thoughts Either way you're itching to begin writing A lot of writers especially when they're beginners get ideas for fiction from their own lives This can be useful for several reasons you're emotionally invested in the topic you can relate directly to the main character and if the situation actually happened to you you're less likely to be unconsciously basing the story on a book you've read When writers stick too closely to what really happened they fail to develop the elements necessary for a good story a believable main character who is faced with a problem or conflict mounting tension as that character tries to solve her problem and experiences setbacks and a tension filled climax followed by a resolution that's satisfying to the character and the reader
