The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America Ronald H. Bayor, 2004-07-14 All historians would agree that America is a nation of nations But what does that mean in terms of the issues that have moved and shaped us as a people Contemporary concerns such as bilingualism incorporation assimilation dual identity ethnic politics quotas and affirmative action residential segregation and the volume of immigration resonate with a past that has confronted variations of these modern issues The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America written and compiled by a highly respected team of American historians under the editorship of Ronald Bayor illuminates the myriad ways in which immigration racial and ethnic histories have shaped the contours of contemporary American society This invaluable resource documents all eras of the American past including black white interactions and the broad spectrum of American attitudes and reactions concerning Native

Americans Irish Catholics Mexican Americans Jewish Americans and other groups Each of the eight chronological chapters contains a survey essay an annotated bibliography and 20 to 30 related public and private primary source documents including manifestos speeches court cases letters memoirs and much more From the 1655 petition of Jewish merchants regarding the admission of Jews to the New Netherlands colony to an interview with a Chinese American worker regarding a 1938 strike in San Francisco documents are drawn from a variety of sources and allow students and others direct access to our past Selections include Powhatan to John Smith 1609 Thomas Jefferson Notes on the State of Virginia Petition of the Trustees of Congregation Shearith Israel 1811 Bessie Conway or The Irish Girl in America German Society in Chicago Annual Report 1857 1858 Mark Twain's Salutation to the Century W E B DuBois Of Our Spiritual Strivings NAACP on Black Schoolteachers Fight for Equal Pay Malcolm X speech 1964 Hewy Newton interview and Black Panther Party platform Preamble La Raza Unida Party Lee Iacocca speech to Ethnic Heritage Council of the Pacific Northwest 1984 Native American Graves and Repatriation Act 1990 L A riot from the Los Angeles Times May 3 15 1992 Nov 16 19 1992 Asian American Political Alliance President Clinton's Commission on Race Town Meeting 1997 Louis Farrakhan The Vision for the Million Man March The Ethnic Dimension in American Society Salvatore John LaGumina, 1976 Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society Association for Canadian Studies, 1990 Far more than a bibliographic account of the major works in Canadian Studies Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society provides a broad examination of the state of this growing field of study Each chapter stresses the importance of the interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches which have come to characterize Canadian Studies Also in an unprecedented collaborative effort almost all the chapters are jointly authored by anglophone and francophone scholars The works on Quebec and the francophone community respect the distinct nature of this facet of Canada As stated in the introduction this work is a primer in the field and a guide to further pursuits Its users will welcome it as a friendly introduction to an exciting country Encyclopedia of North American Immigration John Powell, 2009 Presents an illustrated A Z reference containing more than 300 entries related to immigration to North America including people places legislation and more American Studies Jack Salzman, American Studies Association, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 The Oxford Handbook of American Immigration and Ethnicity Ronald H. Bayor, 2016-06-01 Scholarship on immigration to America is a coin with two sides it asks both how America changed immigrants and how they changed America Were the immigrants uprooted from their ancestral homes leaving everything behind or were they transplanted bringing many aspects of their culture with them Although historians agree with the transplantation concept the notion of the melting pot which suggests a complete loss of the immigrant culture persists in the public mind The Oxford Handbook of American Immigration and Ethnicity bridges this gap and offers a comprehensive and nuanced survey of American racial and ethnic development assessing the current status of historical research and simultaneously setting the goals for future investigation Early immigration historians focused on the European migration model and the ethnic appeal of politicians such as Fiorello La Guardia and James Michael Curley in cities with strong ethno political histories like New York and Boston But the story of American ethnicity goes far beyond Ellis Island Only after the 1965 Immigration Act and the increasing influx of non Caucasian immigrants scholars turned more fully to the study of African Asian and Latino migrants to America This Handbook brings together thirty eminent scholars to describe the themes methodologies and trends that characterize the history and current debates on American immigration The Handbook's trenchant chapters provide compelling analyses of cutting edge issues including identity whiteness borders and undocumented migration immigration legislation intermarriage assimilation bilingualism new American religions ethnicity related crime and pan ethnic trends They also explore the myth of model minorities and the contemporary resurgence of anti immigrant feelings A unique contribution to the field of immigration studies this volume considers the full racial and ethnic unfolding of the United States in its historical context

The Shaping of America: A Geographical Perspective on 500 Years of History D. W. Meinig, 1986-01-01 Volume one examines how an immense diversity of ethnic and religious groups ultimately created a set of distinct regional societies Volume two emphasizes the flux uncertainty and unpredictability of the expansion into continental America showing how a multitude of individuals confronted complex and problematic issues

The Italian/American Experience Louis J. Gesualdi, 2012-04-13 The Italian American Experience represents a meaningful attempt to inform Italian Americans about their group's varied experiences in America This collection of eleven works offers readers an in depth view of Italian American culture and heritage

