Language Learning and Teaching Joshua J. Thoms, Kristen Michelson, 2024-10-15 Rapid changes in communication channels tools and conventions of interaction over the last two decades have paved the way for increasingly digital learning environments In second language L2 education shifts toward digital learning and teaching were intensified during the pandemic and many such formats are here to stay At the same time a growing interest in socially oriented pedagogies in L2 learning and teaching is prompting many L2 researchers and practitioners to investigate new research areas and explore post communicative language teaching pedagogies that engage learners more deeply with cultural texts using a range of semiotic and linguistic resources Digital Social Reading DSR is a pedagogical approach that affords technology mediated collaborative reading where texts are read through a digital platform that allows two or more readers to highlight the same virtual copy of a text and discuss it through a digital interface that affords synchronous or asynchronous margin dialogues anchored in specific passages This book offers empirical studies demonstrating how DSR can foster and illuminate learner interactions that mediate learning and also work that focuses on language teaching perspectives in DSR environments including task design and assessment issues Revue Canadienne Des Langues Vivantes ,1993 Canadiana ,1991-12

Education ,2001-10 Approaches to Inclusive English Classrooms Kate Mastruserio Reynolds, 2015-03-02 This book provides educators with an accessible guide to best practices concerning content based instruction CBI models and their use in English learner inclusive classrooms The author effectively bridges the gap between theory and practice with a critical analysis of practical examples and diverse strategies for the inclusion of English learners into K 12 general education courses
The book also raises controversial questions regarding who is qualified to teach English learners and who is responsible for doing so looking at the difficulties faced by both general educators and ESL teachers in Inclusive Classrooms By providing a lens through which both ESL teachers and general educators are able to analyze compare and contrast a range of widely employed CBI methods this book allows teachers to make informed decisions in their EL program development and work with English learners in K 12 schools Literature-based Instruction with English Language Learners, K-12 Nancy L. Hadaway, Sylvia M. Vardell, Terrell A. Young, 2002 This book takes a literature based approach to how children learn language and how it is taught in today's diverse K 12 classrooms The material is based on the belief that literature offers the most effective instructional approach for English language learners The book offers meaningful reading writing speaking and listening activities as well as new understandings about the forms and functions of written language This is the first book that offers instructors guidance in expanding the range of materials they use for teaching ESL by going beyond the standard texts to include books of all kinds children's literature trade books magazines and other media Voices from the Classroom Scenarios from K 12 classrooms with English language learners are provided throughout the chapters offering practical stories from teachers' points of view K 12 Educators with diverse student populations Bilingual Learners and the Mainstream Curriculum Jean Bleach, 1990 The general purpose of the book is to further establish and maintain the place of developing bilingual students as normal learners within the mainstream of schools It argues this as a central requirement for achieving a fair curriculum in a multicultural society Whole Language Carl Bernard Smith, 1994 This book presents a debate between reasonable educators who either claim that there is evidence for the effectiveness of whole language or who challenge the claim that whole language works across the broad spectrum of learners The book presents the debate in the form of formal debate resolutions opening statements transcripts of a face to face shoot out at a convention of the National Reading Conference in San Antonio Texas further written responses and commentary on the debate Contents of the book are And the Winner Is The Context of the Debate Carl B Smith Call Me Teacher Susan Ohanian Whole Language and Research The Case for Caution Michael C McKenna and others Moderator's Comments Carl B Smith The Answer Is Yes Patrick Shannon Unlike Patrick We Do Accept Reality Michael McKenna Who the Hell Are You Susan Ohanian Let Us Not Permit Ourselves to Be Forced into Bitterly Polarized Positions Richard Robinson Audience Participation moderated by Carl B Smith People Who Live in Glass Houses Patrick Shannon Emerging Perspectives on Whole Language Michael C McKenna and others Whole Language Now More Than Ever Shelley Harwayne Is Whole Language The Real Thing Advertisements and Research in the Debate on Whole Language Steven Stahl New Questions Different Inquiries Jerome Harste and Commentary on the ERIC Whole Language Debate Michael Pressley A selected annotated bibliography of approximately 1 000 items from the ERIC database concerning whole language is included RS Content-based Second Language Teaching and Learning Marjorie Hall Haley, Theresa Y.
