The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters

Includes 14 original icons inspired by the writing from acclaimed artist Martin French Being-in-Creation Bruce Ellis Benson, Norman Wirzba, 2015-09-01 What is the proper relationship between human beings and the more than human world This philosophical question which underlies vast environmental crises forces us to investigate the tension between our extraordinary powers which seem to set us apart from nature even above it and our thoroughgoing ordinariness as revealed by the evolutionary history we share with all life The contributors to this volume ask us to consider whether the anxiety of unheimlichkeit which in one form or another absorbed so much of twentieth century philosophy might reveal not our homelessness in the cosmos but a need for a fundamental belongingness and implacement in it The Revelation of Angelic Creation Joseph R. Forman, 2010-03 Move over Augustine Look out Aquinas This is the first exegetical work on day one of Genesis to agree with all Scripture With the profound simplicity of a layman yet the penetrating density of a mystic this text is a fountain of Scriptural revelation to guide both heart and mind Unparalleled The Revelation of Angelic Creation for the first time draws back the veil on what Wisdom is and its composite origin the first hypostasis the angelic creation how it came to be and its composite nature the when how and why of the angelic rebellion and fall along with the restructuring of the unseen cosmos in the aftermath of said rebellion Also for good measure the two yes two gardens of Eden will be exposed This work will set new theological precedence in all these areas and much more Scriptural discourse is now forever altered That which was spoken in the darkness of pre creation finally is brought to light Joe is the run of the mill regular kind of guy who friends and acquaintances have called a prophet Born and raised in southern California his employment background consists of Production Control Sales Painting Contracting and a stint as a Drug and Alcohol Counselor His hobbies include Bonsai Koi and stained glass Marital Status still pursuing Sophia Wisdom Christ, Creation and the Cosmic Goal of Redemption J.J. Johnson Leese, 2018-05-17 J J Johnson Leese discusses how the apostle Paul s writing on Christ s relationship to creation read alongside the interpretations of Irenaeus of Lyon provide a meaningful contribution to contemporary debates on the interrelationship between religion and nature Leese draws upon the integration of three related scholarly trends the increased importance placed on biblical creation themes the emergence of ecotheology and the history of reception while focusing on the Pauline corpus and readings of Paul by Irenaeus thus uncovering a robust creation and ecotheological theology Irenaeus approach provides the possibility for Paul to contribute to ecotheology by way of a theological vision where the whole of reality in relationship to Christ and creation and by extension to soteriology and ecclesiology are central components of Paul s theology Higher Creativity for Virtual Teams: Developing Platforms for Co-Creation MacGregor, Steven P., Torres-Coronas, Teresa, 2007-05-31 This book presents advanced research on the concept of creativity using virtual teams demonstrating a specific focus and application for virtual teams It presents tools processes and frameworks to advance the overall concept that leveraging ideas from different locations in an organization and within extended networks is based on creativity which can deliver innovation Provided by publisher Faith in the Face of Tyranny Torbjörn Johannson, 2023-08-29 In 1933 a group of theological students in Berlin asked Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Hermann Sasse to work together with other theologians to come up with a confession that could be used to challenge Nazi ideology and its inroads into the church bodies of Germany through the so-called German Christians who wanted to reshape Christianity into a worship of German ethnicity. The result was the August Bethel Confession named after the town in which Sasse and Bonhoeffer worked together. Unfortunately, church bureaucrats got a hold of it and watered it down, and then it was forgotten for the Barmen Declaration, which was much more heavily influenced by Reformed theology and concerns and failed to even take up the question of what place Jews had in the church. This was a huge disappointment to both Bonhoeffer and Sasse, who are largely regarded as two of the greatest Lutheran theologians of that era. In Faith in the Face of Tyranny Torbjörn Johannson takes a look at the work that both these men brought to the forgotten Bethel Confession to show just what a confessional response to national socialism and racism looks like. Today there are often calls for new confessions and declarations addressing different political ideologies and issues, as well as cultural movements. This book shows what such a confession should look like and why, as well as what considerations should be taken into account when looking at such a project.

Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux, 2023-06-06 In Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux explores the connections between the cosmology of the Qur'an and various cosmological traditions of Late Antiquity, with a focus on Syriac Christianity. The first part of the book studies how, in exhorting its audience to contemplate the world, the Qur'an carries on a tradition of natural contemplation that had developed throughout Late Antiquity in the Christian world. In this regard, the analysis suggests particularly striking connections with the mystical and ascetic literature of the Church of the East, which was in effervescence at the time of the emergence of Islam. The second part argues that the Qur'anic cosmological discourse is built so as to serve the overarching theological message of the text, namely God's absolute unity. Despite the allusive and sometimes obscure way in which the Qur'an talks about the world's coming into being and its maintenance in existence, the text betrays its authors' acquaintance with cosmological debates of Late Antiquity. In studying the Qur'an through the prism of Late Antiquity, this book contributes to our understanding of the emergence of Islam and its relationship with other religious traditions of the time. Winner of the 2022 Marie Antoinette Van Huele Prize and the 2023 Richard Kreglinger Prize, both Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences, Free University of Brussels.

Gmirkin, 2022-05-02 Plato's Timaeus and the Biblical Creation Accounts argues that the creation of the world in Genesis 1 and the story of the first humans in Genesis 2 3 both draw directly on Plato's famous account of the origins of the universe mortal life and evil containing equal parts science theology and myth This book is the first to systematically compare biblical Ancient Near Eastern and Greek creation accounts and to show that Genesis 1-3 is heavily indebted to Plato's Timaeus and other cosmogonies by Greek natural philosophers It argues that the idea of a monotheistic cosmic god was first introduced in Genesis 1 under the influence of Plato's philosophy and that this cosmic Creator was originally distinct from the lesser terrestrial gods including Yahweh who appear elsewhere in Genesis It shows the use of Plato's Critias the sequel to Timaeus in the stories about the Garden of Eden the intermarriage of the sons of God and the daughters of men and the biblical flood This book confirms the late date and Hellenistic background of Genesis 1-11 drawing on Plato's writings and other Greek sources found at the Great Library of Alexandria This study provides a fascinating approach to Genesis that will interest students and scholars in both biblical and classical studies philosophy and creation narratives
