The Age Of Capital 1848 1875 History Of Civilisation:

The Age of Capital, 1848-1875 Eric J. Hobsbawm, 1975 Age Of Capital: 1848-1875 Eric Hobsbawm, 2010-12-16 A magisterial account of the rise of capitalism Eric Hobsbawm's magnificent treatment of the crucial years 1848 1875 is a penetrating analysis of the rise of capitalism and the consolidation of bourgeois culture In the 1860s a new word entered the economic and political vocabulary of the world capitalism The global triumph of capitalism is the major theme of history in the decades after 1848 The extension of capitalist economy to four corners of the globe the mounting concentration of wealth the migration of men the domination of Europe and European culture made the third quarter of the nineteenth century a watershed This is a history not only of Europe but of the world Eric Hobsbawm's intention is not to summarise facts but to draw facts together into a historical synthesis to make sense of the period and to trace the roots of the present world back to it He integrates economics with political and intellectual developments in this objective yet original account of revolution and the failure of revolution of the cycles of boom and slump that characterise capitalist economies of the victims and victors of the bourgeois ethos The Age of Capital Eric John Hobsbawm, 1997 The Age of Capital Eric Hobsbawm, 1996-11-26 In this book Eric Hobsbawm chronicles the events and trends that led to the triumph of private enterprise and its exponents in the years between 1848 and 1875 Along with Hobsbawm's other volumes this book constitutes an intellectual key to the origins of the world in which we now live Although it pulses with great events failed revolutions catastrophic wars and a global depression The Age of Capital is most outstanding for its analysis of the trends that created the new order With the sweep and sophistication that have made him one of our greatest historians Hobsbawm identifies this epoch's winners and losers its institutions ideologies science and religion An Analysis of Eric Hobsbawm's The Age Of Revolution Tom Stammers, Patrick Glen, 2017-07-05 The Age of Revolution is the first of four works by Eric Hobsbawm that collectively synthesize the ideas he developed over a lifetime spent studying the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Hobsbawm's vision is important he was a lifelong Marxist whose view of history was shaped by a fascination with social and economic history yet who privileged evidence over political theory but the real power of these works and especially The Age of Revolution emanates from the wide range of the author's reading and his mastery of the critical thinking skill of evaluation It is this skill that allows Hobsbawm to combine insights drawn from decades of reading into an original thesis that sees the crucial long 19th century as a period shaped by dual revolution the twin impacts of the Industrial Revolution in Britain and the French Revolution on the continent Hobsbawm supplemented his evaluative excellence with a firm grasp of reasoning crafting a volume that contains brilliant clearly structured arguments which explain complicated ideas via well chosen examples in ways that make his work accessible to intelligent general readers and scholars alike The Politics and Policies of European Economic Integration, 1850-1914 Yaman Kouli, Léonard Laborie, 2023-01-01 This book asks anew whether there really was European integration before 1914 By focussing on quantitative economic indicators and qualitative data the international regulation of patents communication networks social policy and plant protection the authors re evaluate European integration of the time and address the politics of seemingly apolitical cooperation The authors show that European integration was multifaceted and cooperation less the result of intent than of incentives National polities and international regimes co shaped each other The result is a book that achieves two things offer stand alone chapters that shed light on specific developments and these read altogether develop a bigger picture It will be of interest to researchers and students of economic history as well as those interested in the history of internationalism and globalisation Dickens, Journalism, and Nationhood Sabine Clemm, 2010-04-15 Dickens Journalism and Nationhood examines Charles Dickens weekly family magazine Household Words in order to develop a detailed picture of how the journal negotiated asserted and simultaneously deconstructed Englishness as a unified and sometimes unifying mode of expression It offers close readings of a wide range of materials that self consciously focus on the nature of England as well as the relationship between Britain and the European continent Ireland and the British colonies Starting with the representation and classification of identities that took place within the framework of the Great Exhibition of 1851 it suggests that the journal strives for a model of the world in concentric circles spiraling outward from the metropolitan center of London Despite this apparent orderliness however each of the national or regional categories constructed by the journal also resists and undermines such a clear cut representation

