The Exultation Of Franciscan Mysticism:

The Exultation of Franciscan Mysticism Emile Gebhart, Edward Maslin Hulme, 2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. Franciscan Mysticism Dunstan John Dobbins, 1927 Franciscan Mystic Raphael Brown, 1962

Mystics & Heretics in Italy at the End of the Middle Ages Emile Gebhart, 1923 Franciscan Studies, 1924 Issues for 1941-44 include the Report of the 23rd-26th annual meeting of the Franciscan Educational Conference Mystics & Heretics in Italy Emile Gebhart, 1922 Between Exaltation and Infamy Stephen Haliczer, 2002-08-29 One day in 1599 in the Spanish village of Soria, seven-year-old Maria Angela Astorch fell ill and died after gorging herself on unripened almonds. Maria's sister Isabel, a nun, came to view the body with her mother superior, an ecstatic mystic and visionary named Maria Angela Serafina. Overcome by the sight of the dead girl's innocent face, Serafina began to pray fervently for the return of the child's soul to her body. Entering a trance, she had a vision in which the Virgin Mary gave her a sign. At once, little Maria Angela started to show signs of life. A moment later, she scrambled to the ground and was soon restored to perfect health. During the Counter Reformation, the Church was confronted by an extraordinary upsurge of feminine religious enthusiasm like that of Serafina. Inspired by new translations of the lives of the saints, devout women all over Catholic Europe sought to imitate these athletes of Christ through extremes of self-abnegation, physical mortification, and devotion. As in the Middle Ages, such women's piety often took the form of ecstatic visions, revelations, voices, and stigmata. Stephen Haliczer offers a comprehensive portrait of women's mysticism in Golden Age Spain, where this enthusiasm was nearly a mass movement. The Church's response, he shows, was welcoming but wary, and the Inquisition took on the task of winnowing out frauds and imposters. Haliczer draws on fifteen cases brought by the Inquisition against women accused of feigned sanctity and on more than two dozen biographies and autobiographies. The key to acceptance, he finds, lay in the orthodoxy of the woman's visions and revelations. He concludes that mysticism offered women a way to transcend, though not to disrupt, the control of the male-dominated Church. Late Medieval Mysticism of the Low Countries Rik Van Nieuwenhove, Rob Faesen, Helen

Rolfson, 2008 This book contains translations and introductions to some of the major representatives of the spiritual tradition of the Low Countries from ca. 1350 onwards Mysticism and Intellect in Medieval Christianity and Buddhism

Yongho Francis Lee, 2020-03-09 Mysticism and Intellect in Medieval Christianity and Buddhism explores two influential intellectual and religious leaders in Christianity and Buddhism: Bonaventure (c. 1217-74) and Chinul (1158-1210), a Franciscan theologian and a Korean Zen master, respectively, with respect to their lifelong endeavors to integrate the intellectual and spiritual life so as to achieve the religious aims of their respective religious traditions. It also investigates an associated tension between different modes of discourse relating to the divine or the ultimate positive cataphatic discourse and negative apophatic discourse Both of these modes of discourse are closely related to different ways of understanding the immanence and transcendence of the divine or the ultimate Through close studies of Bonaventure and Chinul the book presents a unique dialogue between Christianity and Buddhism and between West and East The New York Review, 1908 Nuns, 2008-09-11 Cloistered and inaccessible brides of Christ Or socially engaged women active in the outside world to a degree impossible for their secular sisters Nuns tells the fascinating stories of the women who have lived in religious communities since the dawn of the modern age their ideals and achievements frustrations and failures and their attempts to reach out to the society around them Drawing particularly on the nuns own words Silvia Evangelisti explores how they came to the cloister how they responded to monastic discipline and how they pursued their spiritual intellectual and missionary activities The book looks not only at the individual stories of outstanding historical figures such as Teresa of Avila but also at the wider picture of convent life what it symbolized to contemporaries how it reflected and related to the world beyond the cloister and what it means in the world today Christian Spirituality: Latter developments, pt. 1. From the Renaissance to Jansenism Pierre Pourrat, 1927 The Psychology of Religious Mysticism James Henry Leuba, 1925 The Psychology of Religious Mysticism James H. Mystical Theology and Continental Philosophy David Lewin, Simon D. Podmore, Duane Williams, 2017-05-18 Exploration of the interface between mystical theology and continental philosophy is a defining feature of the current intellectual and even devotional climate But to what extent and in what depth are these disciplines actually speaking to one another or even speaking about the same phenomena This book draws together original contributions by leading and emerging international scholars delineating emerging debates in this growing and dynamic field of research and spanning mystical and philosophical traditions from the ancient to the medieval modern and contemporary At the heart of which lies Meister Eckhart perhaps the single most influential Christian mystic for modern times The book is organised around significant historical and contemporary figures who speak across the intersections of philosophy and theology offering new insights into key interlocutors such as Pseudo Dionysius Augustine Isaac Luria Eckhart Hegel Heidegger Marion Kierkegaard Deleuze Laruelle and i ek Designed both to contribute to current trends in mystical theology and philosophy and elicit dialogue and debate from further afield this book speaks within an emerging space exploring the retrieval of the mystical within a post secular context

A New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism Hilaire Kallendorf, 2010 The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience Contributors Colin Thompson Alastair Hamilton Christina Lee Clara Herrera
