The Science of Breath and the Philosophy of the Tattvas Rāma-Prasāda, 1894

Hindu Philosophy Theos Bernard, 1999 The aim of Hindu Philosophy is the extinction of sorrow and suffering by the method of knowledge that alone can free man from the bondage of ignorance It points to a clear way of thinking which enables one to understand Reality by direct experience In this perspective Hindu Philosophy is an art of life and not a theory In this book the author presents a precise and illuminating study of six systems of Indian Philosophy classified into three divisions 1 Nyaya Vaisesika 2 Samkhya Yoga 3 Mimamsa Vedanta The first division lays down the methodology of science and elaborates the concepts of Physics and Chemistry to show how manifestations of phenomena come into being The second division sets forth and account of cosmic evolution on purely logical principles The third division critically analyses the basic principles developing them in greater detail and furnishing arguments to substantiate as well as making incidental contribution on points of special interest Beside presenting an account of philosophical systems of India the author adds a study of Kashmir Saivism a system of Ideal Monism founded by Vasugupta and based on Siva Sutras In this context the author throws sufficient light on the traditional Tantric literature that has suffered wide criticism both from Western and Eastern scholars The book is documented with Preface Introduction and Glossarial Index

The Philosophy of Sāadhanā Deba Brata Sen Sharma, 1990-07-12 After presenting a general survey of spiritual practice in the different schools of Indian philosophy the author focuses on the Trika School popularly called Kashmir Shaivism He deals clearly and exhaustively with such topics as Shaktipat the descent of Divine Grace Diksha initiation and the role of the Guru His treatment of the various paths upayas appropriate for the different types of practitioners is especially useful The book ends with a chapter on enlightenment jivanmukti This chapter not only presents the meaning of self realization in this lifetime but offers material on this topic for the first time in English
