Development Robert Kastenbaum,1993-10-01 Robert Kastenbaum creator of the award winning Encyclopedia of Death has now collected and edited a source of reliable information on adult development that is accessible to the general reader useable by professionals and perfect for those who are simply browsing This work is a fascinating and highly informative look at the milestones and ordeals the key issues and the concerns of American adults The book expands our understanding of adulthood through 105 articles written by more than 70 contributing specialists from the fields of psychology anthropology religion and sociology

Arrested Adulthood James E. Cote,2000-06 An examination into the social influences that have prolonged youth in today s adults Why are today s adults more like adolescents in their dress and personal tastes than ever before Why do so many adults seem to drift and avoid responsibilities such as work and family As the traditional family breaks down and marriage and child rearing are delayed what makes a person an adult Many people in the industrial West are simply not growing up in the traditional sense Instead they pursue personal individual fulfillment and emerge from a vague and prolonged youth into a vague and insecure adulthood The transition to adulthood is becoming more hazardous and the destination is becoming more difficult to reach if it is reached at all Arrested Adulthood examines the variety of young people s responses to this new situation James E C t shows us adults who allow the profit driven industries of mass culture to provide the structure that is missing as their lives become more individualistic and atomized He also shows adults who resist anomie and build their world around their sense of personal connectedness to others Finally C t provides a vision of a truly progressive society in which all members can develop their potentials apart from the influence of the market In so doing he gives us a clearer vision of what it means to be an adult and makes sense of the longest but least understood period of the life course

Aging and Older Adulthood Joan T. Erber,2019-10-07 Reflects the most important theoretical foundations and research directions concerning aging and older adulthood This authoritative volume provides the latest insights into and theoretical interpretation of our understanding of the human aging process Newly updated and revised this edition of the well established student textbook offers relatable scenarios that touch upon real world issues faced by older adults and their families The book explains how research studies attempt to answer questions of both theoretical and practical importance as they relate to aging and older adulthood and it explains the hypotheses and findings of the studies in a manner that is comprehensible to readers of all levels of research experience Aging and Older Adulthood begins by describing the demographic characteristics of the older population and follows with a chapter on theoretical models that apply to the study of adult development and aging as well as approaches commonly taken to conduct research and ethical concerns involved in the study of this group It then offers a series of chapters exploring biological aging sensation perception and attention memory intellectual functioning cognition and real world problem solving personality and coping social interaction and social ties lifestyles and retirement mental health and psychotherapy and death and bereavement The final chapter looks at aging in the future Each chapter includes fully updated research findings as well as new and expanded coverage of concepts and ideas in areas such as neuroscience and diabetes New edition of a highly respected text exploring our contemporary understanding of a broad range of topics related to older adulthood and the psychology of aging Offers thematic treatment of core issues including health sensory perception memory intellect social interactions employment and retirement and mental health Uses a dual lens of two models the selective optimization with compensation model and the ecological model to provide cohesiveness to the presentation of both theoretical and applied material Introduces each chapter with a relevant real world scenario and refers back to it throughout the chapter Includes pedagogical feature boxes that reflect current understanding of contemporary issues in the field as well as key points and issues for further discussion Aging and Older Adulthood 4th Edition is an excellent text for upper division undergraduate and graduate courses focusing on the older adulthood and aging the psychology of aging gerontological studies and lifespan development
