Littlest Angel Angela Adams refuses to have anything to do with her unborn baby's reluctant father much less marry him. True her pregnancy was unexpected but Clint Brady didn't have to act so dazed when she announced her impending motherhood. And while Clint admits his reaction could have been more enthusiastic the thought of baby bottles and diaper pins was enough to rattle even a rugged rancher like himself. But now that the shock has passed nothing is going to come between Clint and fatherhood not even stubborn Angela. Natural Born Trouble Texan Dani Adams was through with single dads. Never again would she brush away their children's tears or bandage scraped knees. Instead she'd care for the sick animals brought to her veterinary practice. She'd find fulfillment without the heartache. Then sexy single dad Duke Jenkins and his adorable twins moved to town and he was determined to make Dani his kids' mother. His soul searing kisses warm embraces and his children's antics are quickly melting her resolve. But is Dani heading for another disappointment or down the aisle to meet her groom.

From the Heart of a Prairie Farm Wife Maurine Becotte, 2009-01-28 Maurine Becotte was born and raised in the farming community of Cut Knife Saskatchewan. She was the eldest daughter of Irwin and Margaret Duvall. Her dream was to become a veterinarian but young women of her time did not become veterinarians so she followed Society's Rules and became a school teacher. After a few short years of teaching school Maurine met and married a true farmer Emile Becotte of the Seagram District. Together they raised their family of eight children on a mixed farm in the Baldwinton Area of Saskatchewan. They grew a variety of grain crops but their passion was the herd of purebred Angus cattle that they built from meager beginnings. As their children grew we were not quite sure which meant more to them the beautiful black cows that we all came to love or us as children. Neither one lacked for love or attention. Times were hard on the farm and there was always work to be done. Maurine always found time to create fun and joy in life for family, friends and neighbors. She always had the coffee pot on and time to chat with all who passed thru our yard. On one occasion a native family passed through in a horse drawn wagon and the young mother asked for some fresh water. Maurine, being the kind person she was, gave them the fresh water and a jar of fresh cow's milk for the infant child. Some months later that same young woman thanked Mom again for her generosity. Maurine began writing poetry while attending college in 1940 and she continued to write throughout her life. Her poetry is highlighted with ideas that came from everyday life: the beauties of nature, the love of family and community, the dedication to farm life in Saskatchewan, history, politics and war. In the 1970's and 1980's Maurine and two daughters compiled six volumes of her poetry under the name of Housewife Harmony. Volumes 1 through 6. Maurine wrote poetry for some fifty plus years before ill health took away her capacity to write. She died in March 1996 without achieving her one great wish to see her poetry published in one complete book. This book is the fulfillment of that dream. Rather than use Housewife Harmony as a title I have chosen to call the book From the Heart of a Prairie Farm Wife because Mom truly wrote from the heart. The following pages will unveil the ability Maurine had in the stroke of the pen.

The Heart of Vocal Harmony Deke Sharon, 2016-07-01 Music Pro Guide Books DVDs Most choirs spend their rehearsal time focusing on notes rhythms and precision. They rarely if ever discuss a song's meaning and feeling even though those elements are precisely what draws people to the music in the first place. Thousands of books have been written about choral technique teaching people how to sing technically well. What sets The Heart of Vocal Harmony apart is its focus on honest unified expression and the process of delivering an emotionally compelling performance. It delves into an underdeveloped vocal topic: the heart of the music and the process involved with expressing it. The Heart of Vocal Harmony is not just for a cappella groups; it is also for vocal harmony groups, ensembles, and choirs at all levels with or without instruments. In addition to the process, the book features discussions with some of the biggest luminaries in vocal harmony: composers, arrangers, directors, singers, and groups including Eric Whitacre, Pentatonix, the Manhattan Transfer, and more.
