The Marxisthumanist Theory Of Statecapitalism:

The Marxist-Humanist Theory of State-capitalism Raya Dunayevskaya, 1992-01-01 The Concept of Other in Latin American Liberation Eugene Walker Gogol, 2002-01-01 In this exciting new study Eugene Gogol interweaves three strands that form the intellectual bedrock for the concept of the Other in the Latin American context Hegel's dialectic of negativity Marx's humanism and autochthonal emancipatory thought From this foundation the book explores the relation of liberatory philosophic thought to today's social and class movements Gogol considers the logic of capitalism on Latin American soil the ecological crisis in Latin America and the concept and practice of self liberation Still one of the most contested terrains of Latin American thought the Other has been of central concern for many luminary thinkers including Leopoldo Zea Octavio Paz and JosZ Carlos MariOtegui While these writers may not garner much publicity in the world press the highly public and ongoing struggles of the Zapatistas and Brazil's Landless Workers Movement demonstrate the continuing need to theorize the volatile nature of Latin American social reality The Dunayevskaya-Marcuse-Fromm Correspondence, 1954-1978 Kevin Anderson, Russell Rockwell, 2012-01-01 This volume contains the correspondence during the years 1954 to 1978 between Marxist Humanist and feminist philosopher Raya Dunayevskaya 1910-87 and the Hegelian Marxist philosopher and social theorist Herbert Marcuse 1898-1979 and the psychologist and social critic Erich Fromm 1900-80 The exchanges show the deeply Marxist and humanist concerns of these theorists while also highlighting their significant differences on key issues in philosophy politics and psychology during the turbulent decades of the 1950s 1960s and 1970s Contemporary Sociological Theory Bert N Adams, R A Sydnie, 2002-01-16 The strengths of this text are the breadth of theories covered the integration of gender related topics 3-4 family work religion the use of substantial quotes from primary texts the consistent inclusion of methodological issues I have no doubt that it will find a solid position in the field of theory texts Kathleen Slobin North Dakota State University The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Theory, Modern Power, World Politics Nevzat Soguk, Scott G Nelson, 2016-04-28 Deliberately eschewing disciplinary and temporal boundaries this volume makes a major contribution to the de-traditionalization of political thinking within the discourses of international relations Collecting the works of twenty-five theorists this Ashgate Research Companion engages some of the most pressing aspects of political thinking in world politics today The authors explore theoretical constitutions critiques and affirmations of uniquely modern forms of power past and present Among the themes and dynamics examined are textual appropriation and representation materiality and capital formation geopolitical dimensions of ecological crises connections between representations of violence and securitization subjectivity and genderization counter-globalization politics constructivism biopolitics post-colonial politics and theory as well as the political prospects of emerging civic and cosmopolitan orders in a time of national religious and secular polarization Radically different in their approaches the authors critically assess the discourses of IR as interpretive frames that are indebted to the historical formation of concepts and to particular negotiations of power that inform the main methodological practices usually granted primacy in the field. Students as well as seasoned scholars seeking to challenge accepted theoretical frameworks will find in these chapters fresh insights into contemporary world political problems and new resources for their critical interrogation.

Sociological Theory Bert N. Adams, R. A. Sydie, 2001-01-30. This book connects theorists and their work to larger themes and ideas. All too often in the opinion of the authors, theory texts focus too much on individual theorists and insufficiently on the relationship between their theories and how these have contributed in turn to the evolution of ideas concerning social life. Treatment of individual theories and theorists is balanced with the development of key themes. Ideas about social life introduced in Chapter 1 which then reappear in the discussion of individual theorists and their work. A key organizing principle of this text is to trace major schools of thought over the past 150 years as they appear and reappear in different chapters. Section 1 introductions help remind students of the big picture within which any given theory or theorist is only one part. A consistent organization and presentation within chapters helps provide students with a context for learning and a means of much more easily comparing and contrasting theorists and their ideas. Important new voices in a text for social theory. In Chapter 2 Harriet Martineau is introduced as one of sociology's founders. From then on the views of women theorists and others are represented in far more than token fashion. Examples include W. E. B. DuBois, Marianne Weber, Charlotte Gilman, Rosa Luxemburg, Joseph Schumpeter, V. I. Lenin, Niklas Luhmann, Theda Skocpol, Erik Wright, Elman Service, Arlie Hochschild, Dorothy Smith, Patricia Hill Collins, and Immanuel Wallerstein. A timeline showing when social theorists lived and wrote and connecting their biographies to important social events over 300 years is at the back of the text. The organization of every chapter along similar lines provides a consistency in presentation that encourages comparisons among the theorists. The authors do a very good job presenting overlooked theorists and making their relevance to social theorizing doing sociology clear. Joan Alway, formerly University of Miami. The strengths of this text are the breadth of theories covered, the integration of gender-related topics, family, work, religion, the use of substantial quotes from primary texts, the consistent inclusion of methodological issues, and the goals of the project to provide an expansive and readable theory text. I have no doubt that it will find a solid position in the field of popular theory texts for undergraduate course use.

Russia: From Proletarian Revolution to State-Capitalist Counter-Revolution Raya Dunayevskaya, 2017-07-10. Russia: From Proletarian Revolution to State Capitalist Counter Revolution is a selection of writings by the Marxist Humanist philosopher Raya Dunayevskaya which begins with an examination of Lenin's Hegel Notebooks, his philosophic preparation for proletarian revolution, followed by a section on What Happens After the revolution, the first years post 1917. Analyses of Trotsky, Stalin, Bukharin, and Luxemburg are presented. A key section is Russia's Transformation into Opposite The Theory of State Capitalism. Opposition to Russian state capitalism such as the 1953 East Germany Revolt and the 1956 Hungarian Revolution are described. Mao's China as another form of state capitalism as well as the Sino-Soviet conflict is discussed. The study ends
