Long, 2016-12-05 Kathleen Long explores the use of the hermaphrodite in early modern culture wars both to question traditional theorizations of gender roles and to reaffirm those views These cultural conflicts were fueled by the discovery of a new world by the Reformation and the backlash against it by nascent republicanism directed against dissolute kings and by the rise of empirical science and its subsequent confrontation with the traditional university system For the Renaissance imagination the hermaphrodite came to symbolize these profound and intense changes that swept across Europe literally embodying these conflicts Focusing on early modern France with references to Switzerland and Germany this work traces the symbolic use of the hermaphrodite across a range of disciplines and domains medical alchemical philosophical poetic fictional and political and demonstrates how these seemingly disparate realms interacted extensively with each other in this period also across national boundaries This widespread use and representation of the hermaphrodite established a ground on which new ideas concerning sex and gender could be elaborated by subsequent generations and on which a wide range of thought concerning identity racial religious and national as well as gender could be deployed

The Culture of the Body Dalia Judovitz, 2011-05-06 What is the body How was it culturally constructed conceived and cultivated before and after the advent of rationalism and modern science This interdisciplinary study elaborates a cultural genealogy of the body and its legacies to modernity by tracing its crucial redefinition from a live anatomical entity to disembodied mechanical and virtual analogs The study ranges from Baroque pre Cartesian interpretations of body and embodiment to the Cartesian elaboration of ontological difference and mind body dualism and it concludes with the parodic and violent aftermath of this legacy to the French Enlightenment It engages work by philosophical authors such as Montaigne Descartes and La Mettrie as well as literary works by d Urf Corneille and the Marquis de Sade The examination of sexuality and the emergence of sexual difference as a dominant mode of embodiment are central to the book s overall design The work is informed by philosophical accounts of the body Nietzsche Foucault Merleau Ponty by feminist theory Butler Irigaray Bordo as well as by literary and cultural historians Scarry Stewart Bynum etc and historians of science Canguilhem Pagel and Temkin among others It will appeal to scholars of literature philosophy French studies critical theory feminist theory cultural historians and historians of science and technology Dalia Judovitz is Professor of French Emory University She is also author of Unpacking Duchamp Art in Transit and Subjectivity and Representation in Decartes The Origins of Modernity Literature and Society in Renaissance Crete David

Western thought that was only publically declared from the Gay Liberation of the 1970s Since coming out expressions of gay spirituality have proliferated in both number and diversity Beginning with gay theology within Christianity the phenomenon has now reached as far as Buddhism and neo paganism But so far critical analysis of the movement has been very limited largely because gay spirituality has been treated as a political and social movement arguing for rights and acceptance within religious circles A Special Illumination offers an indepth analysis and argues that gay spirituality should be placed at the heart of religion Representations of Endymion and Selene Anna Chiara Corradino,2025-03-06 A focused study of an ancient myth and its reception which provokes new consideration of how myth in general can challenge social norms Analyzing the visual and literary transformations of the myth of Endymion and Selene Anna Chiara Corradino argues that this myth becomes a valuable tool for understanding the cultural problematization and censorship of female sexuality as well as the marginalization of alternative forms of male sexuality The myth s key themes of dominant femininity reified masculinity and female necrophilia are shaped through the centuries from the core story of Selene the goddess of the Moon falling in love with a mortal shepherd Endymion and granting him eternal sleep so she can kiss him every night In five core sections focusing on the archaeology of the myth in the ancient world the art of the Renaissance to Baroque periods and modern art and film Corradino traces the way the relationship between the two lovers embodies the taboo topic of the eroticization of the sleeping and or dead male body and the suppressed desire of female domination and dominance This research breaks new ground by displaying how these marginal desires have always challenged normativity and have had a profound impact on and through multiple receptions Metamorphosis Alison Keith, Stephen James Rupp, 2007 Powerful Connections Peter William Shoemaker, 2007 Powerful Connections The Poetics of Patronage in the Age of Louis XIII explores the role of patronage in shaping French literary culture between 1614 and 1661 a period that witnessed both the rise of the early modern state under Richelieu and the beginnings of modern literary culture in the salons and academies It includes readings of texts by authors such as Jean Louis Guez de Balzac Theophile de Viau Charles Sorel and Pierre Corneille that reveal the personal side of political power and its impact upon literary practice The Poetics of Myth Eleazar M.
