The Essential Shakespeare Live The Royal Shakespeare Company In Performance:

Screening the Royal Shakespeare Company John Wyver, 2019-06-27 No theatre company has been involved in such a broad range of adaptations for television and cinema as the Royal Shakespeare Company Starting with Richard III filmed in the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre before World War One the RSC's accomplishments continue today with highly successful live cinema broadcasts The Wars of the Roses BBC 1965 Peter Brook's film of King Lear 1971 Channel 4's epic version of Nicholas Nickleby 1982 and Hamlet with David Tennant BBC 2009 are among their most iconic adaptations Many other RSC productions live on as extracts in documentaries as archival recordings in trailers and in other fragmentary forms Screening the Royal Shakespeare Company explores this remarkable history of collaborations between stage and screen and considers key questions about adaptation that concern all those involved in theatre film and television John Wyver is a broadcasting historian and the producer of RSC Live from Stratford upon Avon and is uniquely well placed to provide a vivid account of the company's television and film productions He contributes an award winning practitioner's insight into screen adaptation's numerous challenges and rich potential Shakespeare and the Making of Theatre Paul Edmondson, Bridget Escolme, 2012-10-18 A highly engaging text that approaches Shakespeare as a maker of theatre as well as a writer of literature Leading performance critics dismantle Shakespeare's texts identifying theatrical cues in ways which develop understanding of the underlying theatricality of Shakespeare's plays and stimulate further performances Transforming the Teaching of Shakespeare with the Royal Shakespeare Company Joe Winston, 2015-02-26 This book tells the story of the Royal Shakespeare Company's acclaimed and influential project to transform the teaching of Shakespeare in schools It examines their approaches to making his plays more accessible enjoyable and relevant to young people describing the innovative classroom practices that the Company has pioneered and locating these within a clearly articulated theory of learning It also provides evidence of their impact on children and young people's experience of Shakespeare drawing upon original research as well as research commissioned by the RSC itself Authoritative but highly readable the book is relevant to anyone with an interest in the teaching of Shakespeare and in how a major cultural organisation can have a real impact on the education of young people from a wide range of social backgrounds It benefits from interviews with key policy makers and practitioners from within the RSC including their legendary voice coach Cicely Berry and with internationally renowned figures such as the writer and academic Jonathan Bate the previous artistic director of the RSC Michael Boyd and the celebrated playwright Tim Crouch Documentation, Disappearance and the Representation of Live Performance M. Reason, 2006-09-22 The documentation of practice is one of the principle concerns of performance studies Focusing on contemporary performance practice and with emphasis on the transformative impact of video photography and writing this book explores the ideological practical and representational implications of knowing performance through its documentations Playing Real Lindsay Brandon Hunter, 2021-02-15 Playing Real Mimesis Media and Mischief explores the integration and interaction of mimetic theatricality and representational media in twentieth and twenty first century performance It brings together carefully chosen sites of performance including live broadcasts of theatrical productions reality television and alternate reality gaming in which mediatization and mimesis compete and collude to represent the real to audiences Lindsay Brandon Hunter reads such performances as forcing confrontation between notions of authenticity sincerity and spontaneity and their various others the fake the feigned the staged or the rehearsed Each site examined in Playing Real purports to show audiences something real real theater real housewives real alternative scenarios which is simultaneously visible as overtly constructed adulterated by artifice and artificiality The integration of mediatization and theatricality in these performances Hunter argues exploits the proclivities of both to conjure the real even as they risk corrupting the perception of authenticity by imbricating it with artifice and overt manipulation Although the performances analyzed obscure boundaries separating actual from virtual genuine from artificial and truth from fiction Hunter rejects the notion that these productions imperil the real She insists on uncertainty as a fertile site for productive and pleasurable mischief including relationships to realness and authenticity among both audience and participants Complete Works
