Sailing Acts Linford Stutzman, 2006-10-01 For those who love sailing and you are there travel literature Also for those who enjoy studying the life and times of the Apostle Paul But definitely for those who love adventure or at least reading about it Seafaring isn't for the faint of heart It wasn't for the Apostle Paul in the first century A D shipwrecked imprisoned and often a stranger in foreign lands And it turned out to be a heart stopping task some two thousand years later when a religion professor and his wife undertook a 14 month journey by sailboat They stopped in eight countries visiting every site where Paul stopped on his tumultuous missionary journeys Sailing Acts traces this 21st century voyage from Volos Greece to Rome Italy by car by foot by motorized scooter but mostly on a 33 foot boat logging more than 3600 nautical miles over two sailing seasons Explorers are easy to admire or despise but very difficult to understand without going on the trip writes Stutzman To really appreciate the experiences the drama and development of Paul the explorer you need to sail with him So begins Sailing Acts inviting readers to come on board Stutzman draws thoughtful comparisons from his own travel mishaps and adventures to the ones Paul experienced on his journeys This book is in the tradition of Bruce Feiler's Walking the Bible Stutzman's knowledge of the socio political setting in the first century Roman empire provides an informative backdrop to understanding Paul and reading his epistles in a new light The book includes dozens of photos maps showing the couple's travel routes a list of all the repairs and replacements Stutzman made to the aging boat which he bought sight unseen and an itinerary of places they visited Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Sports Publishing imprint is proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in sports books about baseball pro football college football pro and college basketball hockey or soccer we have a book about your sport or your team In addition to books on popular team sports we also publish books for a wide variety of athletes and sports enthusiasts including books on running cycling horseback riding swimming tennis martial arts golf camping hiking aviation boating and so much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to publishing books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked by other publishers and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home Seafarers Explorers Time-Life Editors, 2007-02

The Discoverers Daniel J. Boorstin, 2011-01-26 An original history of man's greatest adventure his search to discover the world around him In the compendious history Boorstin not only traces man's insatiable need to know but also the obstacles to discovery and the illusion that knowledge can also put in our way Covering time the earth and the seas nature and society he gathers and analyzes stories of the man's profound quest to understand his world and the cosmos Seafarers, Merchants and Pirates in the Middle Ages Dirk Meier, 2006 The first sailors braved the North Sea and the Baltic in open wooden boats their aims were varied to fish to trade to conquer and plunder Without maps or compasses they steered by the sun or by landmarks on the coast Nevertheless they discovered Iceland and North America and explored the rivers that flowed through Europe and Russia into the Black Sea With the Frisians and the Vikings extensive trade routes better ships larger harbours and wealthy coastal towns developed The pinnacle of these advances was the Hansa a commercial network that ran from Bruges to Riga In recent years archaeologists have discovered much about the development of their ships the elegant

Viking longboat the ubiquitous cog the carrack and the caravel Much too has been revealed about life in Viking settlements and the bustling Hanseatic cities In this engaging and highly illustrated volume Dirk Meier brings to life the world of the medieval seaman based on evidence from ship excavations and contemporary accounts of voyages Dr Dirk Meier teaches ancient and medieval history and is Head of Coastal Archaeology at the Christian Albrechts University in Kiel Germany

The Explorer's Eye Annabel Merullo, Fergus Fleming, 2009-03-12 The golden moments of exploration and adventure glorious triumphant perilous and dramatic In the 18th century exploration entered a new dimension explorers were motivated by scientific inquiry rather than greed To this end they were expected to make a full record of everything they encountered and for the first time in history that record was to include pictures as well as words Combining gripping first hand accounts with original images THE EXPLORER'S EYE gives an insight into who these people were and what they saw They were a mixed bunch but whatever their training or background they provided a vivid portrait of the unknown In the early days they drew their own pictures later they were equipped with draughtsmen later still they carried cameras and ultimately they were accompanied by film crews The power of their images is matched by that of their journals Here you have Alexander von Humboldt braving the electric eels of South America and Robert Peary explaining his relationships with Eskimos My Journey Off the Beaten Path: The Quest for My Roots, from Spain to the Philippines Bernadette Rivas Soto, 2017-08-02 An eighteenth century Spanish friar from Galicia Spain became an ancestor to countless descendants in the Philippines This is a journey of one descendant in her relentless pursuit of discovering her mysterious foreign ancestry Her near impossible feat of tracing her roots has brought her to mountainous medieval towns in the northwestern Spain down to remotely unspoiled provinces of central Philippines Join her as she travels across the globe to the unbeaten path of her ancestral land of The Forgotten Seafarer Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-21 In the vast tapestry of human endeavor there lies a unique breed of individuals drawn to the allure of the open sea the mariners who traverse the world's oceans with unwavering resilience and unwavering spirit The Forgotten Seafarer captures the essence of these seafaring souls unveiling their extraordinary lives and the profound impact they have on our world This book is a poignant exploration of the seafarer's journey from the initial call of the sea to the challenges and triumphs encountered along the way Through a collection of captivating chapters we delve into the heart of the seafaring experience uncovering the hidden stories of those who make their home upon the boundless waters With vivid prose and meticulous research The Forgotten Seafarer paints a vivid portrait of life at sea We witness the raw power of nature's fury as mariners navigate treacherous storms their vessels tossed like toys amidst towering waves We stand alongside them as they face the perils of pirates treacherous waters and the ever present threat of loneliness Yet amidst the hardships we also discover the beauty and wonder that await those who dare to venture beyond the horizon The sea becomes a canvas upon which mariners paint their destinies forging unbreakable bonds with their shipmates and experiencing the camaraderie that only comes from shared adversity Beyond the personal narratives The Forgotten Seafarer delves into the broader impact of seafaring on society We explore the vital role mariners play in global trade connecting nations and cultures across vast distances We uncover the hidden histories of exploration and discovery as seafarers push the boundaries of human knowledge and unveil new worlds This book is a testament to the enduring spirit of the seafarer a celebration of those who choose to make the sea their home It is an invitation to embark on an extraordinary voyage to explore the depths of human resilience and the boundless allure of the open sea If you like this book write a review on google books
