The English Prophets A Critical Defence Of English Criticism:

The English Prophets Ian Robinson, 2001 Literary Criticism, Culture and the Subject of 'English': F.R. Leavis and T.S. Eliot Dandan Zhang, 2020-09-23 This volume considers the highly convoluted relationship between F R Leavis and T S Eliot comparing their ideas in literary and cultural criticism and connecting it to the broader discourse of English Studies as a university subject that developed in the first half of the twentieth century Comparing and contrasting all the many writings of Leavis on Eliot and the two on Lawrence the study examines how Eliot is formative for the theory and practice of Leavis s literary criticism in both positive and negative ways and investigates Lawrence s significance in relation to Leavis s changing attitude to Eliot It also examines how profound differences in social cultural religious and national thinking strengthened Leavis s alliance with Lawrence to the detriment of his relationship with Eliot These differences between the two writers are presented as dichotomies between nationalism and Europeanism internationalism ruralism organicism and industrialism metropolitanism and relate to the two men s views on literary education the subject of English and the position of the Classics in the curriculum It explores how Leavis s increasingly conflicted feelings about a figure to whom he owed an enormous critical debt and inspiration but whose various beliefs and literary affiliations caused him much misgiving result in a deep sense of division in Leavis himself which he sought to transfer onto Eliot as what he called a pathological case R. G. Collingwood: An Autobiography and other writings David Boucher, Teresa Smith, 2013-12-12 This volume presents a many faceted view of the Oxford philosopher R G Collingwood At its centre is his Autobiography published in 1939 which has the status of a cult classic for its compelling story of his thought Collingwood s work has enjoyed renewed attention in recent years with new editions of his great philosophical works This volume republishes the Autobiography alongside a previously unpublished account by Collingwood of a journey to the East Indies in 1938 1939 These writings are accompanied by eleven specially written essays Several of these examine aspects of Collingwood s life not just the Autobiography but what he doesn t discuss in that work from his childhood to his professorship at Oxford And the essays also examine aspects of his work on philosophy politics history and archaeology in the context of his life The Philosophy of Enchantment R. G. Collingwood, 2005 This is the long awaited publication of a set of writings by the British philosopher historian and archaeologist R G Collingwood on critical anthropological and cultural themes only hinted at in his previously available work At the centre of the book are six chapters of a study of folktale and magic composed by Collingwood in the mid 1930s and intended for development into a book Here Collingwood applies the principles of his philosophy of history to problems in the long term evolution of human society and culture This is preceded in Part I by a range of contextualizing material on such topics as the relations between music and poetry the nature of language the value of Jane Austen s novels the philosophy of art and the relations between aesthetic theory and artistic practice Part III of the volume consists of two essays one on the relationship between art and mechanized civilization and the second written in 1931 on the collapse of human values and civilization leading up to the catastrophe of armed conflict These offer a devastating analysis of the consequences that attend the desertion of liberal principles indeed of all politics as such in the ultimate self annihilation of military conquest The volume opens with three substantial introductory essays by the editors authorities in the fields of critical and literary history social and cultural anthropology and the philosophy of history and the history of ideas they provide their explanatory and contextual notes to guide the reader through the texts The Philosophy of Enchantment brings hitherto unrecognized areas of Collingwood's achievement to light and demonstrates the broad range of Collingwood's intellectual engagements their integration and their relevance to current areas of debate in the fields of philosophy cultural studies social and literary history and anthropology

Johnson's Critical Presence Philip Smallwood, 2017-07-05 Samuel Johnson remains one of the most frequently discussed and cited of the eighteenth century critics but historians of criticism have invariably interpreted his work within conventions that have allowed for little evaluative commerce between the needs of the critical present and the voices of the critical past Smallwood's argument is that Johnson's alienation from the modern critical scene stems in part from historians tendency to tell the story of criticism as a narrative of improvement The image of Johnson conceived by his antagonists in the eighteenth century has been perpetuated by romanticism by nineteenth century representational routines and mediated to the present day most recently by varieties of radical theory In Johnson's Critical Presence Smallwood offers a new account of Johnson's major critical writings conceived according to a different kind of historical potential He suggests that the historicization of eighteenth century criticism can best be understood in the light of the dialogic and translational historiographies of Collingwood Gadamer and Ricoeur and that the explanatory contexts of Johnson's criticism must include poetry in addition to theory in this his study seeks to displace both the history of ideas as the leading paradigm for the history of criticism and to question the developmental narrative on which it relies By in depth analysis of Johnson's response to Shakespeare's plays and to the poetry of Abraham Cowley Smallwood constructs a non reductive context of emotional experience for Johnson's criticism This embraces the dynamic satirical caricatures by James Gillray of Johnson as critic the irony of Johnson's critical affinities with the major romantics and is set against twentieth century responses to the literary canon Smallwood argues that not only Johnson's emotional sensitivities but also the ironic voices within the critical text itself must be fully appreciated before Johnson's current relevance or even his historical value can be grasped

