The Experience Of America A Of Readings:

Reading the American Novel 1920-2010 James Phelan, 2013-04-02 This astute guide to the literary achievements of American novelists in the twentieth century places their work in its historical context and offers detailed analyses of landmark novels based on a clearly laid out set of tools for analyzing narrative form Includes a valuable overview of twentieth and early twenty first century American literary history Provides analyses of numerous core texts including The Great Gatsby Invisible Man The Sound and the Fury The Crying of Lot 49 and Freedom Relates these individual novels to the broader artistic movements of modernism and postmodernism Explains and applies key principles of rhetorical reading Includes numerous cross novel comparisons and contrasts The American First Class Book, Or, Exercises in Reading and Recitation John Pierpont, 1836

Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter with the African American Great Migration Jennifer T. Kaalund, 2018-11-29 Kaalund examines the constructed and contested Christian Jewish identities in Hebrews and 1 Peter through the lens of the New Negro a diasporic identity similarly constructed and contested during the Great Migration in the early 20th century Like the identity Christian the New Negro emerged in a context marked by instability creativity and the need for a sense of permanence in a hostile political environment Upon examination both identities also show complex internal diversity and debate that disrupts any simple articulation as purely resistant or accommodating to its hegemonic and oppressive environment Kaalund's investigation into the construction of the New Negro highlights this multiplicity and contends that the rhetoric of place race and gender were integral to these processes of inventing a way of being in the world that was seemingly not reliant on one's physical space Putting these issues into dialogue with 1 Peter and Hebrews allows for a reading of the formation of Christian identity as similarly engaging the rhetoric of place and race in constructive and contested ways Reading Native American Women Inés Hernández-Avila, 2005-07-14 This new collection reveals the vitality of the intellectual and creative work of Native women today The authors examine the avenues that Native American women have chosen for creative cultural and political expressions and discuss the points of convergence between Native American feminisms and other feminisms Individual contributors articulate their positions around issues such as identity community sovereignty culture and representation This engaging volume crystallizes the myriad realities that inform the authors intellectual work and clarifies the sources of inspiration for their roles as individuals and indigenous intellectuals reaffirming their paramount commitment to their communities and Nations It will be of great value to Native writers as well as instructors and students in Native American studies women's studies anthropology cultural studies literature and writing and composition

Reading America Elizabeth Boyle, 2009-03-26 This specially commissioned volume of essays offers a refreshing and unusual perspective on classic novels from the American literary canon Accessible to students scholars and the interested reader this engaging collection explores familiar novels through unfamiliar lenses and in so doing sheds light on surprising and previously overlooked aspects of each text Reading America presents a new approach to American literature by showcasing a cross section of recent research into previously untapped areas of interest. Each chapter attempts to re-read classic American texts using new or unorthodox theoretical frameworks including such diverse topics as an Emersonian reading of Don DeLillo, decoding Thomas Pynchon with eco-criticism, and understanding Paul Auster's New York Trilogy by exploring the graphic novel version of City of Glass. Other authors explored in this way include Henry James, Truman Capote, Ralph Ellison, Toni Morrison, Joyce Kilmer, Carol Oates, and F. Scott Fitzgerald. This type of approach widens the reader's knowledge of each well-known text and encourages new critical evaluations of contemporary American literature. The collection moves through six large topic areas from Naturalism and an idea of the Great American Novel at the end of the nineteenth century through politics, sexuality, language, and nature to a contemporary engagement with postmodernism. Each essay deals with its own particular subject and author, but the full impact of each on the notion of the American novel as a phenomenon can only be understood when read in conjunction with the others. Of interest to both undergraduate and postgraduate students, Reading America would be a valuable asset to any American Studies or American Literature degree course and a useful companion to American History or Politics courses. The volume will also attract strong interest from established academics, especially those researching the fields of literature, critical theory, cultural history, and politics.

Santi, 2016-10-18 Gathered in one volume are seven of the best essays written in the last fifteen years or so by the eminent Latin Americanist Enrico Mario Sant. The essays cover a wide range of topics in Latin American poetry, narrative, film, and intellectual history and also explore Spanish Peninsular subject matter, the Spanish Generation of 98's response to Spain's loss of Cuba in the Spanish American War of 1898. The essays are introduced by a long text in which the author develops a bracing critique of some dominant trends in current critical practice and spells out an alternative methodology.

