Navigating Multiculturalism Dawn Zinga, 2021-04-16 This provocative volume explores multiculturalism from different disciplinary perspectives as well as examining the associated issues from the perspectives of various countries It considers how multiculturalism has been defined and the various meanings that the term holds while also focusing on the realities faced in different societal contexts The authors address difficult and at times divisive questions about race ethnicity and identity This collection challenges readers to examine their own perceptions of multiculturalism and to consider how the perspectives in this volume can inform their thinking By examining the issues from different perspectives the authors have encouraged individuals to consider how to navigate multiculturalism and negotiate change Social Identity, Intergroup Conflict, and Conflict Reduction Richard D. Ashmore, Lee J. Jussim, David Wilder, 2001 Annotation How are group based identities related to intergroup conflict When and how do ethnic religious and national identities lead to oppression violence rebellion war mass murder and genocide How do intergroup conflicts change people s identities How might social identity be harnessed in the service of reducing conflict between groups The chapters in this book present a sophisticated and detailed interdisciplinary analysis of the most fundamental issues in understanding identity and conflict Transnational Pakistani Connections Katharine Charsley, 2013-11-12 Since restrictions on commonwealth labour immigration to Britain in the 1960s marriage has been the dominant form of migration between Pakistan and the UK Most transnational Pakistani marriages are between cousins or other more distant relatives lending a particular texture to this transnational social field Based on research in Britain and Pakistan this book provides a rounded portrayal incorporating the emotional motivations for and content of these transnational unions The book explores the experiences of families and individuals involved including the neglected experiences of migrant husbands and charts the management of the risks of contracting transnational marriages as well as examining the consequences in cases when marriages run into conflict Equally however the book explores the attractions of marrying back home and the role of transnational marriage in maintaining bonds between people and places Marriage emerges as a crucial but dynamic and contested element of Pakistani transnational connections This book is of interest to students and scholars in the fields of migration studies kinship the family and South Asian studies as well as social work family law and immigration Immigrant Associations, Integration and Identity João Sardinha, 2009 This book sheds light on the integration processes and identity patterns of Angolan Brazilian and Eastern European communities in Portugal It examines the privileged position that immigrant organisations hold as interlocutors between the communities they represent and various social service mechanisms operating at national and local levels Through the collection of ethnographic data and the realisation of 110 interviews with community insiders and middlemen culled over a year s time João Sardinha provides insight into how the three groups are perceived by their respective associations and representatives Following up on the rich data is a discussion of strategies of coping with integration and identity in the host society and reflections on Portuguese social and community services and institutions The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy John Gaffar La Guerre, 2017-01-03 The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy A Global Perspective argues that ethnic conflict increases or decreases in relation to changes in the social structure and the location and distribution of political power Ethnic grievances derive from lack of access to valued resources and elites play a crucial role in allocating those resources This book examines the experiences of five countries with a history of ethnic conflict former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Guyana Trinidad and Tobago and the United States It finds that in many cases solutions adopted to mitigate ethnic conflict have unintended consequences Often supposed solutions confuse cause and effect and in fact worsen ethnic conflict Attempts to address identity issues by pandering to them often led to further ethnic demands This book argues that based on the experiences of the countries under examination the best course is to adopt policies that encourage alliances between and among ethnic groups      The Palgrave International Handbook of Education for Citizenship and Social Justice Andrew Peterson, Robert Hattam, Michalinos Zembylas, James Arthur, 2016-10-20 This state of the art comprehensive Handbook is the first of its kind to fully explore the interconnections between social justice and education for citizenship on an international scale Various educational policies and practices are predicated on notions of social justice yet each of these are explicitly or implicitly shaped by and in turn themselves shape particular notions of citizenship education for citizenship Showcasing current research and theories from a diverse range of perspectives and including chapters from internationally renowned scholars this Handbook seeks to examine the philosophical psychological social political and cultural backgrounds factors and contexts that are constitutive of contemporary research on education for citizenship and social justice and aims to analyse the transformative role of education regarding social justice issues Split into two sections the first contains chapters that explore central issues relating to social justice and their interconnections to education for citizenship whilst the second contains chapters that explore issues of education for citizenship and social justice within the contexts of particular nations from around the world Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of Education Sociology Social Policy Citizenship Studies and Political Science      Public Sociologies Reader Judith R. Blau, Keri E. Iyall Smith, 2006 By highlighting the role of the Public Sociologist and the international conception of human rights this volume uniquely contributes to scholarship and current debates while it also accomplishes two other objectives first it will be useful in the classroom and second it      Those for Whom the Lamp Shines Vince L. Bantu, 2023-09-26 In Those for Whom the Lamp Shines Vince L. Bantu uses the rich body of anti Chalcedonian literature to explore how the peoples of Egypt both inside and outside the Coptic Church came to understand their identity as Egyptians Working across a comparative spectrum of traditions and communities in late antiquity at the intersection of religious and other social forms of identity Bantu shows that it was the dissenting doctrines of the Coptic Church that played the crucial role in conceptualizing Egypt and being Egyptian Based on the study of neglected Coptic and Syriac texts Those for Whom the Lamp Shines offers the only sustained treatment of ethnic and religious self understanding in Africa s oldest Christian church      Chinese Women and the Global Village Jan Ryan, 2003 This the first major study of Chinese women in Australia is all about global journeys and perspectives It is also a story of the various stories that connect Australia to the pathways of women of Chinese ancestry Ryan interrogates issues of ethnicity gender and identity to present the diversity of the women s lives      Ethnic Groups and Boundaries Today Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Marek Jakoubek, 2018-12-07 The publication of Fredrik Barth s Ethnic Groups and Boundaries marked a milestone in the conceptualization of ethnicity and ethnic groups and opened a new field of enquiry in the social scientific study of ethnicity Ethnic Groups and Boundaries Today A Legacy of Fifty Years demonstrates the enduring significance of the work identifying its shortcomings and showcasing the state of the art today fifty years after the publication of the groundbreaking original Bringing together a team of leading contributors all of whom have been inspired by Barth's theory and have made significant contributions of their own to the theorisation and research of ethnicity this volume assesses the theoretical approach presented in Ethnic Groups and Boundaries both in the context of its time and with the hindsight of the developments in the social sciences since then It emphasizes the legacy of the original text and determines its significance whilst identifying and elaborating on the main lines of the subsequent developments of the concept of ethnicity that were influenced by Ethnic Groups and Boundaries but that have since developed and superseded the original As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in the concept and study of ethnicity

