Murder and adultery in Late Imperial China Meijer, 2021-09-13 In this publication the development is traced of two sections of the chapter on Homicide of the penal code of the Qing dynasty 1644-1912 Murder and Homicide of an Adulterer The former deals with premeditated homicide where there is no difference in status social or family relations between murderer and victim while in the latter we find the husband who kills his wife and her paramour when caught in the act In that case the husband was immune from prosecution provided that he committed the act at the time and at the site The first section developed in a clear and intelligent way with in general some logical provisions being added from the beginning till the end of the dynasty The second section however was enriched by 34 additional articles through legislation and judicial practice which with a view to promoting moral purity in society gradually circumvented the original restrictions to the husband s fury Consequently by accentuating the husband s important status and for the sake of maintaining the established hierarchy in society that section changed into a bad and cruel part of the law turning the husband s behaviour from an excusable exception into morally justified conduct and likewise the woman s misbehaviour into a mortal sin This has all been confirmed by the motivation of the legislation and sentences of the cases

The Sage in Relation Andrew Montanaro,2025-04-21 The Jewish sage Ben Sira links the partnership of the sage with personified Wisdom to his overall teaching on marriage and family This study provides a detailed analysis of this connection first by describing the overlapping characteristics of fathers in families and sages among their students as seen through an examination of Ben Sira s use of metaphorical family language whereby the sage takes the role of father in the pedagogical setting This study then describes the spousal relationship between the sage and personified Wisdom particularly as it appears alongside the marital instructions in Sir 23 16 26 18 This study further considers Ben Sira s privileged social position to influence the religious conviction of next generation Judaism and to strengthen Jewish youth against rising Hellenistic pressures that may tempt them away from Torah adherence Ben Sira s solution then is found in his proposed vision of families modeled after his pedagogical setting Finally Ben Sira s teaching is compared to other Second Temple texts showing the importance of his context for his conception of family and the needs of his time Thus this study shows the relevance of Ben Sira s teaching for families as well as his distinctiveness among other Jewish texts
