The Academic Quality Handbook Enhancing Higher Education In Universities And Further Education Colleges:

The Academic Quality Handbook Patrick McGhee, 2003-03-01 Universities and further education colleges are under increasing pressure to provide quality for their students. Quality assurance and development issues affect the staff resources, administration and culture of an academic institution, yet there is often a lack of clear guidance available to those responsible for implementing best practice. This book provides practical guidelines for managing academic quality assurance and quality enhancement, outlining best practice from both the UK and the rest of the world. Each chapter addresses the key points, risks and good practice across a wide range of quality issues, drawing explicitly and in detail from the QAA guidance on the Code of Practice, Subject Benchmarks, Qualifications Framework and Institutional Audit. The material is presented in an accessible and straightforward style, incorporating useful features such as development questions for individual or team review. A maintained website accompanying this book, www.academicquality.com, contains further useful resources with updates and supplementary material in this constantly changing area.

The Role of External Examining in Higher Education Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Andrew Ssemwanga, Barbara Cozza, 2021-05-17 This book considers external examination examples in academia across the world. With chapters that cover examples of mitigating disadvantage and creating opportunities without compromising the quality assurance process, the authors examine how universities are engaged in safeguarding procedures at the same time as enhancing quality standards.

Quality and the Academic Library Jeremy Atkinson, 2016-02-24 Quality and the Academic Library: Reviewing, Assessing and Enhancing Service Provision provides an in-depth review and analysis of quality management and service quality in academic libraries. All aspects of quality are considered in the book, including quality assessment, quality review and quality enhancement. An overview of quality management and service quality concepts, principles and methods leads to a detailed consideration of how they have been applied in universities and their libraries. A case study approach is used with different perspectives provided from the different stakeholders involved in the quality processes All contributors adopt a critical reflection approach reflecting on the implications impact and significance of the activities undertaken and the conclusions that can be drawn for future developments The book concludes with an overall reflection on quality management and service quality in academic libraries with a final analysis of priorities for the future Presents a holistic view of the subject looking at reviews of academic library services quality assurance and assessment quality enhancement and service quality Provides perspectives from authors with different experiences and responsibilities including those responsible for initiating and managing quality processes in higher education Includes case studies where the authors not only describe the quality processes used but also seek to review and reflect on their success limitations and the impact of their work some time after the event Seeks to be current comprehensive and reflective by including the results of surveys interviews from senior librarians on quality in academic libraries

Higher Education in the Twenty-First Century Abdulla Y. Al-Hawaj,Wajeih Elali,E.H. Twizell,2008-08-04 The skills creativity and research developed through higher education are major factors in any society s success in creating jobs and advancing prosperity Universities and colleges play a vital r le in expanding opportunity and promoting social justice The papers in this book reflect the main objective of a conference held in June 2007 at Ahlia Islam and Higher Education Marodsilton Muborakshoeva,2013 This book explores the different concepts of a university and the way they shape practice in Muslim contexts with a particular focus on the Islamic republic of Pakistan Higher education in Muslim contexts is often criticised for being incapable either of contributing to the socio cultural and civilisational developments of society or of doing research and producing knowledge of a high standard While the international organisations accuse universities of not helping the societies to become knowledge based and to compete at the global level some Muslim scholars call for the creation of authentic Islamic educational structures that would as they think solve the problems of higher education New Perspectives on Using Accreditation to Improve Higher Education Hysa, Eglantina,Foote, Russell,2022-06-24 Recently the priorities of higher education have adjusted where before the focus was primarily on the financial side of education institutions now consider people to be their main source of value and education to be much more than the production and dissemination of knowledge Due to this a gap has been created between decades of emphasis on financing and the undermining of the qualitative requirements of education New Perspectives on Using Accreditation to Improve Higher Education outlines key issues that must be addressed if accreditation agencies globally are to achieve their primary objective of ensuring that universities and the degree programs they offer are of even greater quality than they are at present Covering topics such as leadership assessment and sustainability this reference work is ideal for principals policymakers higher education staff researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Developing Effective Assessment in Higher Education: A Practical Guide Sue Bloxham,Pete Boyd,2007-10-16 As an overview Developing Effective Assessment in Higher Education makes a very useful contribution to assessment literature providing a publication that is relevant and accessible to practitioners whilst giving rigorous exploration of issues associated with student assessment It should find a readership on that basis and will be welcomed as a considered and insightful contribution to the literature on student assessment Higher Education Review What are the main issues when considering the design and management of effective assessment strategies for academic programmes How should lecturers design and use assessment in university so that it helps students to learn as well as judging their achievement How can students be prepared for assessment including peer self and group assessment This book provides comprehensive practical guidance on managing and improving assessment within higher education It tackles all stages in the assessment cycle including Assessment design Preparing students for assessment Marking and moderation Providing feedback Quality assurance It also provides a concise introduction to the research literature on assessment which will inform practice debate programme enhancement and practitioner research within university departments teaching teams and courses for higher education teachers The practical guidance in the book is substantiated with reference to relevant research and policy In particular it considers how the different purposes of assessment create conflicting demands for staff often characterised by the tension between attempting to support student learning whilst meeting imperatives for quality assurance and demonstrable maintenance of standards Issues are debated using concrete examples and workable solutions are illustrated Consideration is also given to the management of assessment as well as to how new technologies might be used to develop assessment methods and enhance student learning Developing Effective Assessment in Higher Education is key reading for both new and experienced lecturers programme leaders and academic developers and will enhance their efforts to use assessment to improve students learning as well as to grade them fairly reliably and efficiently
