The English Tradition In Design With 40 Plates And 72 Illustrations:

The English Tradition in Architecture John Gloag, 1963 Pevsner: The BBC Years Stephen Games, 2016-03-09 Pevsner The BBC Years gives the first full account of Sir Nikolaus Pevsner's engagement with the BBC at a time when both were the dominant institutions in their own fields Pevsner as the most persuasive figure in architecture and art history the BBC as the country's sole broadcaster A German emigré Pevsner was not at first trusted to speak on the air and was only invited to appear at the very end of the war in spite of his growing eminence in academia and publishing With the arrival of the Third Programme in 1946 however he quickly became a broadcasting celebrity and one whom senior BBC figures regarded as essential and novel listening Pevsner The BBC Years looks at the sudden rise in Pevsner's standing at the BBC at what he was admired for and at the circumstances surrounding his being commissioned in the mid 1950s to give the first series of Reith Lectures on an arts subject the relationship between visual expression and national identity The book explains the roles played by Geoffrey Grigson Basil Taylor Anna Kallin and Leonie Cohn in advancing Pevsner's BBC career analyses the literary character of his broadcasting and considers the function of his talks as an extension of European belletrism It also demonstrates the significance of his concurrent editorship of the King Penguin series of books In addition Pevsner The BBC Years documents the unravelling of Pevsner's reputation It shows how he was caught between changing fashions in media culture and damaged by doubts about the safety of his ideas both within the BBC and externally among British conservatives who found him too radical and American radicals who found him too conservative In Pevsner The BBC Years correspondence from the BBC's archives provides a case study of scholarly thought being exposed to independent scrutiny a process with lessons for today The Studio, 1910 The Private Library, 1977 Tradition and Innovation in French Garden Art John Dixon Hunt, Michel Conan, Claire Goldstein, 2002-05-27 Papers from a symposium held at the University of Pennsylvania

Owen-Crocker, 2023-05-31 This collection of fifteen papers ranges from the author's initial interest in the Tapestry as a source of information on early medieval dress through to her startling recognition of the embroidery's sophisticated narrative structure Developing the work of previous authors who had identified graphic models for some of the images she argues that not just the images themselves but the contexts from which they were drawn should be taken in to account in reading the messages of the Tapestry In further investigating the minds and hands behind this the largest non architectural artefact surviving from the Middle Ages she ranges over the seams the embroidery stitches the language and artistry of the inscription the potential significance of borders and the gestures of the figures in the main register always scrutinising detail informatively She identifies an over riding conception and house style in the Tapestry but also sees different hands at work in both needlecraft and graphics Most intriguingly she recognises an sub contractor with a Roman source and a clownish wit The author is Professor of Anglo Saxon Culture at The University of Manchester UK a specialist in Old English poetry Anglo Saxon material culture and medieval dress and textiles General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
