origen defends the Church against the doctrine of natures, the belief that all human beings are born with unalterable natures, either good or evil, and thus bound for either salvation or damnation, and that their conduct during this life cannot alter their destiny. Origen successfully refutes this teaching, showing that freedom of will always abides in rational beings. Provoked by Marcion's repudiation of the Old Testament, Origen emphasizes the harmony between Gospel and Law. He highlights as one of Paul's main themes in Romans the transfer of religion from Judaism to Christianity, from the letter to the spirit, in terms both of salvation history and of the transformation of the individual. Origen claims that the key to unlocking Romans is understanding Paul's use of homonyms, identical expressions such as law, Jew, circumcision, death, etc., with divergent meanings. Books 6-10 of the commentary, presenting Origen's interpretation of Rom 6:12 to 16:27, will be the next volume published in the Fathers of the Church series.

A Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans, 1832 Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans Charles Hodge, 2024-01-09. Reprint of the original first published in 1883. The Epistle to the Romans M. F. Sadler, 2014-06-24

Excerpt from The Epistle to the Romans With Notes Critical and Practical. Of the three great writers flourishing at the close of the second century, Irenaeus, Clement of Alexandria, and Tertullian, I find that in an index of quotations I have now before me, Irenaeus quotes this Epistle alone above 70 times, Clement of Alexandria 114 times, and Tertullian 142, and this in an index to only a part of his works. This Epistle is also cited in the letter of the Churches of Lyons and Vienna, in the words quoting from the letter as given in Eusebius: "These coming in close conflict endured every species of reproach and torture, esteeming what was deemed great but little, they hastened to Christ, showing in reality that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us."

A Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans Moses Stuart, 1835

Behold, the Son of God William H. Wetmore, 2017-06-19 Christians in every age have acknowledged the importance of Paul's Epistle to the Romans Martin Luther called it really the chief part of the New Testament and truly the purest gospel In addition Samuel Taylor Coleridge regarded Romans as the most profound book in existence others have described it as the cathedral of the Christian faith The epistle is a Christian manifesto of freedom through Jesus Christ It is the fullest plainest and grandest statement of the gospel in the New Testament Throughout the centuries this epistle has been recognized as perhaps the most complete theological statement regarding the Gospel of God Paul is the great theologian who presented the gospel in theological terms which remain unmatched and which elevate the gospel message to a greater level of understanding This epistle has five main themes the first is the redefinition of the basis of salvation which is not based on the Law but by grace alone and faith alone in Christ Jesus the second is the redefinition of the people of God not according to physical birth but by spiritual birth and by faith the third is the righteousness that is based on faith in God the fourth is the doctrine of election the fifth is the explanation of Christian behavior as based on Christian belief
