Rudolf Steiner

The False Face Of Death:

The Gospel of St. John and Its Relation to the other Gospels Rudolf Steiner, 1982-03-01 Beginning at the turn of the century Rudolf Steiner began to express a passionate interest in Christianity For him the event he called the Mystery of Golgotha is more than the central event of Christianity it is in fact the turning point in time for all human and earthly evolution In his Autobiography Steiner clarified his views on Christianity Some of what I said and wrote during that period 1890s seems to contradict the way I described Christianity later on This is because when I wrote the word Christianity I was referring to the teachings of a world beyond that was active in all Christian doctrines at the time The whole meaning of religious experiences pointed to a world of spirit one that was supposed to be unattainable by human intellect Whatever religion might have to say and whatever precepts for moral life it might offer arise from what is revealed to human beings from outside My own direct inner perception of spirit objected to this it wanted to experience the worlds of both spirit and the physical in perceptions of the human being and nature And my ethical individualism objected to this It rejected the external support of commandments for morality such support came instead as the result of spiritual soul development within the human being where divinity lives That was a trying time for my soul as I looked at Christianity This period lasted from the time I left the Weimar work until I wrote my book Christianity as Mystical Fact These kinds of tests are obstacles placed in one's path by destiny or karma and they must be overcome through spiritual development In these talks Rudolf Steiner offers his profound insights into the essential truths behind the Christ event as well as the historic and prehistoric events on Earth and in the spiritual worlds leading up to the turning point in time He shows that the ancient mysteries of the East the Persians the Egyptians the Greeks and the streams behind those impulses going back to Atlantis and Lemuria all lead to the event of Christ's incarnation and the Mystery of Golgotha through which the Earth became the body of Christ Further Steiner talks about what those events mean for the future of humanity and the Earth The Gospel of St John and Its Relation to the Other Gospels is an essential document in the literature of Christology and for understanding the central place of esoteric Christianity in Anthroposophy

The World in Falseface George Jean Nathan, 1972 George Jean Nathan 1882 1958 was formative influence on American letters in the first half of this century and is generally considered the leading drama critic of his era With H L Mencken Nathan edited The Smart Set and founded and edited The American Mercury journals that shaped opinion in the 1920s and 1930s This series of reprints individually introduced by the distinguished critic and novelist Charles Angoff collects Nathan's penetrating witty and sometimes cynical drama criticism

The Fleeing Youth Richard Distasi, 2009-07-17 It is commonly accepted that the mission of Christ was an act that was independent of any corresponding and requisite deed on the part of humanity Though in part this is true this book asserts that the future spiritual evolution of humanity was dependent on human comprehension and understanding of the Event of Golgotha Comprehension and understanding are defined in this work as one's capacity to spiritually follow Christ through His entire adversity to the pinnacle of empowerment In this captivating tale unconditional love takes center stage transcending the superficial boundaries of race gender religion and social status Through the lens of trauma and tolerance witness the remarkable journey of resilience and growth as one individual defies the odds to embrace change and transformation Picture this the story unfolds in 1963 amidst the backdrop of racial strife and personal tragedy Born into a tumultuous world a young girl finds herself orphaned at a tender age navigating the harsh realities of loss and abandonment Raised in a fractured environment she grapples with the truth of her existence seeking solace in substances In this book you will discover the transformative power of resilience diversity and unconditional love Join the central character on a quest for authenticity and belonging as she navigates the complexities of identity and forges her own path to greatness Through her extraordinary journey she finds hope inspiration and the courage to embrace love The central character s mother welcomed her eleventh child into the world a beautiful and healthy baby girl Each pregnancy presented its own set of complications Despite being warned by doctors about the dangers of further pregnancies two years later she gave birth to her twelfth child Tragically she passed away shortly after childbirth Left orphaned at the age of two the girl found herself living with older siblings The man her mother had chosen as a partner was an absentee father consumed by alcoholism and devoid of support Fast forward to 1978 she was 15 years old orphaned fractured and living from pillar to post Enduring pain and trauma for a number of years she chose to cloak herself in substances to hide the pain of her existence Amidst her turmoil a beacon of hope emerges in the form of an unexpected ally Dr Susan A Wheelan an Irish lesbian psychologist with a heart of gold Through her unwavering support and mentorship the young girl embarks on a journey of self discovery and empowerment Graduating high school against all odds she finds refuge and belonging in a new home defying societal expectations and claiming her sense of identity As she adapts to her newfound environment the young girl confronts the complexities of diversity and inclusion Encountering prejudice and resistance she learns invaluable lessons about acceptance compassion and unconditional love Together with her adoptive mother they navigate the challenges of interracial adoption forging a bond built on mutual respect and understanding Through perseverance and determination the young girl emerges as a beacon of inspiration transcending the confines of her past to embrace a future filled with limitless possibilities Armed with the wisdom imparted by her mother she embarks on a journey of self realization harnessing her innate potential to uplift others and effect positive change in the world Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives: Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures Acts of Theft Arthur A.