History of Western Civilization William H. McNeill, 2010-04-15 Concise comprehensive information to give readers a sense of the sweep and continuity of Western history from the National Book Award winning author Renowned historian William H McNeill provides a brilliant narrative chronology of the development of Western civilization representing its socio political as well as cultural aspects This sixth edition includes new material for the twentieth century period and completely revised bibliographies An invaluable tool for the study of Western civilization the Handbook is an essential complement to readings in primary and secondary sources such as those in the nine volume University of Chicago Readings in Western Civilization A History of Psychology in Western Civilization Bruce K. Alexander, Curtis P. Shelton, 2014-07-03 A fresh and radical analysis of psychology s scholarly roots and its potential for the future

Schopenhauer's Doctrine of Salvation in Relation to his Critique of Religion and Philosophical Teachings Anil Dominic Batti, 2023-10-31 Arthur Schopenhauer 1788 1860 was perhaps the last polymath among the great Germanic philosophers Switching with ease and elegance between epistemic positions and fields as diverse as idealism and empiricism fideism and rationalism realism and nominalism art and religion jurisprudence and politics psychology and occultism Schopenhauer erected an imposing edifice bearing testimony to his universal learning This study is an investigation into the very conclusion of Schopenhauer s philosophy and endeavours to answer the following question did Schopenhauer s doctrine of salvation issue forth organically from his intellectual output or was it annexed to his philosophy as a result of his critical engagement with religion The labyrinthine paths through which Schopenhauer arrives at the soteriological culmination of his philosophy are subjected to critical assessment the picture that emerges is of a philosopher who seemed convinced that he had solved some of the most pressing cosmic riddles to have tormented mankind through the ages Capital as Power Jonathan Nitzan, Shimshon Bichler, 2009-06-02 The book presents a radically new framework for understanding capital as a mode of power Challenging the liberal and Marxist approaches it articulates a new theory of accumulation develops new empirical methods of research and offers a new history of capitalism The Age of Empire, 1875-1914 Eric J. Hobsbawm, 2000 This text is concerned with the strange death of the 19th century the world made by and for the liberal middle classes in the name of universal progress and civilization It is about hopes realised which turned into fear as an era of unparalleled peace engendered an era of unparalleled war The Modern Pilgrim Paul Post, Paulus Gijssbertus Johannes Post, Jos Pieper, Marinus van Uden, 1998 This book is the product of a relatively long history of pilgrimage research in a Dutch theological setting It is intended as a report for an international audience on this long running programme Two lines are followed in the book The first is the track of liturgical studies in which an historical European ethnological and anthropological approach has predominated The second is a social science track with specific content coming from psychology of religion The combination of these two lines has been extremely fruitful In addition to results of various surveys of contemporary pilgrimage practice and the expansion of research into ritual and cultural context in which modern pilgrims find themselves special attention is also bestowed on historiographic issues involved in orienting pilgrimage research and its theoretical and methodological aspects The places of pilgrimage examined here are Wittem Dokkum and Amsterdam in The Netherlands Banneux in Belgium Lourdes and La Salette in France and Santiago de Compostela in Spain The central question which informs the whole study is to what extent one can perhaps speak of a new type of pilgrim today the modern pilgrim White Without Soap Marguerita Stephens, 2010 Explores the connections between nineteenth century imperial anthropology racial science and the imposition of colonising governance on the Aborigines of Port Phillip Victoria between 1835 and 1888 A History of Civilization: 1648 to the present Crane Brinton, 1984 World Of Rome Michael Grant, 2011-07-14 An informative and accessible guide to the Roman world Grant is justly recognised as an expert and civilized guide to the ancient world THE ECONOMIST The Romans changed the Western world and theirs became the first golden age This is their empire of magnificence and corruption the republic the dictators and the slaves the civilization and the Pax Romana the brutality and the collapse The Postnormal Times Reader Ziauddin Sardar, 2019-01-01 IIIT Books In Brief Series is a valuable collection of the Institute's key publications written in condensed form to give readers a core understanding of the main contents of the original