WHEN I SEEK GOD'S FACE ALLEN TIMILEHIN OLATUNDE, When I seek God's face is a discipleship book that explains the necessity of closer walk with God. It contains the benefits in seeking the Face of God, the dilemma of the Unbroken life, the need for renewal like that of eagle, the purpose and the nature of seeking God, our duty, the power of prayer in strengthening the man who seeks God, the power of keeping hope of Christ alive as the anchor for our soul, and lastly the full concentration in pressing towards the mark of winning the presence of God at the end of all struggle on earth. This book challenges our thought to seek God's face, not His hand, that we should be mature Christians that grow beyond earthly gain and to seek God for what He has for us both now and hereafter. It develops means and strategy for language barriers, mission funding and support, neglecting education as mission tool, and ill health challenges of missionaries which usually truncate dreams. This book however interacts with Nigerian Baptist Mission under GMB and her relationship with local churches on how to strengthen missionaries with SWOT Analysis. This book recommends suggested ways for African mission boards and agencies to be pragmatic in strategic making, be aware of the psychological welfare of her missionaries, and provide a health insurance scheme for serving missionaries. When Mission Board and local churches hold hands together, missionaries will strive better on the field. Mission is still young in Africa; dark soil, we only need men, methods, and materials to grow gospel as God increases the open doors for mission.

surreal sketches is an attempt to bridge the gap between the Mayan cosmovision and the Western world and represents an integrated reflection of Bruce's journey to Chiapas. Featuring visits to contemporary highland Maya villages, archaeological sites and time spent with indigenous people on the face of the Earth as well as ceremonies, visions and dreams and in the soul that became increasingly influenced by Tzotzil insights into how to live, this collection of poetry expresses Bruce's effort to intimate something of that fuller dreaming human life which for the indigenous people of Chiapas is as natural as events in the waking world. This delightfully designed volume features poems in both English and selected translations into the Tzotzil language and it is the fourth in the new Xibalba Books Poetry Series aimed at republishing selected highlights from Bruce's vast poetry archive.

Community in the Face of Tragedy Ken Penner, 2020-11-10. A short, concise yet powerfully inspirational book. Community in the Face of Tragedy: Eleanor's House takes readers on a journey of humanitarian care and practical living out of the gospel. In a world that can seem overwhelmingly unkind at times, this true story will rekindle hope and remind readers that we all have to take care of each other. Ken Penner relates the true story of Eleanor, an older lady who lives alone in the Bulkley Valley in northwestern British Columbia. Tragically, a fire destroys her home and the lack of insurance coverage and government aid threaten to leave her destitute. But when her compassionate neighbours decide to rise to Jesus Christ's challenge to do unto others, miracles start to occur and God's provision proves to be astounding. Those associated with Eleanor's house will cherish this record of memories, and those who only meet her in its pages will be encouraged to step out in faith and bless their neighbours too. A wonderful testimony to the power and love of God working through His people.