Introduction to Preaching Leah D. Schade, Jerry L. Sumney, Emily Askew, 2023-02-03 Coauthored by a homiletician, a theologian, and a biblical scholar, this book is a preaching primer that provides tools for crafting effective, engaging, and inspiring sermons. Using a unique workbook-style format, Introduction to Preaching equips seminarians and preachers to use appropriate theological claims informed by solid biblical interpretation while providing several sample sermons from the authors. Readers will learn how to use a three-part schema: the Central Question, the Central Claim, and the Central Purpose, to provide the drive, direction, and destination for the sermon. Offering guidelines for using appropriate sermon forms, imagery, metaphors, and creativity together with advice on how to deliver contextually relevant sermons using our bodies' presence.

and voice make this a staple for both new and experienced preachers Introduction to Preaching includes a chapter on exploring the space of preaching including onsite and online sermons In addition it features charts and worksheets to help organize the sermon writing process as well as exercises for the preacher s voice and body and tips for advice for guest preachers and supply preachers A glossary of terms and an extensive bibliography make this a handy reference guide for students and all preachers

Reading Contemporary African American Literature Beauty Bragg, 2014-11-12 Reading Contemporary African American Literature focuses on the subject of contemporary African American popular fiction by women Bragg s study addresses why such work should be the subject of scholarly examination describes the events and attitudes which account for the critical neglect of this body of work and models a critical approach to such narratives that demonstrates the distinctive ways in which this literature captures the complexities of post civil rights era black experiences In making her arguments regarding the value of popular writing Bragg argues that black women s popular fiction foregrounds gender in ways that are frequently missing from other modes of narrative production They exhibit a responsiveness and timeliness to the shifting social terrain which is reflected in the rapidly shifting styles and themes which characterize popular fiction In doing so they extend the historical function of African American literature by continuing to engage the black body as a symbol of political meaning in the social context of the United States In popular literature Beauty Bragg locates a space from which black women engage a variety of public discourses

African American Readings of Paul Lisa M. Bowens, 2020-10-13 The letters of Paul especially the verse in Ephesians directing slaves to obey their masters played an enormous role in promoting slavery and justifying it as a Christian practice Yet despite this reality African Americans throughout history still utilized Paul extensively in their own work to protest and resist oppression responding to his theology and teachings in numerous often starkly divergent and liberative ways In the first book of its kind Lisa Bowens takes a historical theological and biblical approach to explore interpretations of Paul within African American communities over the past few centuries She surveys a wealth of primary sources from the early 1700s to the mid twentieth century including sermons conversion stories slave petitions and autobiographies of ex slaves many of which introduce readers to previously unknown names in the history of New Testament interpretation Along with their hermeneutical value these texts also provide fresh documentation of Black religious life through wide swaths of American history African American Readings of Paul promises to change the landscape of Pauline studies and fill an important gap in the rising field of reception history Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics L. Caton,2007-12-25 Using romantic theories Caton analyzes America s contemporary novel Organized through the two sections of Theory and Practice Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics begins with a study of aesthetic form only to have it reveal the content of politics and history This presentation immediately offers a unified platform for an interchange between multiple cultural and aesthetic positions Romantic theory provides for an integrated examination of diversity one that metaphorically fosters a solid inclusive and democratic legitimacy for intercultural communication This politically astute cosmopolitan appreciation will generate an intriguing cross over audience from ethnic studies to American studies and from literary studies to romantic studies this book will interest a range of readers Teaching Reading to American Indian/Alaska Native Students Jon Reyhner,2001 Reading Testimony, Witnessing Trauma Eden Wales,2020-02-28 Winner of the 2020 Eudora Welty Prize Theorists emphasize the necessity of writing about or witnessing trauma in order to overcome it To this critical conversation Reading Testimony Witnessing Trauma Confronting Race Gender and Violence in American Literature treats reader response to traumatic and testimonial literature written by and about African American women and adds insight into the engagement of testimonial literature Eden Wales articulates a theory of reading or dual witnessing that explores how narrators and readers can witness trauma together She places these original theories of traumatic reception in conversation with the African American literary tradition to speak to the histories cultures and traumas of African Americans particularly the repercussions of slavery as witnessed in African American literature The volume also considers intersections of race and gender and how narrators and readers can cross such constructs to witness collectively Reading Testimony Witnessing Trauma s innovative examinations of raced gendered intersections open and speak with those works that promote dual witnessing through the fraught literary histories of race and gender relations in America To explicate how dual witnessing converses with American literature race theory and gender criticism the book analyzes emancipatory narratives by Sojourner Truth Harriet Jacobs and Elizabeth Keckley and novels by William Faulkner Zora Neale Hurston Margaret Walker Toni Morrison and Jesmyn Ward Reading American Photographs Alan Trachtenberg,1990-11 Considers five documentary sequences or narratives the antebellum portraits of Mathew Brady and others the Civil War albums of Alexander Gardner George Barnard and A J Russell the Western survey and landscape photographs of Timothy O Sullivan A J Russell and Carleton Watkins and social photographs and texts by Alfred Stieglitz and Lewis Hine as well as documentaries inspired by the Depression esp Walker Evans s American Photographs Reading U.S. Latina Writers A.
