Commerce in the British Short Story, 1880–1950 Dean Baldwin, 2015-10-06 The short story was a commercial phenomenon which took off in the late nineteenth century and lasted through to the rise of television and film Baldwin uses a wide variety of sources to show how economic factors helped to dictate how and what a wide variety of authors wrote Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 The poetry of the First World War has come to dominate our understanding of its literature while genres such as the short story which are just as vital to the literary heritage of the era have largely been neglected In this study Ann Marie Einhaus challenges deeply embedded cultural conceptions about the literature of the First World War using a corpus of several hundred short stories that until now have not undergone any systematic critical analysis From early wartime stories to late twentieth century narratives and spanning a wide spectrum of literary styles and movements Einhaus s work reveals a range of responses to the war through fiction from pacifism to militarism Going beyond the household names of Owen Sassoon and Graves Einhaus offers scholars and students unprecedented access to new frontiers in twentieth century literary studies Studies in Functional Stylistics Jan Chloupek, Jiri Nekvapil, Ji?í Nekvapil, 1993-01-01 The 15 contributions in the present collection can be divided roughly into three groups 1 Papers directly following up functional stylistics and the theory of language culture elaborated in the classical period of the Prague Linguistic School 2 Papers concerning the problems of style in a wider communicative arena These contributions are closely related to contemporary text linguistics and also deal with problems involving psycholinguistics sociolinguistics and semiotics 3 Papers having at least in some part a pronounced historiographic character These contributions reflect the fact that contemporary Czech linguistic research is firmly anchored in the Prague linguistic tradition Although the authors frame of reference is mainly Czech and the current language situation in the Czech Republic the majority of contributions were intended to have a more general linguistic character and general linguistic validity British Book News .1991 AB Bookman's Weekly .1992 Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays.
