The Eternal Plan For The Children Of God:

The Eternal Plan for the Children of God Garth L. Allred, 1986 Children of God in the World Paul

O'Callaghan, 2016-10-14 Children of God in the World is a textbook of theological anthropology structured in four parts. The first attempts to clarify the relationship between theology, philosophy, and science in their respective approaches to anthropology and establishes the fundamental principle of the text stated in Vatican II's Gaudium et spes n. 22: Christ manifests man to man. The second part provides a historical overview of the doctrine of grace in Scripture, especially the teaching of the book of Genesis on humans made in the image of God, as well as Paul and John among the Fathers; in particular, the oriental doctrine of divinization and Augustine during the Middle Ages, especially Thomas Aquinas, and the Reformation period centered particularly on Luther and the Council of Trent right up to modern times. The third part of the text, the central one, provides a systematic understanding of Christian grace in terms of the God's life present in human believers by which they become children of God, disciples, friends, and brothers of Christ, temples of the Holy Spirit. This section also provides a reflection on the theological virtues: faith, hope, and charity; on the relationship between grace and human freedom; on the role of the Church and Christian apostolate in the communication of grace; and on the need humans have for divine grace. After considering the relationship between the natural and the supernatural order, the fourth and last part deals with different philosophical aspects of the human condition in the light of Christian faith: the union between body and soul; humans as free, historical, social, sexual, and working beings. The last chapter concludes with a consideration of the human person, Christianity's greatest and most enduring contribution to human thought. Michael Craig

Campbell, 2005-08-01 Great towers have been destroyed. Our nuclear power plants remain vulnerable to attack. Many questions trouble the population of the world: Did the Bible predict 21st Century terrorism? Did World War III begin September 11, 2001? Do we live in the chaotic last days described by ancient prophets? Are we sufficiently prepared? Will good prevail over evil? Are the dangers of the last days both physical and spiritual? The Bible contains alarming news. But all the biblical shock and awe is secondary to learning the purpose of life. Coincidences between scripture and current events provide clues to the catastrophic signs that will precede the 1000-year Reign of Christ. God's teachings, Satanic opposition, terrorism, prophecies, both Bush Administrations' nuclear war and fallout, terrible disasters, the Gulf and Iraq Wars, World War III, pornography, the Abu Ghraib prison scandal, are all fitting together to complete and reveal a great puzzle. Eternal consequences are of great importance. The scriptures counsel how to cope with latter-day challenges. Commandments can't be ignored without suffering consequences. Procrastination is a thief. Apathy towards Jesus Christ poisons the eternal soul. So study, ponder, and pray to unlock the secrets of scripture. Then chart your eternal future. Simon Says Donald Drake, 2007-04 The game of SIMON SAYS illustrates the contrast between the clear teachings of the Word of God and the empty philosophy of this world. The Christian Life is a lot like that game of Simon Says. Each believer will always be challenged by two commands One command comes from the world and the other command comes from God The believer must discern which is which and should always decide to obey the command from God Although SIMON SAYS is not a biography of Simon Peter it reflects the significant difference between the empty purposes of Simon and the dedicated perspective of the man who became Peter the rock Although SIMON SAYS is not a commentary on I and II Peter it endeavors to show that Peter learned his lessons so well that he presents over 100 commands in his two short epistles Dr Drake has chosen 14 of those commands to present principles that Peter gives to God s legal aliens of every age Born in Teaneck NJ Donald Drake graduated from the King s College with a BA in English Literature and from Wheaton with an MA in Biblical Literature NT Ministries have included Assistant Pastor at First Baptist Church of Hackensack NJ Assistant Treasurer Advisory Board member of ABWE President of Piedmont Baptist College for eighteen years Accreditation Commission of the Association for Biblical Higher Education Board member and President of ABHE English Bible Teacher for Bible Basics International Short term missionary service in the Philippines and South Africa He married Catherine Demarest in 1952 and they have four children all active in Christian ministry Mrs Drake is the author of MAKE IT LIVE a practical guide for teaching the Bible to children
