Sprague de Camp, 2016-11-01 The King had a good head on his shoulders for the moment anyway Everyone agreed that King Jorian of Xylar had been a good and just ruler In fact many also agreed that in this case it was a pity that the laws of Xylar decreed that each randomly chosen King must reign for only five years and then after due pomp and ceremony have his head cut off Understandably Jorian himself was wholeheartedly in agreement with the second sentiment so with the help of a spell provided by the wizard Karadur he escaped from the beheading ceremony with his head still on his shoulders Unfortunately his beloved wife Queen Estrildis was left behind and getting her out of Xylar would be anything but simple particularly with the Royal Guard of Xylar hot on the trail of their fugitive monarch With Karadur s magic Jorian might be able to pull off the rescue But first he would have to locate a trove of ancient spells deal with an enemy wizard steal an item from a 500 year old but still beautiful princess who turns into a giant serpent at inopportune moments repair the giant tower clocks of Iraz to fulfill a prophecy break a pirate siege and finally fly back to Xylar in an enchanted bathtub and whisk away his beloved Estrildis before the Royal Guard notices that their King not to mention his head has returned Then things began to get complicated At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights
