Brian Lund

The Evangelistic Bureaucrat Jon Gower Davies, 1974 The Practice of Modernism John R. Gold, 2007-06-13 Making extensive use of information gained from hours of in depth interviews with architects this new book examines the complex relationship between vision and subsequent practice in the saga of post war urban reconstruction Library Editions: Housing Policy & Home Ownership Various, 2021-08-31 Originally published between 1961 and 1994 the volumes in this set sit equally comfortably in sociology and geography as well as housing studies Even though they were published some years ago their content continues to offer critical engagement with an evolving policy agenda which is even more important in a time of crisis and deeper polarization both nationally and globally as a result of the pandemic They Provide a comprehensive political economic analysis of the historical origins and 20th Century experience of 19th and 20th Century housing tenure in the UK France Germany the former USSR Israel Denmark Sweden Hungary Puerto Rico and the USA Discuss landlord tenant relations and the neglect of particular disadvantaged groups such as the elderly the single homeless and those in low income groups Examine the balance between rehabilitation and redevelopment and the rise and fall of the high rise flat Cover issues such as rent rent controls subsidies and urban renewal Look at the implications of selling council houses and evaluate the impact of the growth of home ownership in the UK Address the practical and political difficulties of devising measures which meet policy objectives An Introduction to Urban Renewal Michael S. Gibson, Michael J. Langstaff, 2025-11-21 An Introduction to Urban Renewal 1982 critically reviews policies focusing on the renewal of decaying inner urban areas and examines future prospects within a historical perspective The work draws together views from the fields of planning housing environmental health architecture estate management community and social work as well as politics and economics Creating Neighbourhoods and Places in the Built Environment David Chapman, 2003-09-02 This design primer examines the forces at work in the built environment and their impact on the form of buildings and their environments The actions of a range of individuals and agencies and the interaction between them is examined exploring the competing interests which exist their interaction with physical and environmental forces and the uncertain results of both individual and corporate intervention The Life and Death of the Shopping City Alistair Kefford, 2022-04-07 How have British cities changed in the years since the Second World War And what drove this transformation This innovative new history traces the development of the post war British city from the 1940s era of reconstruction through the rise and fall of modernist urban renewal up to the present day crisis of high street retailing and central area economies Alistair Kefford shows how planners property developers councils and retailers worked together to create the modern shopping city remaking the physical fabric economy and experience of cities around this retail driven developmental model This book also offers a wider social history of mass affluence showing how cities were transformed to meet the perceived demands of a society of shoppers and why this effort was felt to be so urgent in an era of urban deindustrialisation By bringing the story of the shopping city right up to its present day crisis and collapse Kefford makes clear how the historical trajectories traced in this book continue powerfully to shape urban Britain today minorities and integration Sarah Hackett, 2015-11-01 This book explores the arrival and development of Muslim immigrant communities in Britain and Germany during the post 1945 period through the case studies of Newcastle upon Tyne and Bremen It traces Newcastle's South Asian Muslims and Bremen's Turkish Muslims from their initial settlement through to the end of the twentieth century and investigates their behaviour and performance in the areas of employment housing and education At a time at when Islam is sometimes seen as a barrier to integration and harmony in Europe this study demonstrates that this need not be the case In what is the first comparison of Muslim ethnic minorities in Britain and Germany at a local level this book reveals that instances of integration have been frequent It is essential reading for both academics and students with an interest in migration studies modern Britain and Germany and the place of Islam in contemporary Europe The Government of Space (Routledge Revivals) Alison Ravetz, 2013-09-13 Britain's planning system began as town and country planning to repair the ravages of unplanned industrialism and promote ideal environments for the future Steering a course between left and right public control and for profit development it survived successive booms and busts broadening to include new concerns like ecology conservation and community participation By the 1986 when this book was first published the system's survival beyond the year 2000 was in doubt It did endure but it is now under serious threat from the right which sees it as obstructing enterprise and the restoration of growth It has been stripped of some of its core aims and mechanisms while as yet there is no agenda distinguishing growth that will be sustainable from growth which self evidently is not The Government of Space was written as a concise guide for the non specialist to the origins and evolution of British planning its intellectual pedigree achievements and cruxes It is an invaluable background to the state of planning and the cases for and against it today State Housing in Britain Stephen Merrett, 2021-03-23 Originally published in 1979 this book was the first to provide a comprehensive political economic analysis of the historical origins and 20th Century experience of state housing in the UK The first part describes the growth of municipal housebuilding in the context of slum clearance before 1914 and the cycle of boom and slump between the wars Part 2 covers 1945 1980 with chapters on site acquisition and residential densities the housebuilding industry and its standards the balance between rehabilitation and redevelopment and the rise and fall of the high rise flat Sources and costs of capital finance and the management of the stock of council dwellings is also discussed The final part reviews the development of state housing policy since the War within a broad political and macro economic context Reviving Local Authority Housing Delivery Morphet, Janice, Clifford, Ben, 2020-11-18 This book provides crucial insight into the fight back against austerity by local authorities through emerging forms of municipal entrepreneurialism in housing delivery Capturing this moment within its live context the authors examine the ways that local authorities are moving towards increased financial independence based on their own activities to implement new forms and means of housebuilding activity They assess these changes in the context of the long term relationship between local and central government and argue that contemporary local authority housing initiatives represent a critical turning point whilst also providing new ways of thinking about meting housing need Contemporary Issues in the Sociology of Death, Dying and Disposal Peter C. Jupp,2016-07-27 This book utilises a dynamic analysis of mortality to acknowledge shifts of emphasis in cultural and religious traditions A central concern is the diversity of representations of death to be found within the varying cultural religious medical and legal systems of contemporary western societies Since the construction of death mores has social implications a major element of the book is an examination of the way in which groups and individuals employ specific representations of mortality in order to generate meaning and purpose for life and death

Slum Clearance John English, Ruth Madigan, Peter Norman, 2017-10-12 Originally published in 1976 Slum clearance is a particularly significant process because it places the ordinary citizen in a state of extreme dependence on his local authority The local authority not only destroys his existing environment but controls access to a replacement council house This book highlights both the control over the life chances of individual citizens which local government can exercise and the potential impotence of citizens caught up in a complex bureaucratic process It investigates the difficulties faced by individuals in exercising even the rights and choices which are ostensibly provided by the existing structure The book also seeks to apply theories of urban sociology in exploring the control of access to public housing The essential objective of this study is demystification of the administrative processes of slum clearance and rehousing through analysis of local authority Understanding Housing Policy Brian Lund, 2017-04-26 The 3rd edition of bureaucracy and its impact on individuals this bestselling textbook has been completely revised to address the range of socio economic factors that have influenced UK housing policy in the years since the previous edition was published. The issues explored include the austerity agenda the impact of the Coalition government's housing policies the 2015 Conservative government's policy direction the evolving devolution agenda and the recent focus on housing supply The concluding chapter examines new policy ideas in the context of theoretical approaches to understanding housing policy laissez faire economics social reformism Marxist political economy behavioural perspectives and social constructionism Throughout the textbook substantive themes are illustrated by boxed examples and case studies The author focuses on principles and theory and their application in the process of constructing housing policy ensuring that the book will be a vital resource for undergraduate and postgraduate level students of housing and planning and related social policy modules Criticism and Public Rationality (Routledge Revivals) Harry W. Smart, 2013-12-19 Criticism is at the heart of any political discussion and criticism of old policies is central to the development of new ones In its analysis of political decision making this reissue first published in 1991 examines the principles which control the process of policy criticism It identifies two fundamental and related obstacles to this process the privileged status accorded to professional judgement and the conflicting philosophical ideas that shape political argument

Based on the study of Europe's largest local authority the book presents a theory of decision making that can be applied to institutions at all levels Routledge Library Editions: Racism and Fascism Various, 2021-06-23 This set gathers together a collection of out of print titles all classics in their field Reissued for the first time in some years they offer an insightful reference resource to a variety of topics From Professor Colin Holmes's groundbreaking studies of racism in British society to Professor Kitchen's analysis of the rise of fascism in pre war Austria these books shed much light on society's recent dark Housing and Race in Industrial Society David H. McKay, 2020-07-26 This is a comparative study of the relationship past between civil rights law housing and urban policy in Britain and the United States It focuses on the ways in which governments have attempted to remove racial discrimination and disadvantage in private and public sector housing The study first published in 1977 does not simply consist of an account of administrative and judicial attempts to remove discrimination A major concern is to place civil rights laws in their total political economic and social environments The book explains and compares the nature of racial residential change in both countries and assesses the impact of civil rights law on existing patterns of discrimination and disadvantage Other public policies in particular housing and urban policies are examined and their relationship to anti discrimination measures is analysed In explaining differences between the two countries emphasis is placed on the role of government in urban society the political economies of urban areas and the social and political differences between minority groups Finally the study identifies the limits to effective civil rights law enforcement and provides some indication as to the policy alternatives open to decision makers in the two countries