Postnormal times are best defined as an in between period where old orthodoxies are dying new ones have yet to be born and very few things seem to make sense or as Ezio Mauro puts it we are hanging between the no longer and the not yet and thus we are necessarily unstable nothing around us is fixed not even our direction of travel The postnormal times theory attempts to make sense of a rapidly changing world where uncertainty is the dominant theme and ignorance has become a valuable community The Postnormal Times Reader is a pioneering anthology of writings on the contradictory complex and chaotic nature of our era. It covers the origins, theory and methods of postnormal times and examines a host of issues ranging from climate change governance, Middle East to religion and science from the perspective of postnormal times. By mapping some of the key local and global issues of our transitional age, the Reader suggests a way of navigating our turbulent futures. The Political Economy of Contemporary Human Civilisation, Volume II Sangaralingam Ramesh, 2025-03-21. This book, the second of two volumes, examines the evolution of humanity and development of global economic systems to provide insight into the advances and challenges they have created. By placing modern technology and global crises within the context of long-term human development, it evaluates the threat of climate change on future generations by showing how past civilizations have survived and succumbed to climate events. The potential for artificial intelligence, quantum computing, nuclear fusion, and biotechnology to combat the current global challenges is explored alongside possibilities of new technologies exacerbating poverty, inequality, and social division. This book highlights the consequences of human cognition and the constant desire for economic growth and evaluates whether they have been a net positive for human society. It will be of interest to students and researchers working on political economy and global challenges. Civilization and the Making of the State in Lebanon and Syria Andrew Delatolla, 2021-02-01. This book argues that the modern state from the nineteenth century to the contemporary period has consistently been used as a means to measure civilizational engagement and attainment. This volume historicizes this dynamic, examining how it impacted state making in Lebanon and Syria. By putting social, political, and economic pressure on the Ottoman Empire to replicate the modern state in Europe, the book examines processes of racialization, nationalist development, continued imperial expansion, and resistance that became embedded in the state as it was assembled. By historicizing post-imperial and post-colonial state formation in Lebanon and Syria, it is possible to engage in a conceptual separation from the modern state, abandoning the ongoing reproduction of the state as a standard or benchmark of civilization and progress. The Empathic Civilization Jeremy Rifkin, 2009-12-31. One of the leading big picture thinkers of our day, Utne Reader delivers his boldest work in this erudite, tough-minded and far-reaching manifesto. Never has the world seemed so completely united in the form of communication, commerce, and culture, and so savagely torn apart in the form of war, financial meltdown, global warming, and even the migration of diseases. No matter how much we put our minds to the task of meeting the challenges of a rapidly globalizing world, the human race seems to continually come up short, unable to muster the collective mental resources to truly think globally and act locally. In his most ambitious book to date, bestselling social critic Jeremy Rifkin shows that this disconnect between our vision for the world and our ability to realize that vision lies in the current state of human consciousness. The very way our brains are structured disposes us to a way of feeling, thinking, and acting in the world that is no longer entirely relevant to the new environments we have created for ourselves. The human-made environment is rapidly morphing into a global space, yet our existing modes of consciousness are structured for earlier eras of history which are just as quickly fading away Humanity Rifkin argues finds itself on the cusp of its greatest experiment to date refashioning human consciousness so that human beings can mutually live and flourish in the new globalizing society In essence this shift in consciousness is based upon reaching out to others But to resist this change in human relations and modes of thinking Rifkin contends would spell ineptness and disaster in facing the new challenges around us As the forces of globalization accelerate deepen and become ever more complex the older faith based and rational forms of consciousness are likely to become stressed and even dangerous as they attempt to navigate a world increasingly beyond their reach and control Indeed the emergence of this empathetic consciousness has implications for the future that will likely be as profound and far reaching as when Enlightenment philosophers upended faith based consciousness with the canon of reason
