

The book cover features a detailed illustration of an underwater scene. A pale, ethereal mermaid with long, flowing hair is the central figure, surrounded by vibrant coral, various sea creatures like fish and a seahorse, and a large starfish in the upper left. The title 'THE SIRENS' is prominently displayed in a large, white, serif font, with 'A NOVEL' written above it in a smaller, white, serif font. The author's name 'EMILIA HART' is at the bottom in a gold, serif font, followed by a line of text identifying her as a New York Times bestselling author of 'WEYWARD'.

M. Aquilina, 2014-09-16 The Event of Style in Literature brings discussions about the question of style up to date by schematising the principal issues relating to the topic through a critical overview of the canon of style studies It reads the work of Jacques Derrida Maurice Blanchot and Hans Georg Gadamer as groundbreaking and eventful interventions

German Feminist Queer Crime Fiction Faye Stewart, 2014-02-14 A marriage of mystery fiction and queer concerns queer crime literature celebrates the pairing of the political and the sexual Queer crime fiction is a subgenre in which sex gender and sexuality are among the mysteries to be solved Its writers use boundary crossing identities and desires to express social critique inviting readers to interpret queer narratives as literary incursions into cultural traditions From androgynous investigators and serial killer housewives to closeted lesbians and transgendered lovers the characters in queer mysteries are metaphors for changing social and political relations This book reads German language crime stories as allegories about 20th and 21st century upheavals raising questions about human behavior and justice the horrors of extremism the changing shape of the nation and the possibilities of democracy Anchored in the historical contexts of protest cultures and countercultures of the last three decades this study examines novels by popular feminist writers Pieke Biermann Edith Kneifl and Ingrid Noll and unexplored works by Susanne Billig Gabriele Gelien Corinna Kawaters Katrin Kremmler Christine Lehmann and Martina Marie Liertz An analysis of recent debates through the lens of genre fiction serves as the foundation for telling the cultural history of contemporary Germany Austria and Europe as a whole from a new perspective Sirens Chris Achilleos, 2009

The Place It Was Done Šárka Bubíková, Olga Roebuck, 2023-03-03 Locations play an important role in every story but in

British and American contemporary crime fiction they are often inextricable from the narrative This work examines the city the countryside and the wilderness as places ripe with literary significance and symbolism Using works by authors like Robert Galbraith Ian Rankin Denise Mina Chris Brookmyre John Knox Peter Robinson Linda Barnes Dana Stabenow Nevada Barr Les Roberts Philip R Craig and others this work offers a fresh assessment of how place and space are employed in contemporary crime fiction Highlighted are similarities and differences among the authors approaches to setting and how they relate to the history of crime fiction and to the general literary representation of place Going beyond mere literary geography the book engages the sociocultural dimensions of the communities affected by crime Chapters also analyze the reader's perception recognition and appreciation of place and community

The Oxford Handbook of Herman Melville
Jennifer Greiman, Michael Jonik, 2025-07-31

Now more than a century since the revival that placed Herman Melville at the center of the US literary canon his work stands as one of the most important touchstones of world literature The Oxford Handbook of Herman Melville aims to reintroduce readers to a writer whom they think they know well by re-examining Melville's entire corpus the novels short prose and poetry in light of the diversity and vibrancy of global Melville studies Bringing together the most innovative work of international scholars The Oxford Handbook of Herman Melville offers a comprehensive survey of both Melville's writing and the new approaches it continues to introduce into literary studies By engaging urgent discourses such as those around indigeneity and race ecology and energy gender and sexuality studies and reimagining well-developed critical approaches to questions of literary history politics war economics aesthetics and philosophy in Melville's work this Handbook seeks to push the study of Melville's work into its second century Attending to Melville's origins biographical and textual intellectual and aesthetic historical and political the Handbook also examines Melville's currency and contemporaneity the ways that his writing continues to generate new thought and new art This volume in short endeavors to present a new critical Melville for new critical times