Canada - An American Nation? Allan Smith, 1994-09-15 Are Canadians so influenced by the United States that they lack a distinct identity This question has preoccupied Canadians and Canadianists for years Canada An American Nation is a compilation of Allan Smith's essays on the influence of American society on Canadian identity Based on the notion that Canada can best be understood if viewed in relation to the United States the book explores the ways in which American influences have challenged Canada's cultural independence and asks whether Canada has maintained its own identity

Multiculturalism in the United States John D. Buenker, Lormen A. Ratner, 2005-03-30 Interest in ethnic studies and multiculturalism has grown considerably in the years since the 1992 publication of the first edition of this work Co editors

Ratner and Buenker have revised and updated the first edition of Multiculturalism in the United States to reflect the changes patterns and shifts in immigration showing how American culture affects immigrants and is affected by them Common topics that helped determine the degree and pace of acculturation for each ethnic group are addressed in each of the 17 essays providing the reader with a comparative reference tool Seven new ethnic groups are included Arabs Haitians Vietnamese Koreans Filipinos Asian Indians and Dominicans New essays on the Irish Chinese and Mexicans are provided as are revised and updated essays on the remaining groups from the first edition The contribution to American culture by people of these diverse origins reflects differences in class occupation and religion The authors explain the tensions and conflicts between American culture and the traditions of newly arrived immigrants Changes over time that both of the cultures brought to America and of the culture that received them is also discussed Essays on representative ethnic groups include African Americans American Indians Arabs Asian Indians Chinese Dominicans Filipinos Germans Haitians Irish Italians Jews Koreans Mexicans Poles Scandinavians and the Vietnamese

The Americanization Syndrome Robert A. Carlson, 2022-11-16 The Americanization Syndrome 1987 examines the historical role of education in the process of Americanization It argues that beginning with seventeenth century puritan leaders such as John Winthrop and Cotton Maher the pattern of American education has been not the promotion of a blend of different cultures but the indoctrination of norms of belief of religion politics and economics and an explicit discouragement of cultural variety It traces the political role of education at key junctures of American history after Independence in the reconstruction of the South after the Civil War in the establishment of settlement houses and the use of scientific management techniques by employers The author focuses on the period 1900 1925 when new waves of immigrants from southern and eastern Europe led to a new drive for orthodoxy

A History of the Polish Americans John J. Bukowczyk, 2017-07-12 In the last rootless decade families neighborhoods and communities have disintegrated in the face of gripping social economic and technological changes Th is process has had mixed results On the positive side it has produced a mobile volatile and dynamic society in the United States that is perhaps more open just and creative than ever before On the negative side it has dissolved the glue that bound our society together and has destroyed many of the myths symbols values and beliefs that provided social direction and purpose In A History of the Polish Americans John J Bukowczyk provides a thorough account of the Polish experience in America and how some cultural bonds loosened as well as the ways in which others persisted

From the Old Country Bruce M. Stave, John Fulton Sutherland, Aldo Salerno, 1999 For nearly a century the symbol of the American melting pot enjoyed considerable popularity Bruce M Stave and John F Sutherland explore this and other concepts in an oral history comprising the voices of European immigrants to Connecticut Both practicing oral historians their interviews join others conducted by the Works Progress Administration in the 1930s providing readers with a perspective of at least three generations of immigrant experience including the role that the family unit played both economically and socially Of special interest is the place held by immigrant women in the new world as traditional relationships between men and women and within families began to change      French Canadians in Massachusetts Politics, 1885-1915 Ronald Arthur Petrin, 1990 Emigrating from Quebec to New England in large numbers after the Civil War French Canadians became by 1900 the largest non English speaking ethnic group in Massachusetts This study reevaluates the political behavior of French Canadians in Massachusetts from 1885 to 1915 and analyzes the complex relationship between ethnicity and politics      Vincent N. Parrillo Vincent N. Parrillo, 2020-08-16 This book is a collection of many talks and writings of Vincent N Parrillo a professor of sociology Fulbright scholar and internationally renowned expert on immigration and intergroup relations He gave dozens of invited lectures on three continents frequently under the sponsorship of the U S State Department through its programs in the U S Information Agency USIA and the International Information Program IIE In representing the United States abroad he was interviewed through numerous radio television and newspaper outlets including Radio Free Europe and Voice of America In addition other speaking engagements came from universities in Asia Canada and Europe some of these as the keynote speaker at international conferences He was also a visiting scholar in Belgium the Czech Republic England and Italy Numerous U S newspapers also called upon him for his commentary on current events His reputation both in his homeland and abroad primarily came from his journal articles and books that mostly centered on the themes of assimilation diversity or multiculturalism As his public presentations and writings increased they generated still more speaking invitations that in turn led to many being transcribed and printed in various scholarly publications Many but not all of these writings have been included here A unique and multidimensional person Parrillo expanded his horizons into other fields of endeavor He wrote narrated and produced six television documentaries for PBS so popular that they were aired repeatedly and DVD copies were in heavy demand He drew from his insights into Ellis Island and immigration to write two historical novels He also acted in or directed dozens of plays comedies dramas and musicals for a number of community theaters in northern New Jersey This collection is an effort to capture at least a part of his insights and observations that he presented to a worldwide public
