The Skateboarder's Journal - Lives on Board, 2009. A piece of wood, two trucks, four wheels: a skateboard. You start by rolling down a sidewalk and end up rolling through life. For some, the ride stops at the end of the street; for others, the ride never ends. This book was written by those for whom the ride is never ending: by the 15-year-old grom who falls asleep dreaming of skateboarding; by the 40-something dad you see at the local skatepark; by the women whose stories have never been told; and by the 73-year-old architect who didn't begin skateboarding until the age of 65. Over 170 stories and 200 photographs. The everyman, everywoman are accompanied by contributions from some notable skateboarders and other personalities from the skateboard world. Some of the great skateboarding photographers have graciously contributed to the book. Description from www.amazon.com

Sky Surfing Skateboarder Bill Myers, 2002-05-05. Through a series of incredible misadventures, so what else is new? Our boy blunder finds himself participating in the Skateboard Championship of the Universe. It would be of the World except for the one kid who claims to be from Jupiter, a likely story in spite of his two heads and seven arms. It's a tough crowd where anything goes as long as you win. Amidst the incredible chaotic chaos by incurably corrupt competitors, say that five times fast. Wally learns there is more to life or, in his case, near death than winning.

Skateboarding Bill Gutman, 1997-05-15. A guide to skateboarding featuring the history of the sport and information on equipment, clothing, fitness, and safety tips.

Game Changers Molly Schiot, 2016-10-18. The embrace of women's sports sometimes feels almost like a political act. Molly Schiot's Game Changers: The Unsung Heroines of Sports History is so valuable. The Wall Street Journal: A thoughtful, exhaustively researched and long overdue tribute to the women who have paved the way for the likes of Serena Williams, Abby Wambach, Simone Biles, and more. espnW. Erika Medina's There Goes Patti McGee is an uplifting picture book biography of the first ever professional female skateboarder and winner of the 1964 National Skateboard Championship for Women. Brought to life by Erika Medina's dynamic and joyful illustrations, There Goes Patti McGee walks us through Patti's first place win in the women's division of the 1964 National Skateboard Championship. She wowed the judges with what would become her signature move: the rolling handstand. Inspiring and unapologetic, Patti McGee proves that anyone can skate. Supersports Helen Greathead, 2016-12-15

Running any marathon takes months of training and a bit of courage. Tackling that distance on the Great Wall of China takes the event to another level. Readers encounter incredible sports events such as the luge and the skeleton and choose which they would rather try. Facts about each inform the tough questions readers ask themselves in order to make the choice, helping them to exercise their decision-making skills. Full color photographs and an action-packed design aid readers' choices by illustrating the exciting sports, extreme athletes, and odd sports from around the world. Get an Internship and Make the Most of It Joan E. McLachlan, Patricia F. Hess, 2015-06-01

Too often students automatically think that an internship is not for them. They seem to believe that internships are just for those students who are in AP or engineering and science programs or for students who know exactly what career they want to pursue. They don't take internship opportunities offered by their school or college or seek an internship on their own. Internships offer all students a way to find direction for their future. An internship will help them gain experience in the real world, find a career area that they like or don't like, get focused on a possible college major, and build those skills critical for success in a career and higher education. This book is a resource for all high school and community college students who want to find, get, and make the most out of an internship. The book gives students a heads up on how to use community school and college resources to help secure an internship. Get their act together by writing a compelling resume, cover email, and elevator speech. Show the skills and attitudes every organization wants to see during the interview. Prepare for an interview by anticipating the typical interview questions. Know what the interviewer is looking for and what to say and do to make the best impression. Take on value-added projects once the internship gets going. Deal with the ups and downs. Use the internship experience in their future. Get an Internship and Make the Most of It: Practical Information for High School and Community College Students can be a help to every high school and community college student. It follows four students as they find, interview for, and complete their internships. If you're thinking about doing an internship or are well on the way to starting one, this book is for you.

Shaun White Marty Gitlin, 2009 A biography about Olympic gold medalist snowboarder Shaun White. Find out how he started snowboarding and skateboarding and what he plans to do in the future. Provided by publisher The Cultural Politics of Lifestyle Sports Belinda Wheaton, 2013-07-23 Drawing on a series of in-depth empirical case studies, this book offers a re-evaluation of theoretical frameworks with which lifestyle sports have been understood and focuses on aspects of their cultural politics that have received little attention, particularly the racialization of lifestyle sporting spaces. Casting new light on the significance of sport and sporting subcultures within contemporary society this book is essential reading for students or researcher working in the sociology of sport leisure studies or cultural studies Skateboarding and Religion Paul O'Connor, 2019-10-02 This book explores the ways in which religion is observed performed and organised in skateboard culture Drawing on scholarship from the sociology of religion and the cultural politics of lifestyle sports this work combines ethnographic research with media analysis to argue that the rituals of skateboarding provide participants with a rich cultural canvas for emotional and spiritual engagement Paul O Connor contends that religious identification in skateboarding is set to increase as participants pursue ways to both control and engage meaningfully with an activity that has become an increasingly mainstream and institutionalised sport Religion is explored through the themes of myth celebrity iconography pilgrimage evangelism cults and self help Skateboarding and the City Iain Borden, 2019-02-21 Skateboarding is both a sport and a way of life Creative physical graphic urban and controversial it is full of contradictions a billion dollar global industry which still retains its vibrant counter cultural heart Skateboarding and the City presents the only complete history of the sport exploring the story of skate culture from the surf beaches of 60s California to the latest developments in street skating today Written by a life long skater who also happens to be an architectural historian and packed through with full colour images of skaters boards moves graphics and film stills this passionate readable and rigorously researched book explores the history of skateboarding and reveals a vivid understanding of how skateboarders through their actions experience the city and its architecture in a unique way Nyjah Huston Matt Chandler, 2021 A unique childhood gave Nyjah Huston a unique outlook Growing up in California and Puerto Rico Huston started skateboarding when he was just four years old By age 11 he was competing in the X Games and shocking the skateboarding world with his wild boardslides Learn how the small kid with the big dreadlocks grew into the highest paid skateboarder in the world
