The Evangelical-Roman Catholic Dialogue on Mission, 1977-1984 Basil Meeking, John R. W. Stott, 1986

Renewing the Evangelical Mission Richard Lints, 2013-05-26 The culture story of evangelicalism during the second half of the twentieth century has been well told. It is important now to think about the theological mission of the church in an ever increasing post Christian and post partisan context. What is the theologian's calling at the beginning of the third millennium? How do global realities impact the mission of evangelical theology? What sense can be made of the unity of evangelical theology in light of its many diverse voices? Contributors: Os Guinness, Michael S. Horton, Richard Lints, Bruce McCormack, Mark Noll, J. I. Packer, Gary Parrett, Rodney Peterson, Cornelius Plantinga, Tite Tienou, Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Adonis Vidu, and Miroslav Volf. The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology, history, and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures, religions, and societies worldwide. It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents. It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments. The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical, evangelical, Catholic, and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic. Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation, liberation, interfaith work, and power encounter to today's multicultural societies. Meanwhile, there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere. Therefore, this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements. In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally, this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion, its agendas, growth, outreach, role in public life, effect on cultures, relevance for development, and its approaches to other communities.

Ecumenical Dialogue Angelo Maffei, 2005 Surveys the historical and theological foundations of the ecumenical movement. Special attention is given to conciliar ecumenism and to the dialogues to which the Roman Catholic Church is partner. Provided by publisher. British Evangelical Theologians of the Twentieth Century Thomas Noble, Jason Sexton, 2022-04-21 Throughout the twentieth century Britain produced some of the most prominent evangelical theologians in both church and academic circles. This survey and introduction, edited by Thomas Noble and Jason Sexton, presents twelve of these theologians, exploring what made their work so influential and their continued relevance for today. As well as surveying each man's work, British Evangelical Theologians of the Twentieth Century considers what is meant by calling these theologians evangelical Christians, taking into account their understanding of biblical authority, standing in the Reformation tradition and treatment of Scripture as well as their approaches to biblical criticism and liberal theology As a result it is ideal for students looking to deeper their understanding of British evangelical Christianity as a whole as well as increasing their knowledge of the individual figures From James Orr and Lesslie Newbigin to John Stott and J I Packer a range of perspectives within British evangelicalism is reflected Along with brief biographies each body of work is examined in three particular areas stance on the Bible biblicism the atonement crucicentrism and concern for mission and evangelism conversionism British Evangelical Theologians of the Twentieth Century is a thorough introduction to twelve of the keenest and most influential minds in British evangelical thought It will leave you with an appreciation of each man s contribution to English speaking evangelicalism as well as helping you to engage critically with their theology and understand how their work is relevant to the development and discussion of British evangelical theology today

Theological Dialogue with Classical Pentecostals Jelle Creemers,2015-09-24 The last two decades have witnessed the growing participation in theological dialogues of non institutional free church movements This poses a serious challenge to 21st century ecumenism since ecclesial realities and internal diversity of these movements impede fruitful dialogue in the classical manner The present volume addresses fundamental aspects of this challenge by a critical study of an exemplary case of such dialogues the International Roman Catholic Classical Pentecostal Dialogue 1972 2007 This unique study builds both on primary archival sources and on earlier research on the IRCCPD After providing an ecumenical profile of the Classical Pentecostal dialogue partner Creemers demonstrates how fair representation of the Classical Pentecostal movement has been pursued in the course of the dialogue Next he gives attention to the ecumenical method of the IRCCPD First the development of a dialogue method hinging on hard questions is traced which has allowed a balanced theological exchange between the dialogue partners Regarding theological method it is demonstrated that both partners showed a willingness to experiment together by integrating sources of theological knowledge typically distrusted in their own traditions In conclusion the analyses are integrated in an overview of challenges and opportunities for dialogue with the Classical Pentecostal movement in the context of ongoing discussions on ecumenical method

A Time for Mission Samuel Escobar,2013-07-14 Christian mission in the twenty first century has become the responsibility of a global church The heart of mission is the drive to cross geographical cultural and social barriers in order to share the good news of Jesus Christ with all peoples Drawing on his involvement in missionary work over many years Samuel Escobar explores how the church spreads the Christian faith God s Word forms the foundation for his reflections while he uses insights from theological and historical studies as well as from the social sciences to gain a clearer understanding of the church s missionary calling His stimulating and challenging analysis contributes significantly to a global evangelical dialogue on mission today and in the future

