behind The Inevitable moves beyond margins of the law to the people who are meticulously planning their final hours far from medical offices legislative chambers hospital ethics committees and polite conversation It also shines a light on the people who help them loved ones and sometimes clandestine groups on the Internet that together form the euthanasia underground Katie Engelhart a veteran journalist focuses on six people representing different aspects of the right to die debate Two are doctors a California physician who runs a boutique assisted death clinic and has written more lethal prescriptions than anyone else in the U S an Australian named Philip Nitschke who lost his medical license for teaching people how to end their lives painlessly and peacefully at DIY Death workshops The other four chapters belong to people who said they wanted to die because they were suffering unbearably of old age chronic illness dementia and mental anguish and saw suicide as their only option Spanning North America Europe and Australia The Inevitable offers a deeply reported and fearless look at a morally tangled subject It introduces readers to ordinary people who are fighting to find dignity and authenticity in the final hours of their lives
