The 5th Season: New year ku (books 1 & 2 of 4) Robin D. Gill, 2007 In this book the first of a series Robin D Gill author of the highly acclaimed Rise Ye Sea Slugs and Cherry Blossom Epiphany the largest single theme anthologies of poetry ever published explores the traditional Japanese New Year through 2 000 translated haiku mostly 17 20c The New Year R H Blyth once wrote is a season by itself That was nowhere so plain as in the world of haiku where saijiki large collections called of ku illustrating hundreds if not thousands of briefly explained seasonal themes generally comprised five volumes one for each season Yet the great doyen of haiku gave this fifth season considered the first season when it came at the head of the Spring rather than in mid winter only a tenth of the pages he gave to each of the other four seasons 20 vs 200 Was Blyth Zen enthusiast not enamored with ritual Or was he loath to translate the New Year with its many cultural idiosyncrasies most common to the Sinosphere but not to the West because he did not want to have to explain the haiku It is hard to say but with these poems for the re creation of the world Robin D Gill aka keigu respect foolishness or respect fool rushes in where even Blyth feared to tread to give this supernatural or cosmological season one that combines aspects of the Solstice Christmas New Year s Easter July 4th and the Once Upon a Time of Fairy Tales the attention it deserves With G K Chesterton s words evoking the mind of the haiku poets of old the author publisher leaves further description of the content to his reader reviewers The man standing in his own kitchen garden with the fairyland opening at the gate is the man with large ideas His mind creates distance the motor car stupidly destroys it G K Chesterton Heretics 1905      The Year's Best Science Fiction: Seventeenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 2000-08-12 In science fiction s early days stories often looked past 1984 to the year 2000 as the far unknowable future Here now on the brink of the twenty first century the future remains as distant and as unknowable as ever and science fiction stories continue to explore it with delightful results Collected in this anthology are such imaginative gems as The Wedding Album by David Marusek In a high tech future the line between reality and simulation has grown thin and it s often hard to tell who s on what side Everywhere by Geoff Ryman Do the people who live in utopian conditions ever recognize them as such Hatching the Phoenix by Frederik Pohl One of science fiction s Grand Masters returns with a star crossing tale of the Heechee the enigmatic vanished aliens whose discarded technology guides mankind through the future A Hero of the Empire by Robert Silverberg Showing that the past is as much a province of the imagination as the future this novelette returns to an alternate history when the Roman Empire never fell to show us just how the course of history can be altered The twenty seven stories in this collection imaginatively take us to nearby planets and distant futures into the past and into universes no larger than a grain of sand Included here are the works of masters of the form and of bright new talents Supplementing the stories are the editor s insightful summation of the year s events and a lengthy list of honorable mentions making this book a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart      The Year's Best Science Fiction: Thirty-First Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 2014-07-15 In the new millennium what secrets lay beyond the far reaches of the universe What mysteries belie the truths we once held to be self evident The world of science fiction has long been a porthole into the realities of tomorrow blurring the line between life and art Now in The Year s Best Science Fiction Thirty First Annual Collection the very best SF authors explore ideas of a new world in the year s best short stories This venerable collection brings together award winning authors and masters of the field such as Robert Reed Alastair Reynolds Damien Broderick Elizabeth Bear Paul McAuley and John Barnes And with an extensive recommended reading guide and a summation of the
