Alumni Bulletin Union Theological Seminary (New York, N.Y.),1925 Essentials of Pentecostal Theology Tony Richie,2020-01-20 Only a few decades past academia tended to scoff at the very idea of serious Pentecostal theology Today profound and variegated theological implications of this dynamic movement are the object of exploration and development across the entire spectrum of the Christian theological corpus Arguably an acute need has arisen for identification and evaluation of the Pentecostal movement s original and ongoing theological essentials What is Pentecostal theology really all about anyway This volume realizes that Pentecostal theology is at its heart a working theology undergirding and energizing believers worship of God in prayer and praise in holy living and in witness to a personal experience of the risen Lord and Savior manifested in the continuing power of the Holy Spirit Authentic implementation if not explicit articulation of fervent Pentecostal theology often occurs in the vitality of local churches house fellowships and various mission settings in America and around the world Birthed in the fires of revival movements essential Pentecostalism including Pentecostal theology continues to burn brightest wherever it is fueled most directly

New Religious Movements in Modern Asian History David W. Kim,2020-09-30 This book provides evidence that the emergence of Asian new religious movements NRMs was predominantly the result of anti colonial ideology from local religious groups or individuals The contributors argue that when traditional religions were powerless to maintain their cultural heritage the leadership of NRMs adduced alternative principles and the new teachings of each NRM attracted the local people enough for them to change their beliefs The contributors argue that as a whole the Asian new religious movements overall were very ardent and progressive in transmitting their new ideologies The varied viewpoints in this volume attest to the consistent development of Asian NRMs from domestic and international dimensions by replacing old traditional religions doubted the viability of capitalism and some liberation theologians from the 1970s used Marxist social analysis as an integral part of their search for justice. As it happened, the 1980s brought about the collapse of real socialism and the resurgence of liberal capitalism. From the time of John XXIII (1953-63) the pastors of the Church have been responding to these new needs and with the advent of John Paul II the controversies over liberation theology and the collapse of socialism the pace of that response has quickened. Rodger Charles, Lecturer and Tutor in Moral and Pastoral Theology at Campion Hall, Oxford, has spent over thirty years researching, lecturing and writing in London, Oxford and San Francisco on the social teaching of the Church and its application. His book provides a masterly and unrivalled introduction to this topic.
