A Scientific Demonstration of the Future Life Thomson Jay Hudson,1895 Evidence for a Future Life Gabriel Delanne,1904 The International Psychic Gazette ,1919 Does Man Survive? George Lindsay Johnson,1936

The Evidence of a Future Life from Psychic Evolution George Lindsay Johnson,2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work

The Evolution Of The Soul Thomas Jay Hudson,2012 In arranging the essays and lectures in this book for publication their respective dates of production have been disregarded for the sake of presenting them as far as possible in a natural sequence The first of the articles contains a statement of the fundamental principles of the author s hypothesis and may be regarded as introductory to those which follow It will be found that these principles are restated briefly in other parts of the book but the repetition is due to the fact that the papers were written at considerable intervals of time and for readers or audiences not always familiar with the author s theories I have ventured however to eliminate much of the iterated matter leaving only that which bears directly upon the subject under consideration in the article in which it occurs

Toronto Public Libraries,1904 A Scientific Demonstration Of The Future Life Thomas Jay Hudson,2012 The present work is devoted to a scientific inquiry concerning man s prospects for a future life In pursuing this inquiry the author has endeavored to follow the strictest rules of scientific induction taking nothing for granted that is not axiomatic and holding that there is nothing worthy of belief that is not sustained by a solid basis of well authenticated facts In other words he has studied the science of the soul precisely as the physical sciences are studied namely from an attentive observation and a systematic classification of the facts pertaining to the subject matter

Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1906 Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1906 In Good Company Bede Benjamin Bidlack,2015-02-04 In Good Company answers a question that has confounded Christian theologians What is the nature of the body that will enjoy resurrection at the end of time In this exciting work of comparative theology Bede Benjamin Bidlack derives a theory of the body from the French Jesuit Pierre Teilhard de Chardin by putting him in dialogue with the Song Dynasty Daoist Xiao Yingsou In addition to its contribution to comparative theology In Good Company offers the first translation of the preface of Xiao's commentary on the Duren jing in a Western language as well as a careful explication of the provocative mountain diagram therein. Bidlack presents an original contribution for both scholars of Christian theology and Chinese religion. An excellent example of comparative theology. Bede Bidlack's In Good Company demonstrates how certain lacunae in one tradition may be addressed by drawing on resources from another religion. Having identified a neglect of the body in the work of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and in much of the Christian tradition of divinization, Bidlack discusses the work of Daoist scholar Xiao Yingsou as a possible source of inspiration and theological imagination. Catherine Cornille, Newton College Alumnae Chair Professor of Comparative Theology, Boston College. In Good Company takes comparative theology to a new level; it not only places Daoism front and center but also opens Christian spirituality to a wider dimension. Concerned with the two core themes of the body and personal divinization or resurrection, the book centers on the work of two influential thinkers in their traditions: Teilhard de Chardin and Xiao Yingsou. Although 800 years apart, their visions of the body as the means to ultimate fulfillment in close relation to divinity and the cosmos as a whole powerfully enhance each other as do their understanding of the intricate process of personal divinization. The book is challenging in its outlook, unsettling in its destabilization of terms, and brilliant in its interweaving of the two traditions. A must for anyone concerned with the new global environment of religious pluralism and the ongoing process of interreligious dialogue. Livia Kohn, Professor Emerita of Religion, East Asian Studies, Boston University. Literary News, 1904.