The Trinity and the Religions , Loe Joo Tan,2018-09-15 Will the followers of other religions who have not heard of the gospel be saved Since the Second Vatican Council the Catholic church has been grappling with this question culminating in a recent document

Dominus Iesus in 2000 In the post DI climate the British theologian Gavin D Costa has been described as a representative post DI theologian of religions And with good reason since other theologians such as Jacques Dupuis whose work along the lines of neo Rahnerianism have been curtailed by DI D Costa s work has spanned the past three decades and is aimed at developing a theology that echoes developments within the Catholic church s efforts to grapple with the existence of other religions In doing so he has appropriated the doctrine of the Trinity by reasoning it provides the very resources for interacting with Others and developed a form of Trinitarian inclusivism Based on the work of patristic theologians such as Lewis Ayres and Michel Barnes and their conception of a Pro Nicene theological matrix this book is an attempt to assess whether D Costa s utilization of trinitarian resources for contemporary concerns is faithful to the tradition The book concludes that while there is much to commend in D Costa s system there remain some features not fully consonant with classical Trinitarianism

The New Global Mission Samuel Escobar, 2013-04-23 Veteran missiologist Samuel Escobar explores the new realities of our globalized world assesses the context of a changing mission field sets forth a thoroughly biblical theology of missions and considers implications for how Christians are to go about the task of global mission

Growth in Agreement III Jeffrey Gros, Thomas F. Best, Lorelei F Fuchs, SA, 2007 This volume contains the official dialogue results and common statements issued between 1998 and 2005 by an astonishingly wide range of Christian churches and communions Reflected here are the solid advances made by well established dialogue partners as well as explorations in dialogue by churches new to the dialogue process at world level Also included is the ecclesiology text adopted by WCC member churches at their assembly in Porto Alegre Brazil

The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen, Dean S. Gilliland, 1999-09-17

Hope and Community Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2017-10-23 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church s missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities

The Evangelical-Roman Catholic Dialogue on Mission, 1977-1984 Basil Meeking, John R. W. Stott, 1986

What Happens in Holy Communion? Michael Welker, 2000 All the large churches in the world agree on this communion is the highest expression of the church unity Yet it is exactly the act of communion that historically has given rise to vehement controversies among the churches This new book not only explores the meaning of holy communion but also marks a turning point on the way to common understanding Welker gives a clear explanation of holy communion based on the biblical tradition and evaluates the ecumenical discourse on communion of the past thirty years In the process he answers such often posed questions as What do we mean when we say that Christ is present in communion How are Christ s body and blood connected with bread and wine What is the difference between the Christian Supper and the Jewish Passover meal and Are children allowed to share in communion

Encountering Theology of Mission (Encountering Mission) Craig Ott, Stephen J. Strauss, Timothy C. Tennent, 2010-05-01 This fresh comprehensive text fills a need for an up to date theology of mission It offers creative approaches to answering some of the most pressing questions in theology of mission and missionary practice today The authors who are leading mission experts discuss biblical theology of mission provide historical overviews of the development of various viewpoints and address theologically current issues in global mission from an evangelical perspective

This readable yet thorough text integrates current views of the kingdom of God and holistic mission with traditional views of evangelism and church planting. It also brings theology of mission into conversation with ecclesiology and eschatology. Topics covered include contextualization, the missionary vocation, church and mission, and theology of religions. Sidebars and case studies enable readers to see how theology of mission touches real life mission practice. Catholics and Evangelicals Thomas P. Rausch, 2000. A report on the new dialogue growing up between Catholics and Protestant evangelicals with an honest summary of issues that still divide them. Like a Mighty Army David W Taylor, 2015-02-26. In 1937 prior to the 1948 inauguration of the World Council of Churches, Karl Barth challenged the churches to engage in real, strict, sober, genuine theology in order that the unity of the church might be visibly realized. At that time, The Salvation Army didn't aspire to become formally known as a church, even though it was a founding member of the WCC. Today it is globally known as a social welfare organization concerned especially to serve the needs of those who find themselves at the margins of society. Less well known is that seventy years after Barth's challenge, it has made its peace with the view that it is a church denomination. Accepting Barth's challenge to the churches and in dialogue with his own ecumenical ecclesiology, the concept of the church as an Army is interrogated in service to The Salvation Army's developing understanding of its identity and to the visible unity of God's church. International Mission Bibliography Norman E.
