Africans John Iliffe, 2017-07-13 In a vast and all embracing study of Africa from the origins of mankind to the present day John Iliffe refocuses its history on the peopling of an environmentally hostile continent Africans have been pioneers struggling against disease and nature but during the last century their inherited culture has interacted with medical progress to produce the most rapid population growth the world has ever seen This new edition incorporates genetic and linguistic findings throwing light on early African history and summarises research that has transformed the study of the Atlantic slave trade It also examines the consequences of a rapidly growing youthful population the hopeful but uncertain democratisation and economic recovery of the early twenty first century the containment of the AIDS epidemic and the turmoil within Islam that has produced the Arab Spring Africans The History of a Continent is thus a single story binding modern men and women to their earliest human ancestors The Africans, 1987 Controversial examination of contemporary Africa in terms of its triple heritage what is indigenous what was contributed by Islam and what was acquired from the West Three Africa Visionaries Lawrence E. K. Lupalo, 2016-07-29 This work looks at three African visionaries Nkrumah Nyerere and Senghor and the paths they felt the continent should take in its quest for unity and development how it should define and foster its identity and what role it should play in the international arena as an integral part of the global community It also explores some of the differences they had in pursuit of those goals The Mazruiana Collection Revisited Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2005 Consists of 650 annotated entries covering Mazrui's books dissertations edited works about him major essays in books academic journals and conference papers This work contains essays including pamphlets magazine and newspaper articles and audio visual recordings Three Visionaries of Post-colonial Africa Lawrence E.K. Lupalo, Transformative

Constitutionalism and Kenya Gautam Bhatia, 2025-06-10 A key book about rights separation of powers and the State which assesses a decade and a half of transformative constitutionalism in Kenya through the lens of landmark constitutional judgments discussing their international import and suggesting new pathways towards democratic constitutionalism In 2010 after more than two decades of struggle Kenya's new Constitution was born Widely accepted to be transformative in nature in the decade and a half since it was enacted the Constitution has been at the centre of national discourse And in that time the country's courts have been confronted with crucial and high stakes constitutional disputes which are both distinctively Kenyan in nature but also are disputes that have long been common to constitutional democracies around the world they include issues around constitutional change federalism imperial presidencies the role of the legislature election disputes land rights and horizontality among others Drawing comparisons with constitutional jurisdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other's jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order jurisdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other's jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order s It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order risdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other s jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order risdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other s jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order s It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutional

Developing Africa? Lehasa Moloi, 2024-03-12 Developing Africa New Horizons with Afrocentricity aims to contest the Eurocentric narrative of an African development discourse This book deploys the theory of Afrocentricity as an intellectual standpoint from which African thinkers should interrogate and reconceptualize the discourse of development in Africa Particularly the book argues in favour of the Afrocentric re interpretation of African history African culture and assertion of African agency as the core building wedge in the reconceptualization of the ideal African development trajectory
