Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cook, 2014-01-27 Europe Since 1945 An Encyclopedia is a comprehensive reference work of some 1 700 entries in two volumes Its scope includes all of Europe and the successor states to the former Soviet Union The volumes provide a broad coverage of topics with an emphasis on politics governments organizations people and events crucial to an understanding of postwar Europe Also includes 100 maps and photos The Europa World Year Book 2003 Europa Publications, 2003 First published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Pivotal States Robert Chase, Emily Hill, Paul M. Kennedy, 1999 The foreign policy framework proposed here assumes that of the world s 140 developing states there is a group of pivotal states whose futures are poised at critical turning points and whose fates will strongly affect regional and even global security These nine states Indonesia India Pakistan Turkey Egypt South Africa Brazil Algeria and Mexico are the ones upon which the United States should focus its scarce foreign policy resources Events of the past year in Indonesia India and Pakistan have already affirmed the wisdom of this policy In a series of cogent original case studies area experts explore the pivotal states strategy for each of the nine states Global Peace and Anti-nuclear Movements Badruddin, 2003 This Book Presents In Depth Observation And Analysis Of Global Peace Movement Organizations Both In Historical As Well As Contemporary Dimension The Last Colonies Robert Aldrich, John Connell, 1998-07-13 This comprehensive and authoritative book is about the last colonies those remaining territories formally dependent on metropolitan powers It discusses the surprisingly large number of these territories mainly small isolated islands with limited resources Yet these places are not as obscure as might be expected They may be major tourist destinations military bases satellite tracking stations tax havens or desolate underpopulated spots that can become international flashpoints such as the Falklands The authors find that at a time of escalating nationalism and globalization these remnants of empire provide insights into the meanings of political economic legal and cultural independence as well as sovereignty and nationhood This book provides a broad based and provocative discussion of colonialism and interdependence in the modern world from a unique perspective Privatization and the Crisis of Agricultural Extension: The Case of Pakistan Ahmed Munir, Andrew Davidson, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 the public sector plays a dominant international role in the provision of agricultural extension and services This role has been the subject of much debate Some argue for extension s privatization claiming that a market driven system provides the most rational and efficient means of information delivery Based on extensive empirical research from the Punjab Pakistan this volume examines the comparative effectiveness of public and private extension services from the perspective of farmers It also focuses on information from extension agents about their respective organizations and work environments In so doing the book expands and elaborates on the practical considerations of privatization and information delivery It then broadens out into a discussion of alternative means of extension delivery focusing on participatory approaches education theory and pluralism The Global South and comparative and international education Charl C. Wolhuter ,2023-04-30 This book proposes and unpacks the construct Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the scholarly field of Comparative and International Education as bringing together a number of related strands in the field and as showing a promising future trajectory for the evolution of the field namely the affirmation of the Global South This construct captures a significant amount of what leading scholars in the field of Comparative and International Education are currently engaged with It also expresses a view of both the current epoch of education as well as of the societal contextual imperatives shaping education Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the field comes to the fore in a number of related strands in the current discourse in the field This scholarly book originates from the Research Unit of Human Rights Education in Diversity at North West University South Africa where the author is affiliated The book is grounded in the Creed for Human Rights From this perspective the book advocates for a new phase in the historical development of the field with a focus on advancing the affirmation of the Global South as a central moral foundation The author envisions that this shift will represent a significant advancement in Comparative and International Education propelling it to an unprecedented stage of value and importance The Forsaken People Roberta

Cohen, Francis M. Deng, 2010-12-01 The coerced displacement of people within the borders of their own countries by armed conflicts internal strife and systematic violations of human rights has become a pervasive feature of the post Cold War era The plight of the displaced poses a challenge that is not only humanitarian but a threat to the security and stability of countries regions and through a chain effect the international system This book contains case studies of ten countries that have suffered severe problems of internal displacement Burundi Rwanda Liberia and the Sudan in Africa the former Yugoslavia and the Caucasus in Europe Tajikistan and Sri Lanka in Asia and Colombia and Peru in the Americas The contributors are Thomas Greene Randolph C Kent Jennifer McLean Larry Minear Liliana Obreg n Amir Pasic Hiram A Ruiz Colin Scott H L Seneviratne Maria Stavropoulou and Thomas G Weiss Additionally the contributors and editors offer recommendations for further action The Vanishing Hectare Katherine Verdery, 2018-05-31 In most countries in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union the fall of communism opened up the possibility for individuals to acquire land Based on Katherine Verdery s extensive fieldwork between 1990 and 2001 The Vanishing Hectare explores the importance of land and land ownership to the people of one Transylvanian community Aurel Vlaicu Verdery traces how collectivized land was transformed into private property how land was valued what the new owners were able to do with it and what it signified to each of the different groups vying for land rights Verdery tells this story about transforming socialist property forms in a global context showing the fruitfulness of conceptualizing property as a political symbol as a complex of social relations among people and things and as a process of assigning value This book is a window on rural life after socialism but it also provides a framework for assessing the neo liberal economic policies that have prevailed elsewhere such as in Latin America Verdery shows how the trajectory of property after socialism was deeply conditioned by the forms property took in socialism itself this is in contrast to the image of a tabula rasa that governed much thinking about post socialist property reform

