Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Michael Ondaatje Lee Spinks, 2013-07-19 Michael Ondaatje is the first comprehensive and fully up to date study of Ondaatje's entire oeuvre Starting from Ondaatje's beginnings as a poet this volume offers an intensive account of each of his major publications including The Collected Works of Billy the Kid Coming Through Slaughter In The Skin of a Lion and The English Patient drawing attention to the various contexts and intertexts that have informed his work The book contains a broad overview of Ondaatje's career for students and readers coming to his work for the first time It also offers an original reading of his writing which significantly revises conventional accounts of Ondaatje as a postmodern or postcolonial writer As the fullest account of Ondaatje's work to date Spinks's approach draws on a range of postcolonial elsewhere Travel and travel experience on the other hand have been part of the cultural codes not only of the West and not only of imperialism The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at their dis locating effects They cover a wide range of topics from early seventeenth century travel reports through nineteenth century women s travel writing to such contemporary writers as Michael Ondaatje and Janette Turner Hospital Post Celtic Tiger
