Evangelism Henry H. Knight III,F. Douglas Powe Jr.,2019-02-15 Because of the more aggressive and confrontational tactics we hear about evangelism has developed a bad connotation Doors are shut hurriedly phone calls end abruptly and e mails left unanswered After all isn t this a task better handled by the pastor Perhaps it s time to reexamine John Wesley s model of evangelism as a full natural circle where it s a communal beginning point rather than a solitary end The central motive of authentic evangelism is Having received a message that s made all the difference in our lives we desire to share that message with others in the hope that it will transform their lives as well Wesley models an evangelism that reaches out and welcomes invites and nurtures and speaks to both head and heart Evangelism is about relationship the authors write How we are in relationship to God who is able to transform us into new beings How we are in relationship to our neighbor whom we must love like ourselves As one reviewer says Knight and Powe have given us a relational book They describe the deep connection between John Wesley s thoughts Charles Wesley s hymns scholarly thinking about evangelism and biblical understandings of the gospel all in relation to the needs concerns and hopes of everyday people Learn on your own or as a congregational group from this practical study on living an evangelistic life that demonstrates the transforming power of loving God and neighbor

The Art of Evangelism William J. Abraham,2011-10-01 Following his best seller The Logic of Evangelism this book takes further Professor Abraham s belief that evangelism should involve taking the whole gospel to the whole person The book reveals his understanding that evangelism is more than winning people for Christ it is a process of discipleship introducing new converts to all the riches of the Christian faith Of course anyone can undertake evangelism but some do it with a slapstick attitude as though they were throwing paint on canvas In this book Professor William Abraham declares that evangelism is an art Evangelism is to be crafted with care it is to be undertaken thoughtfully it is to be placed carefully in the overall strategy of church life Moreover Christians are not made by throwing words at people they are won by the care and love of a Christian community that takes seriously its traditions and its Bible

Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction
