The Eye Of A Traveller Landscapes And Seascapes:

The Eye of a Traveller Richard J. Schoeck, 1992 Meditative conversational or sometimes lyrical this collection of poems is about landscapes and seascapes The sense of the poetry of place is crystallized in the final poems of the volume that deal with the metaphors of travel      Landscape, Seascape, and the Eco-Spatial Imagination Simon C. Estok, Jonathan White, I-Chun Wang, 2016-05-12 Written from within the best traditions of ecocritical thought this book provides a wide ranging account of the spatial imagination of landscape and seascape in literary and cultural contexts from many regions of the world It brings together essays by authors writing from within diverse cultural traditions across historical periods from ancient Egypt to the postcolonial and postmodern present and touches on an array of divergent theoretical interventions The volume investigates how our spatial imaginations become wired looking at questions about mediation and exploring how various traditions compete for prominence in our spatial imagination In what ways is personal experience inflected by prevailing cultural traditions of representation and interpretation Can an individual maintain a unique and distinctive spatial imagination in the face of dominant trends in perception and interpretation What are the environmental implications of how we see landscape The book reviews how landscape is at once conceptual and perceptual illuminating several important themes including the temporality of space the mediations of place that form the response of an observer of a landscape and the development of response in any single life from early partial thoughts to more considered ideas in maturity Chapters provide suggestive and culturally nuanced propositions from varying points of view on ancient and modern landscapes and seascapes and on how individuals or societies have arranged conceptualized or imagined circumambient space Opening up issues of landscape seascape and spatiality this volume commences a wide ranging critical discussion that includes various approaches to literature history and cultural studies Bringing together research from diverse areas such as ecocriticism landscape theory colonial and postcolonial theory hybridization theory and East Asian Studies to provide a historicized and global account of our ecospatial imaginations this book will be useful for scholars of landscape ecology ecocriticism physical and social geography postcolonialism and postcolonial ecologies comparative literary studies and East Asian Studies

Erasmus in the Twentieth Century Bruce Mansfield, 2003-01-01 Bruce Mansfield shows how shifting interpretations and changing critical regard for Erasmus and his work reflect cultural shifts of the last century      An Eye for the Tropics Krista A. Thompson, 2007-03-15 A beautifully illustrated look at the aesthetics and implications of the visual images used to sell Jamaica and the Bahamas to tourists as tropical paradises from the 1880s through the 1930s      Underwater Seascapes Olivier Musard, Laurence Le Dû-Blayo, Patrice Francour, Jean-Pierre Beurier, Eric Feunteun, Luc Talassinos, 2014-03-24 While the European Landscape Convention adopted in Florence in 2000 by the European Council offers a public action framework through a normative definition the marine and submarine dimensions of landscapes are attracting growing interest from researchers worldwide At a time when marine conservation objectives are strongly endorsed by the Convention on Biological

Diversity the French Marine Protected Areas Agency a public institution under the governance of the French Ministry of the Environment has gathered prominent experts to draft the very first interdisciplinary overview of underwater seascapes so as to initiate and lend direction to a wider reflection on this emerging research topic

Landscapes and Environments of the Middle Ages Michael Bintley, Kate Franklin, 2023-08-14 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the landscapes of the Middle Ages within and beyond Europe paying close attention to the relationship between real and imagined landscapes and the ways that medieval people made and inhabited their world Rather than studying nature in the Middle Ages the book instead examines the spaces that people constructed through soil stone and song water and wasteland plants and animals and timber textiles and texts which in turn made up the medieval world Likewise the text emphasises a definition of environment that focuses on living with inviting readers to think about the more than human worlds that medieval people depended on cared for constructed and damaged Bringing together a wide range of primary source material including evidence from texts material culture and visual arts the book reflects the diversity of landscapes and human responses to them throughout the course of this period and considers the role that these medieval worlds have played in shaping the modern both physically and culturally Landscapes and Environments of the Middle Ages is an excellent resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in medieval studies and history offering interdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational insights into this period of immense change and innovation