Genocide, Mass Atrocity, and War Crimes in Modern History James Larry Taulbee, 2017-02-06 Defining genocide as an international crime this two volume set provides a comparative study of historical cases of genocide and mass atrocity clearly identifying the factors that produced the attitudes and behaviors that led to them discusses the reasons for rules in war and examines how the five principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have functioned in modern warfare Written by an expert on international politics and law Genocide Mass Atrocity and War Crimes in Modern History Blood and Conscience is an easy to understand resource that explains why genocides and other atrocities occur why humanity saw the need to create rules that apply during war and how culture rules about war and the nature of war intersect The first volume addresses the history and development of the normative regimes that define genocide and mass atrocity Through a comparative study of historical cases that pay particular attention to the factors involved in producing the attitudes and behaviors that led to the incidents of mass slaughter and mistreatment the author identifies the reasons that genocides and mass atrocities in the 20th century were largely ignored until the early 1990s and why even starting then responses were inconsistent The second book discusses why rules in war exist which factors may lead to the adoption of rules what defines a war crime and how the five fundamental principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have actually functioned in modern warfare It also poses and answers the interesting question of why we should obey rules when our opponents do not The final chapter examines what actions could serve to identify future situations in which mass atrocities may occur and identifies the problems of timely humanitarian intervention in international affairs

Contemporary Ethnic Geographies in America Ines M. Miyares, Christopher A. Airriess, 2006-10-19 Ethnic diversity has marked the United States from its inception From the migration of the ancestors of Native Americans to the increasingly diverse immigrant populations arriving today it is impossible to separate ethnicity from an understanding of the United States as a country and Americans as a people At an ever increasing pace America today is experiencing watershed changes in its social cultural and ethnic racial geographies Considering the impact of these transformations this unique text examines the experiences of a range of ethnic groups in both historical and contemporary context It begins by laying out a comprehensive conceptual framework that integrates immigration theory globalization transnational community formation and urban cultural and economic geography The contributors then present a rich set of case studies of key ethnic and racial communities including those of long standing significance such as Native Americans African Americans and Mexican Americans along with the Latin American and Asian groups that make up the vast majority of newer immigrants Each case offers a brief historical overview of the group s immigration experience and settlement patterns and discusses its contemporary dynamics All of these people have transformed and been transformed by the places in which they have settled Exploring these changing communities places and landscapes this book offers a nuanced understanding of the evolution of America s contemporary ethnic geographies Contributions by Christopher A Airriess Daniel D Arreola Kate A Berry Thomas D Boswell Elizabeth Chacko Brian J Godfrey Zolt n Grossman Michael Hawkins Terry Ann Jones Wei Li Ines M Miyares L HoMana Pawiki Marie Price Michael Reibel Dana G Reimer Emily Skop James A Tyner Milton Vickerman and Bobby M Wilson

Ethnic Identity and the State in Iran A. Saleh,2013-07-17 While the Islamic Republic has employed various strategies to mitigate the worst excesses of inter ethnic tension while still securing a Shi a dominated Persian hegemony the systematic neglect of ethnic groups by both the Islamic Republic and its predecessor regime has resulted in the politicization of ethnic identity in Iran

Beyond Hummus and Falafel Liora Gvion,2012-10-22 Beyond Hummus and Falafel is the story of how food has come to play a central role in how Palestinian citizens of Israel negotiate life and a shared cultural identity within a tense political context At the household level Palestinian women govern food culture in the home replicating tradition and acting as agents of change and modernization carefully adopting and adapting mainstream Jewish culinary practices and technologies in the kitchen Food is at the center of how Arab culture minorities define and shape the boundaries and substance of their identity within Israel

Ukrainian Intelligentsia in Post-Soviet L'viv Eleonora Narvselius,2012-04-05 Intelligentsia assumes the right to speak in the name of the entire nation and to extrapolate its own tastes values and choices to it Therefore intelligentsia s voices have been in many ways decisive in the discussions about Ukrainian national identity which gained momentum in the post Soviet Ukrainian society The historical and cultural cityscape of L viv is an especially apt site for investigation of the nexus intelligentsia nation not only in the Ukrainian but in the East Central European context This borderline city while not being a remarkable industrial administrative or political centre has acquired the reputation of a site of unique cultural production and a principal center of the Ukrainian nationalist movement throughout the twentieth century Here the popular conceptions of intelligentsia have been elaborated at the intersection of various cultural historical and political traditions This study addresses Ukrainian speaking intelligentsia and intellectuals in L viv both as a discursive phenomenon and as the social category of cultural producers who in the new circumstances both articulate the nation and are articulated by it
