Delport, 2024-10-22 The relationship between philosophy and theology has been a live question since the origins of Christianity Attending to a genealogy of how theology and philosophy have been related is important for conceiving their ongoing engagement However the question of context of where they are so related and practiced has only recently begun to be reflected upon The current volume aims to make a contribution to this recounting by focusing on some of the ways theology and philosophy have been and are being interfaced in the Global South and more specifically in South Africa      The Morality of Brutality Michael Spence Lowdell Morris, 1981      God in South Africa Albert Nolan, 2024-02-01 This is a reprint of the 1988 publication which is now out of print The book was written while Albert Nolan was in hiding during the State of Emergency in South Africa This volume includes reviews of the book used with permission from the South African Grace and Truth journal from 1990 The author believes that in South Africa the practice of the struggle is the practice of faith and to show this he reviews the central themes of the Christian faith as found in the Old Testament and the preaching of Jesus the nature of sin and salvation and of God's action in the world He also faces the dilemma of Christians who can no longer support the apartheid state but are uncertain where the liberation struggle will lead Like his best selling Jesus before Christianity God in South Africa is a contextual theology a theology rooted in the painful conversion of a church to the cause of liberation It can be regarded the author says as a conversation between South African Christians but out of that conversation comes a challenge to Christians everywhere to discover the meaning of the gospel to find God in their situation This profound book written in the 1980s to guide those seeking to deploy the gospel message against the repressive and abhorrent South African apartheid regime continues to speak powerfully to all peoples in all times and in all places It continues to show how the gospels respond to the signs of the times anywhere that people are in crisis providing the tools to build a contextualised and local theology that can preach the good news of God's liberating power against all forms of injustice Albert Nolan South Africa s Gustavo Gutierrez revealed hope that God cares for and finds the poor and oppressed wherever they are For my own community the potential to construct a contextualised and local Ukrainian theology offers hope that the good news always challenges those who oppress and forever speaks liberation for those burdened by an unjust war and the despair found in its wake      African Sociological Review ,2005      The Politics of Altruism Jørgen Lissner,1977      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1979      Legal and Ethical Issues in Nursing Education Mary Ellen Smith Glasgow,H. Evolution and Ethics and Other Essays Thomas Henry Huxley, 1896      The Ethics of Destruction Ward Thomas, 2014-06-14 Many assume that in international politics and especially in war anything goes Sherman famously declared war is all hell The implication behind the maxim is that in war there is no order only chaos no mercy only cruelty no restraint only suffering Ward Thomas finds that this anything goes view is demonstrably wrong It neither reflects how most people talk about the use of force in international relations nor describes the way national leaders actually use military force Events such as those in Europe during World War II in the Persian Gulf War and in Kosovo cannot be understood he argues until we realize that state behavior even during wartime is shaped by common understandings about what is ethically acceptable and unacceptable Thomas makes extensive use of two cases the assassination of foreign leaders and the aerial bombardment of civilians to trace the relative influence of norms and interests His insistence on interconnections between ethical principle and material power leads to a revised understanding of the role of normative factors in foreign policy and the ways in which power and interest shape the international system      National Union Catalog , Includes entries for maps and atlases
