Sir Garnet Wolseley

William Wright

Sir Garnet Wolseley:

Sir Garnet Wolseley Stephen Manning, 2024-02-01 Field Marshal Lord Wolseley was an eminent Victorian one of a handful of late nineteenth century military men whose reputation transcends his age He served the British empire in Burma India China the Crimea Canada Asante Egypt South Africa and the Sudan He excelled as a regimental soldier staff officer army commander and reformer and eventually commander in chief Yet there has been no substantial work on Wolseley for a generation and a reassessment based upon a fresh look at the man and his achievements is long overdue That is why Stephen Manning's perceptive military biography which sets Wolseley firmly in the context of his period and seeks to strip away the legend that developed during his lifetime is so timely and important Each of Wolseley's campaigns is examined in vivid detail and there are graphic descriptions of the major battles in which he took part either as an officer or a general His performance as a commander from his great success during the expedition against the Asante to his failure to rescue Gordon from Khartoum is critically assessed to see if he deserves his brilliant reputation His efforts as an army reformer are examined too in particular whether he could have done more to prepare Britain for war against the Boers Stephen Manning's incisive account of Wolseley's career will be fascinating reading for anyone who is interested in the British army in the nineteenth century in colonial warfare and in the exploits of one of Queen Victoria's most admired generals *Sir Garnet Wolseley's Ancestry. Excerpt from A Memoir of Lieutenant General Sir Garnet J Wolseley Vol 1 of 2. Some explanation appears necessary in publishing the Biography of a man still living. On the 6th of May 1874 immediately on the return of Sir Garnet Wolseley from Ashantee I commenced to write this Memoir of his military services. The task was a difficult one for Sir Garnet had lost all his papers and journals. During the Indian Mutiny they were stolen and what remained to him were burnt at the great fire at the Pantechmicon where all his furniture and effects were consumed. Thus when I applied to him for assistance he expressed his regret that he had no private papers whatever in his possession but with characteristic kindness consented to give me all the information in his power.
