The Evolving Pacific Power Structure:

The Evolving Pacific Power Structure Derek Da Cunha,1996 There has been too complacent a view that contends that the next century the so called Pacific Century will see power essentially defined in an economic sense This book questions that notion by examining the evolving structure of power in the Pacific t takes the view that while economics will have an increased weight in the power equation military strength will still be a defining feature The essays in this volume provide crisp analyses of a balance of power the notion of a security architecture and regional defence dilemmas They then examine the shifting roles of the four major Pacific powers China Japan Russia and the United States all of which will essentially shape the future of the Pacific in the next century

The Many Faces of Asian Security Sheldon W. Simon,2001-08-21 Political developments in the post Cold War era the intensification of globalization and the rapid spread of technology are forcing a reevaluation of the meaning of security Traditional security is no longer the singular concern of the world powers and new forms of security have become relevant to a growing number of countries The Many Faces of Asian Security provides a comprehensive assessment of these developments in the Asia Pacific region The book begins with an examination of traditional security concerns military capabilities balance of power territorial and resource disputes the effects of new technologies on military strategy and the problems involved in maintaining sovereignty in the face of globalization It then introduces the new security issues that have become important in Asia since the end of the Cold War economic and financial stability in the wake of the financial crisis the spillover effects of environmental degradation human rights and political stability and the impact of transnational crime Eleven leading specialists on Asia evaluate the types of and approaches to Asian security that have been emerging over the past decade Their wide ranging and incisive discussions will be of interest to policymakers scholars and students alike

Emerging Nanotechnology Power: Nanotechnology R&d And Business Trends In The Asia Pacific Rim Lerwen Liu,2009-07-27

Sustaining a Resilient Asia Pacific Community Kiran Sagoo,Wilmar Salim,2009-03-26 Coming out of an established international graduate student conference organized by the East West Center this book presents selected papers written by graduate students from different fields of study After identifying historical or contemporary issues in each field these papers propose a framework for resolving these issues whether through global commitment regional cooperation national policy or local knowledge and practice The unifying thread of this book is sustaining resilience in the Asia Pacific We acknowledge this perseverance and try to sustain and disseminate it so that other communities may learn from these practices and experiences Generally a volume like this would address the challenge of this region from a security economics or political perspective This book hopes to add to the literature on resiliency by addressing these issues from a multidisciplinary and multilevel perspective The Korean Peninsula and Indo-Pacific Power Politics Jagannath P. Panda, 2020-03-03 This book assesses the strategic linkages that the Korean Peninsula shares with the Indo Pacific and provides a succinct picture of issues which will shape the trajectory of the Korean Peninsula in the future This book analyses how critical actors such as the United States China Russia and Japan are caught in a tightly balanced power struggle affecting the Korean Peninsula It shows how these countries are exerting control over the Korean Peninsula while also holding on to their status as critical actors in the broader Indo Pacific The prospects of peace stability and unity in the Korean Peninsula and the impact of this on Indo Pacific power politics are explored as well as the contending and competing interests in the region Chapters present country specific positions and approaches as case studies and review the impact of power politics on stakeholders relationships in the Indo Pacific The book also argues that the Korean Peninsula and the issue of denuclearization is of primary importance to any direction an Indo Pacific Partnership may take Bringing together scholars journalists and ex diplomats this book will be of interest to academics working in the field of international relations foreign policy security studies and Asian studies as well as audiences interested The Role of Knowledge Communities in Constructing Asia-Pacific Security See Seng Tan, 2007 This study addresses the dearth of critical and or post positivist perspectives in security studies of and about the Asia Pacific region It demonstrates how regional communities of security specialists and intellectuals including knowledge communities such as ASEAN Institutes of Strategic and International Studies ASEAN ISIS and the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific CSCAP have contributed to just such a state centric political imaginary at the expense of alternative ideas while promoting and legitimizing their own identities as authorities on regional security Indonesia's Foreign Policy and Grand Strategy in the 21st Century Vibhanshu Shekhar, 2018-03-14 This book examines the changes in Indonesian foreign policy during the 21st century as it seeks to position itself as a great power in the Indo Pacific region The rise of 21st century Indonesia is becoming a permanent fixture in both the domestic and global discourses Though there has been an increasing level of discussion on Indonesia s emerging power status there has been little discussion on how the country is debating and signalling its new found status This book combines the insights of both neo classical realism and social identity theory to discuss a reset in an emerging Indonesia s foreign policy during the 21st century while emphasizing domestic drivers and constraints of its international behaviour There are three key organizing components of the book emerging power status signalling and the Indo Pacific region The Indo Pacific region constitutes a spatial framing of the book the emerging power provides an analytical category to explain Indonesia s changing international status and status signalling explains multiple facets of international behaviour through which the country is projecting its new status Though leaders are adding different styles and characteristics to the rising Indonesia narrative there are a few unmistakable overarching trends that highlight an increasing correlation between the country s rising power and growing ambition in international behaviour This book is built around four key signalling strategies of Indonesia as an emerging power expanded regional canvas power projection leadership projection and quest for great power parity They represent Indonesia s growing desire for a status consistent behaviour its response to the prevailing strategic uncertainty in the Indo Pacific region and its attempt to advance its strategic interests This book will be of much interest to students of South East Asian politics strategic studies international diplomacy security studies and IR in general
