Inventions of the Imagination Richard T. Gray, Nicholas Halmi, Gary J. Handwerk, Michael A. Rosenthal, Klaus Vieweg, 2011-10-17 The dialectic between reason and imagination forms a key element in Romantic and post Romantic philosophy science literature and art Inventions of the Imagination explores the diverse theories and assessments of this dialectic in essays by philosophers and literary and cultural critics By the end of the eighteenth century reason as the predominant human faculty had run its course and imagination emerged as another force whose contributions to human intellectual existence and productivity had to be newly calculated and constantly recalibrated The attempt to establish a universal form of reason alongside a plurality of imaginative capacities describes the ideological program of modernism from the end of the eighteenth century to the present day This collection chronicles some of the vicissitudes in the conceptualization and evaluation of the imagination across time and in various disciplines

Posthumanism in Italian Literature and Film Enrica Maria Ferrara, 2020-08-10 As humans re negotiate their boundaries with the nonhuman world of animals inanimate entities and technological artefacts new identities are formed and a new epistemological and ethical approach to reality is needed Through twelve thought provoking scholarly essays this volume analyzes works by a range of modern and contemporary Italian authors from Giacomo Leopardi to Elena Ferrante who have captured the shift from anthropocentrism and postmodernism to posthumanism Indeed this is the first academic volume investigating narrative configurations of posthuman identity in Italian literature and film
