The Face Of Pain And Hope Stories Of Diakonia In Europe:

The Face of Pain and Hope Robin Gurney, 1995-01-01 How can churches develop new forms of service which will both meet the needs of individuals families and wider communities and promote social justice The stories in this book describe creative efforts to work out such a vision of diakonia Christian service in countries all around Europe The church which shines through them is one where God is present in the midst of the muddy streets and darkened ways and where people are empowered to stand for their rights and dignity The book makes those people known and their voices heard Besides encouraging people to listen to these voices and be inspired to similar efforts elsewhere this book is also suitable as a resource volume for training people for similar work Missionalia ,1996 The Ecumenical Review ,1996 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1998 Dictionary of the Ecumenical Movement Nicolas Lossky, 2002 The 700 entries in this dictionary have been written by leading figures in the ecumenical movement from all parts of the world Entries are fully cross referenced and many of the articles are enhanced by short bibliographies Entries cover faith and order dialogue mission and evangelism communication church and society theological education institutional histories and relations of Orthodox Protestants and Roman Catholics within the ecumenical movement Biographical sketches outline the contributions of some of the individuals who have furthered the cause of ecumenism in the 20th century Cross references direct the reader to more detailed information or to matters of related interest Mondo e missione ,1996 Das Schweizer Buch ,1996 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 □□ □□□ □□ □□ □□, 2006 Neuerwerbungen Theologie und allgemeine Religionswissenschaft Universität Tübingen. Department for Mission and Development, The three LWF regions in Europe Central Eastern Europe Central Western Europe and the Nordic countries decided to launch a process to re form community diakonia as part of a contribution to the Reformation Anniversary At first glance the regions are diverse but through the process of Seeking conviviality reforming community diakonia in Europe the European Solidarity Group of diakonal workers found that they face similar concerns about the need to reevaluate the practice of congregational and local diakonia They found that growing inequality deteriorating working conditions and unemployment especially among young people were critical issues to be addressed Starting in 2011 the LWF in partnership in interdiac an international network academy based in the Czech Republic developed a process with diaconal actors from the three European regions page 1 Diakonia Thomas Patrick Halton, Joseph P. Williman, 1986 Diakonia As Christian Social Practice Stephanie Dietrich, Knud Jorgensen, Kari Karsrud Korslien, 2015-01-07 The concept of diakonia has developed over the last decades especially within the ecumenical movement to a degree that may be characterized as a paradigm shift

Three main features characterize this change First the ecclesial dimension of diakonia is now strongly underlined While diakonia earlier often was perceived as the activity of professional diaconal workers or agencies it is now emphasized that diakonia belongs to the nature and the mission of being church Second it affirms that diaconal action must be holistic taking into consideration the physical mental social and spiritual dimension and rejecting practices that tend to departmentalize sectors of human reality Third it enhances bold and prophetic expressions of diaconal action in solidarity with marginalized and suffering people moving away from traditions of conceptualizing diakonia as humble service The authors of this book largely subscribe to this understanding The major part of them belongs to the faculty of Diakonhjemmet University College in Oslo This book is a must read for academicians practitioners and leaders in the churches and theological institutions as it brings up new perspectives of diakonia in a changing global context It is an ideal resource book for churches as they nurture and enhance their vision and commitment to diakonia including critiquing their current approaches From the foreword by Agnes Abuom Moderator of the World Council of Churches In the Lutheran church we speak of prophetic diakonia Prophetic diakonia works for the fruition of peace with justice and reconciliation based on forgiveness We work to empower those in need to stand on their feet and become deacons in their own context I adjure readers of this book to remember that holistic mission includes prophetic diakonia Munib Younan President of the Lutheran World Federation Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Jordan and the Holy Land In a time when the churches together are searching for how to be a servant church in a rapidly changing world this book is presenting a remarkable source for reflection and for studies It is conveying new perspectives on the meaning and the liberating power of the diakonia of the church For deacons and indeed for anybody called to serve in and for the church this book provides new insights The ecumenical movement as a joint move into the future needs books like this Olav Fykse Tveit General Secretary World Council of Churches This book is highly welcomed by Norwegian Church Aid It puts our core mandate international diakonia into a broader context while firmly placing it at the center of the nature of the Church The authors point to the unique qualities and distinctiveness of diakonia and the book is therefore a good reminder that diakonia can truly be a powerful driver of sustainable change Anne Marie Helland General Secretary Norwegian Church Aid Diaconal circles within European churches long ago expanded the narrow and introverted ideology courageous as it was for its time of the early 19th century founders of the modern deacon movements This book evidences ongoing tensions in attempting to come to terms with the revolution that has occurred in the theological underpinning of diaconate and is one of the first to make the attempt in the public arena John N Collins Lector Emeritus Melbourne University of Divinity Stephanie Dietrich is Associate Professor at Diakonhjemmet University College Norway Knud Jorgensen is Adjunct Professor at the MF Norwegian School of Theology Kari Karsrud Korslien is Assistant Professor at Diakonhjemmet University College Kjell Nordstokke is Professor Emeritus at Diakonhjemmet University College Seeking Conviviality Lutheran World Federation.
