The Africa Letters Anne Warmus,2009 The African Squadron; Ashburton Treaty; Consular Sea Letters Andrew Hull Foote,1855 Letters from Africa, 1914-1931 Isak Dinesen,Frans Lasson,1978 The African Squadron: Ashburton Treaty: Consular Sea Letters. Reviewed in an Address, Etc Andrew Hull FOOTE,1855 African Repository and Colonial Journal ,1851 The African Repository ... Ralph Randolph Gurley,1835 Coos-coo-soo; Or, Letters from Tangier, in Africa G. Fort,1859 Letters from East Africa, 1895-1897 Gertrude Ward,1899 The African Repository and Colonial Journal ,1834 An African Commentary on the Letter of James J. Ayodeji Adewuya,2023-01-19 Africa is a necessary but an often neglected continent So also is the letter of James necessary but neglected Yet there is perhaps no biblical text that speaks to the life situation in Africa in the twenty first century more directly than the book of James An African Commentary on the Letter of James is an attempt to hear the message of James s letter from a non Western social and cultural setting It seeks to demonstrate how one s worldview language culture economic status and religion make a significant difference in appropriating the message of the biblical text The commentary explores how the written word impacts the readers in a predominantly oral culture It attempts to hear what James is saying from a different context but in doing so explains James with a different voice Like the letter of James itself the commentary uses pithy sayings proverbs and aphorisms to explain the meaning of the text The African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child: A Commentary Julia Sloth-Nielsen,Elvis Fokala ,Godfrey Odongo ,2025-01-01 Since its adoption in July 1990 and entry into force in November 1999 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children s Charter has become a key treaty within the African human rights system governing children s rights in Africa To date 51 out of 55 African Union member states have ratified the African Children s Charter which demonstrates a growing commitment to respect protect and promote the rights of children There is no doubt that the Charter since entering into force has significantly contributed to the development of standards and practice related to children in Africa This comprehensive commentary on the African Children s Charter the first of its kind provides a systematic analysis of each article of the Charter tracing the origin of the rights highlighting and explaining unique African concepts and normative standards featured in the Charter The Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in protecting and promoting children s rights in Africa such as researchers teachers students practitioners policy makers and activists Authored by an array of contributors steeped in African jurisprudence and human rights values comprising 38 discrete chapters it constitutes an essential and contemporary guide to the legal understanding of the various provisions the Charter provides for It is edited by three African scholars prominent in the field of children s rights in Africa Prof Julia Sloth Nielsen Prof Elvis Fokala and Dr Godfrey Odongo This Commentary is the second in the PULP series of Commentaries on African human rights law Foot-Prints of a Letter-Carrier James Rees,2018-05-15 Reproduction of the original Foot Prints of a Letter Carrier by James Rees Letters to Sabbath School

Bridging the Gap, Breaching Barriers Mary Carol Cloutier,2021-03-04

From its very beginning in June 1842 the Protestant Mission in Gabon included men and women of African descent African Americans American Liberians and West Africans all teachers and advanced students from the Cape Palmas Liberia Mission who transferred with the mission to its new location on the Gaboon estuary All came voluntarily and wholeheartedly They served as teachers evangelists preachers and printers building the early foundation of Christianity in Gabon Many eventually returned to their homelands but others stayed for the duration of their lives assimilating into the local community This book celebrates the contribution of persons of African descent who served with the mission from 1834 until 1891 a time of complex and controversial race relations in America which seeped into mission relations overseas Private missionary correspondence and journals reveal the interrelationships roles and contributions of these individuals and also the underlying perceptions of nationality race and gender One must grieve the injustices evident in the stories yet marvel at the giftedness faith determination and commitment of those who served often with no official recognition I introduce you to Mr B V R James Lavinia Sneed Charity Sneed Menkel Mary Harding and others may their stories inspire you

Law, Religion and Human Flourishing in Africa M. Christian Green,2019-05-15 A shared interest of law and religion is the advancement of human flourishing yet there is no common understanding of what it means for humans to flourish and the means by which to attain a flourishing life The concept of human flourishing is especially important for Africa where community and national development compete with forces of conflict and scarce resources In the broadest sense the concept of human flourishing focuses our attention on having a comprehensively good or worthwhile life but various religious and legal traditions suggest different norms for measuring the quality of life and designing the institutional structures that could best facilitate and preserve it

The Victorian soldier in Africa Edward Spiers,2013-07-19 The Victorian soldier in Africa re examines the campaign experience of British soldiers in Africa during the period 1874 1902 the zenith of the Victorian imperial expansion and does so from the perspective of the regimental soldier The book utilises an unprecedented number of letters and diaries written by regimental officers and other ranks to allow soldiers to speak for themselves about their experience of colonial warfare The sources demonstrate the adaptability of the British army in fighting in different climates over demanding terrain and against a diverse array of enemies They also uncover soldiers responses to army reforms of the era as well as the response to the introduction of new technologies of war Moreover the book provides commentary on soldiers views of commanding officers and politicians alongside assessment of war correspondents colonial auxiliaries and African natives in their roles as bearers allies and enemies This book reveals new insights on imperial and racial attitudes within the army on relations between soldiers and the media and the production of information and knowledge from frontline to homefront It will make fascinating reading for students academics and enthusiasts in imperial history Victorian studies military history and colonial warfare An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Soldiers and Settlers in Africa Stephen M. Miller, 2009 This book revisits some of the most significant guerrilla struggles of the late 19th century all set in Africa and remind readers in light of current events the difficulties involved in engaging in this type of conflict

African Modernities and Mobilities Gam Nkwi, 2015-05-11 In this book Walter Gam Nkwi documents the complexities and nuances embedded in African modernities and mobilities which have been overlooked in historical discourses in Africa and Cameroon Using an ethnographic historical approach and drawing on the intricacies of what it has meant to be and belong in Kom an ethnic community in the Northwest Region of Cameroon since 1800 he explores the discourses and practices of kfaang as central to any understanding of mobility and modernity in Kom Cameroon and Africa at large The book unveils the emic understanding of modernity through the history and ethnography of kfaang and its technologies and illustrates how these terminologies were conceived and perceived by the Kom people in their social and physical mobilities It documents and analyzes the historical processes involved in bringing about and making kfaang a defining feature of everyday life in Kom and among Kom subjects

Foot-prints of a letter carrier; or, a history of the world's correspondence James Rees, 2021-05-19 In Foot prints of a Letter Carrier or A History of the World's Correspondence James Rees masterfully intertwines personal narrative with a sweeping historical analysis of letter writing and postal systems Through engaging anecdotes as a letter carrier Rees explores the evolution of correspondence from antiquity to the modern age examining the social political and technological transformations that shaped human communication His literary style is marked by a blend of detailed observation historical rigor and an underlying reverence for the written word making this work both informative and reflective James Rees a distinguished figure in the study of communication history draws from his own experiences in the postal service to provide a rich context for understanding the significance of correspondence in human interactions Rees's passion for the subject is evident in his meticulous research and the personal insights he shares which not only illuminate historical trends but also the emotional weight of letters that connect individuals across time and space For readers fascinated by the evolution of communication or the intimate stories behind written exchanges Rees's work is indispensable Foot prints of a Letter Carrier offers a profound glimpse into the role letters play in society making it a compelling read for historians scholars and anyone intrigued by the power of the pen