The City: Land use, structure, and change in the Western city Michael Pacione, 2002 Towards Korean Reconciliation Gabriel Jonsson, 2017-11-30 Despite historic summits and spectacular acts of reconciliation between the rival neighbours promises of improved cross border relations between North and South Korea have been slow to materialize In this insightful book Gabriel Jonsson examines the impact that increased levels of socio cultural contact has had on inter Korean relations the concrete results that have been achieved and how such contact has contributed to closer relations and offers the prospect of reconciliation With reference to lessons from the German and Yemeni unification the book examines the development of inter Korean relations and presents a fascinating view of South Korean perceptions of their neighbours The book also details the wider political sphere of influence with an analysis of the positions of the United States Japan China and Russia on Korean unity Based primarily on Korean language sources this volume provides completely unique perspectives on Korean unity The Treaty on Conventional Armed Forces in Europe Mark Wilcox, 2024-03-04 This work examines the CFE Treaty as a factor in Russia's foreign and security policy Moscow showed amazing persistence in their relationship with the cornerstone of European security Their approach to the treaty was a genuine attempt to shape the security environment in Europe and the former USSR The treaty also enabled the dismantling of large conventional forces as they returned from Eastern Europe and transitioned into the armies of the newly independent states of the former USSR The CFE Treaty though proved ineffective at constraining the enlargement of NATO Simultaneously Moscow's foreign and security policy evolved from one that focused on the domestic development of the country to that of a more confident state reasserting itself as a great power Drawing extensively on primary sources and analyses by Russian authors this book employs two historical narratives case studies and a conceptual framework to show that while Moscow remained engaged with the CFE Treaty undesired effects on Russia's national interests gradually accrued at the expense of desired ones leading Vladimir Putin to withdraw Russia from the treaty as an act of decoupling from the collective West This book is relevant to scholars and policymakers who want to understand Russia's approach to arms control as an element of military security Human Rights in Development, Volume 4 Hugo Stokke, Professor of International Relations Astri Suhrke, Astri Suhrke, Østein Rygg Haanaes, Arne Tostensen, 2023-03-13 The tenth in a series of yearbooks this edition contains articles on topical human rights issues as well as surveys of individual countries A new feature is that more attention is given to self monitoring articles investigating the human rights policies of countries in the North on specific issues and sectors Another feature is that more effort is given to collaboration between institutions in the North and the South in writing articles and surveys Both will be strengthened in future editions The topics covered this year are development aid in support of indigenous peoples in Latin America Dutch experiences with the linkage of aid to human rights observance in Mozambique and an evaluation of Norway's human rights policies and aid with regard to the Palestinian areas in the wake of the Oslo Agreement As a regular feature the Yearbook assesses human rights trends in various countries of the South covering the full range from civil and political rights to economic social and cultural rights This year s edition contains surveys of Cuba Guatemala Libya Senegal Vietnam and Zimbabwe Cuba Libya and Senegal are included for the first time The Yearbook on Human Rights in Developing Countries is a joint project of the Chr Michelsen Institute Bergen the Danish Centre for Human Rights Copenhagen the Icelandic Human Rights Center Reykjavik the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights Vienna the Netherlands Institute of Human Rights Utrecht the Norwegian Institute of Human Rights Oslo and the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Lund

Canada-Australia Kate Burridge,Lois Foster,Gerry Turcotte,1997-08-15 This volume is the result of the Association for Canadian Studies in Australia and New Zealand ACSANZ 1995 conference held at La Trobe University in Melbourne Australia A special feature of the conference though not its exclusive focus was trade relations But as with all ACSANZ conferences the papers were wide ranging and contributors were not limited to a single theme This publication is a refereed collection from more than sixty papers that were presented and range from discussions of immigration policy in Canada and Australia to architectural practices in British Columbia from Canadian influences on Australia s economic development to issues of identity politics in each nation s literature In addition the collection represents major research in the areas of globalization migration pluralism and ethnic relations with a strongly though not exclusively comparative orientation This work is a co publication with the International Council for Canadian Studies
