Scherpe, 2016-01-29 Family Law in a European Perspective examines core aspects of family law from a comparative European perspective marriage divorce cohabitation same sex relationships the financial consequence of divorce adoption parentage and surrogacy parental responsibility the child's welfare and law concerning older people. These topics have been the most debated in family law over the past century. They cover areas where national family laws have reacted or will need to react to the challenges of societal changes, medical advances and institutional pressures including decisions of the European Courts. The contributions show diversity in as well as developments towards a common European family law. This book and the others in the set will serve as an invaluable resource for anyone interested in family law. It will be of particular use to students and scholars of comparative and international family law as well as family law practitioners. Contributors: M. Antokolskaia, P. Beaumont, I. Curry, Sumner C. Fenton, Glynn J. Ferrer, Riba R. George, J. Herring, J. Miles, J. M. Scherpe, C. S. rgjerd, K. Trimmings. The Handbook of Sex Differences Volume III Behavioral Variables. Lee Ellis, Craig T. Palmer, Rosemary Hopcroft, Anthony W. Hoskin, 2023-06-30. The Handbook of Sex Differences is a four volume reference work assembled and written to assess sex differences in human traits although findings regarding other species are also included. Based on the authors' highly influential 2008 book Sex Differences, these volumes highlight important new research findings from the last decade and a half alongside earlier findings. Conclusions reached by meta-analyses are also included. In this the work's third volume, findings from thousands of studies pertaining to behavior broadly defined are summarized. Traits covered include those involving personality, social behavior, criminality, work and sex stereotypes. The eight chapters comprising Volume III are as follows: 16 Personality and Behavioral Tendencies, 17 Social Behavior, 18 Acquiring, Selling and Consuming Behavior, 19 Criminality, Near Criminality and Victimization, 20 Education, Work, Social Status and Territorial Behavior, 21 Sex Stereotypes, 22 Attitudes and Actions Toward Others According to their Sex, 23 Ecologically Based Sex Differences. The Handbook of Sex Differences is of significant importance for any researcher, student or professional who requires a comprehensive resource on sex differences.

UNESCO and World Politics. James Patrick Sewell, 2015-03-08. That intergovernmental organizations do not operate effectively has long been apparent. Why they fail to do so has puzzled observers, as has the lack of a satisfying explanation of how these institutions actually do work. Using the concept of engaging, James P. Sewell investigates the development of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). The concept of engaging, becoming involved or more involved in a continuing international relationship, permits the author to focus on levels and timing of participation as well as on the participants' motives. Drawing on extensive interviews and on published and unpublished material, his study traces UNESCO's formation and evolution from 1941 to 1972. He considers different forms of engagement, conditions of their effectiveness and the important role played by political leaders. The concept of engaging provides new insight into several significant questions: How and with what domestic consequences do actors respond to the challenges of an international organization? Why and how do executive managers induce closer engagement in their institutions? Professor Sewell's innovative approach is applicable to the study of all types of intergovernmental organizations. Originally published in 1975, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History, 1350-1750 Hamish Scott, 2015-07-23 This Handbook re examines the concept of early modern history in a European and global context The term early modern has been familiar especially in Anglophone scholarship for four decades and is securely established in teaching research and scholarly publishing More recently however the unity implied in the notion has fragmented while the usefulness and even the validity of the term and the historical periodisation which it incorporates have been questioned The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History 1350 1750 provides an account of the development of the subject during the past half century but primarily offers an integrated and comprehensive survey of present knowledge together with some suggestions as to how the field is developing It aims both to interrogate the notion of early modernity itself and to survey early modern Europe as an established field of study The overriding aim will be to establish that early modern is not simply a chronological label but possesses a substantive integrity Volume I examines Peoples and Place assessing structural factors such as climate printing and the revolution in information social and economic developments and religion including chapters on Orthodoxy Judaism and Islam

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R.

Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries History in the Making J. H. Elliott,2012-09-14 From the vantage point of nearly sixty years devoted to research and the writing of history J H Elliott steps back from his work to consider the progress of historical scholarship From his own experiences as a historian of Spain Europe and the Americas he provides a deft and sharp analysis of the work that historians do and how the field has changed since the 1950s The author begins by explaining the roots of his interest in Spain and its past then analyzes the challenges of writing the history of a country other than one s own In succeeding chapters he offers acute observations on such topics as the history of national and imperial decline political history biography and art and cultural history Elliott concludes with an assessment of changes in the approach to history over the past half century including the impact of digital technology and argues that a comprehensive vision of the past remains essential Professional historians students of history and those who read history for pleasure will find in Elliott s delightful book a new appreciation of what goes into the shaping of historical works and how those works in turn can shape the world of thought and action The White Book Service 2012, Volume 1 eBook , The Encyclopedia of Romantic Literature, 3 Volume Set Frederick Burwick,Nancy Moore Goslee,Diane Long Hoeveler,2012-01-30 The Encyclopedia of Romantic Literature is an authoritative three volume reference work that covers British artistic literary and intellectual movements between 1780 and 1830 within the context of European transatlantic and colonial historical and cultural interaction Comprises over 275 entries ranging from 1 000 to 6 500 words arranged in A Z format across three fully cross referenced volumes Written by an international cast of leading and emerging scholars Entries explore genre development in prose poetry and drama of the Romantic period key authors and their works and key themes Also available online as part of the Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Literature providing 24 7 access and powerful searching browsing and cross referencing capabilities Gender and Well-Being in Europe Lina Gálvez,2016-04-22 This book is the first of four books based on a series of symposia funded by COST which is an intergovernmental framework for the promotion of European Cooperation in the field of Scientific and Technical Research It draws on both historical and contemporary European case studies to offer a sophisticated account of the relationship between gender and well being The authors focus on key discussions of the changing conceptions of well being from early twentieth century calculations of the relationship between income and the cost of living to more recent critiques from feminist writers Their fascinating answers allow them to significantly challenge the issue with the idea that well being is not only associated with income or opulence but also relates to more abstract concepts including capabilities freedom and agency of different women and men and will be of considerable interest to economic and social historians sociologists of health gender sexuality and economists Strange Parallels: Volume 2, Mainland Mirrors: Europe, Japan, China, South Asia, and the Islands Victor Lieberman, 2003 Blending fine grained case studies with overarching theory this book seeks to rethink 1 000 years of Eurasian history Our Hundred Days In Europe (Volume 10) Oliver Wendell Holmes, 2022 European Tax Law, Volume 1 Peter J.