Austen, Eliot, Charlotte Bronte and the Mentor-Lover P. Menon, 2003-05-23 This lucid and tightly argued study uses the motif of the mentor lover embodying diverse permutations of sexual love power and judgement to explore evaluate and compare the works of Jane Austen Charlotte Bront and George Eliot as they contend with issues of sexuality family selfhood freedom conduct and gender The figure also provides a means to probe their relationship to the reader as they become mentor lovers through authorship each eliciting a different form of love and electing a different style of instruction

F. R. Leavis Steven Cranfield, 2015-11-09 This is a critical introduction to the educational thought of F R Leavis 1895 1978 the greatest English literary critic of the twentieth century providing the first in depth examination of Leavis's ideas in relation to contemporary mass higher education. During the course of a long prolific and controversial academic career which saw him take issue with figures such as Wittgenstein, T. S. Eliot and C. P. Snow, Leavis became one of the most articulate advocates for the idea of the university as a centre of consciousness and human responsibility in the face of what he saw as the relentless technological drive of civilisation. With the journal Scrutiny which he co-founded as well as his critical writings, Leavis became a decisive influence on generations of teachers in Britain and overseas. Widely misrepresented as narrowly elitist, his ideas about the creative university with their radical student-centred approach to teaching constitute a powerful resource for a higher education system grappling with the contradictory demands of continuity and change. Based on original research, the study provides an overview of Leavis's life, work and heritage and his educational world view and a comprehensive exploration of Leavis's pedagogy from theoretical and practical perspectives. It also includes a first-hand account by the author of being taught by Leavis in person.

Under Conrad's Eyes Michael John DiSanto, 2009-04-01. Joseph Conrad's novels are recognized as great works of fiction but they should also be counted as great works of criticism. A voracious reader throughout his life, Conrad wrote novels that question and transform the ideas he encountered in non-fiction novels and scientific and philosophic works. Under Conrad's Eyes looks at Conrad's revaluations of some of his important nineteenth-century predecessors: Carlyle, Darwin, Dickens, George Eliot, Dostoevsky and Nietzsche. Detailed readings of works from Heart of Darkness to Victory explore Conrad's language and style, focusing on questions regarding the will to know and the avoidance of knowledge, the potential harmfulness of sympathy and the competing instincts for self-preservation and self-destruction. Comparative analyses show how Conrad transforms aspects of Bleak House into The Secret Agent and Middlemarch into Nostromo. Especially compelling are explorations of Conrad's ambivalence towards Carlyle's faith in work and hero worship as rejuvenators of English culture and his views on Nietzsche's assault on Christianity. This important new study of a novelist of profound contemporary relevance demonstrates how Conrad exemplifies the artist as critic while challenging both the categories we impose on texts and the boundaries we erect between literary periods.

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005. Publisher Description: A History of English Criticism George Saintsbury, 1911. The Critical Review of Theological & Philosophical Literature Stewart Dingwall Fordyce Salmond, 1897. The Critical Review of Theological and Philosophical Literature, 1897. The Use of English, 2001. Modern Age, 2006. A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased Samuel Austin Allibone, 1891. Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1884. Piers Plowman and Prophecy Theodore L. Steinberg, 2019-06-26. Originally published in 1991 Piers Plowman An Approach to the C Text studies what might be called the mindscape of Piers Plowman. The book argues that the C text poem is inspired by the writings of the biblical prophets. The book outlines the fourteenth century background and discusses the idea of prophecy and how the biblical prophets were read as well as the role of literary models such as Wyclif and Joachim of Fiore. By examining the specific aspects of the poem the book shows imaginative connections between the poem and the prophets offering a unique perspective that Langland's prophetic stance is complementary to other approaches to the poem. The Union Seminary Review, 1929
