The Adam of Two Edens Mahmoud Darwish, 2000-11-01 All the poems included appeared variously in several issues of Jusoor T p verso Unfortunately, It Was Paradise Mahmoud Darwish, 2013-04-15 Tilda Swinton's Top Ten Favorite Books for T The New York Times Style Magazine Mahmoud Darwish is a literary rarity at once critically acclaimed as one of the most important poets in the Arabic language and beloved as the voice of his people A legend in Palestine his lyrics are sung by fieldworkers and schoolchildren He has assimilated some of the world's oldest literary traditions while simultaneously struggling to open new possibilities for poetry This collection spans Darwish's entire career nearly four decades revealing an impressive range of expression and form A splendid team of translators has collaborated with the poet on these new translations which capture Darwish's distinctive voice and spirit Fady Joudah's foreword new to this edition addresses Darwish's enduring legacy following his death in 2008 Mahmoud Darwish Muna Abu Eid, 2016-05-31 Mahmoud Darwish is the poet laureate of the Palestinian national struggle His poems resonate across the entire Arab world and more than any other single figure perhaps since the death of Yasser Arafat he represents a unifying figurehead for Palestinian national aspirations In this the first comprehensive biography of Darwish in English Muna Abu Eid examines the poet's intellectual status on two fronts both national and public and offers a critical assessment of Darwish's national and political life Based on Darwish's own writings and interviews with people who worked with him and situating Darwish's poetry within the wider context of Palestinian struggles inside Israel this book explores the influence of Darwish's life and work in the Palestinian territories and in the diaspora from the destruction of his Galilee village and displacement of his family during the 1948 Nakba to his return and infiltration back into the homeland and the struggle for survival inside Israel to his internal and external exiles in Haifa Moscow Cairo Beirut Tunisia Paris and even Ramallah Locating Postcolonial Narrative Genres Walter Goebel, Saskia Schabio, 2013-01-17 This volume explores how postcolonial texts have determined the evolution or emergence of specific formal innovations in narrative genres While the prominence of questions of cultural identity in postcolonial studies has prevented due attention to concerns of literary form and aesthetics this book gives premium to the literary aiming to delineate the evolution of specific narrative techniques as part of an emerging postcolonial aesthetics Essays delineate elements of an emergent postcolonial narratology across a variety of seminal generic forms such as the epic the novel the short story the autobiography and the folk tale focusing on genre as a powerful tool for the historicizing of literature and orature within cultural discourses Investigating the heuristic value of concepts such as mimicry writing back translation negotiation or subversion the book considers the value of explanatory paradigms for postcolonial generic models It also explores the status of postcolonial comparative aesthetics versus globalization studies and liberal concepts of the transnational taking issue with the prominence of Western concepts of identity in discussions of postcolonial literature and the favoring of mimetic forms This volume offers a unique contribution to the study of narrative genre in postcolonial literatures and provides valuable insight into the field of postcolonial studies on the whole Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3,2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba Doctor Nahla Abdo,Nur Masalha,2018-05-15 In 2018 Palestinians mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba when over 750 000 people were uprooted and forced to flee their homes in the early days of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Even today the bitterness and trauma of the Nakba remains raw and it has become the pivotal event both in the shaping of Palestinian identity and in galvanising the resistance to occupation Unearthing an unparalleled body of rich oral testimony An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba tells the story of this epochal event through the voices of the Palestinians who lived it uncovering remarkable new insights both into Palestinian experiences of the Nakba and into the wider dynamics of the ongoing conflict Drawing together Palestinian accounts from 1948 with those of the present day the book confronts the idea of the Nakba as an event consigned to the past instead revealing it to be an ongoing process aimed at the erasure of Palestinian memory and history In the process each unique and wide ranging contribution leads the way for new directions in Palestinian scholarship Resident Alien Mohammed Kazim Ali,2015-11-23 Kazim Ali uses a range of subjects the politics of checkpoints at international borders difficulties in translation collaborations between poets and choreographers and connections between poetry and landscape or between biotechnology and the human body to situate the individual human body into a larger global context with all of its political and social implications He finds in the quality of ecstatic utterance his passport to regions where reason and logic fail and the only knowledge is instinctual in physical existence and breath This collection includes Ali s essays on topics such as Anne Carson s translations of Euripides the poetry and politics of Mahmoud Darwish Josey Foo s poetry dance collaborations with choreographer Leah Stein Olga Broumas collaboration with T Begley Jorie Graham s complication of Kenneth Goldsmith s theories the postmodern spirituality of the 14th century Kashmiri mystic poet Lalla translations of Homer Mandelstam Sappho and Hafez as well as the poet Reetika Vazirani s practice of yoga Exile Cultures, Misplaced Identities ,2015-06-29 Exile Cultures Misplaced Identities takes a transnational and transcultural approach to exile and its capacities to alter the ways we think about place and identity in the contemporary world The edited collection brings together researchers on exile in international perspective from three continents who explore questions of exilic identity along multiple geopolitical and cultural axes Cuba the USA and Australia Colombia and the USA Algeria and France Italy France and Mexico non Han minorities and Han majorities in China China Tibet and India Japan and China New Caledonia Vietnam and France Hungary the USSR and Australia and Germany before and after unification The international and crosscultural span of this collection represents an important addition to the fields of exile criticism and cultural identity studies Exile Cultures Misplaced Identities will be of interest to readers scholars and students of exile diasporic and transmigration studies international studies postcolonial studies cultural studies language studies and comparative literary studies

Translating Dissent Mona Baker, 2015-10-30 Written by the winners of the Intranews Linguists of the Year award for 2016 Discursive and non discursive interventions in the political arena are heavily mediated by various acts of translation that enable protest movements to connect across the globe Focusing on the Egyptian experience since 2011 this volume brings together a unique group of activists who are able to reflect on the complexities challenges and limitations of one or more forms of translation and its impact on their ability to interact with a variety of domestic and global audiences Drawing on a wide range of genres and modalities from documentary film and subtitling to oral narratives webcomics and street art the 18 essays reveal the dynamics and complexities of translation in protest movements across the world Each unique contribution demonstrates some aspect of the interdependence of these movements and their inevitable reliance on translation to create networks of solidarity The volume is framed by a substantial introduction by Mona Baker and includes an interview with Egyptian activist and film maker Philip Rizk With contributions by scholars and artists professionals and activists directly involved in the Egyptian revolution and other movements Translating Dissent will be of interest to students of translation intercultural studies and sociology as well as the reader interested in the study of social and political movements Online materials including links to relevant websites and videos are available at <http://www.routledge.com/cw/baker> Additional resources for Translation and Interpreting Studies are available on the Routledge Translation Studies Portal <http://www.routledge.com/textbooks/translationstudies>

Mythopoetic Cinema Kriss Ravetto-Biagioli, 2017-08-08 In Mythopoetic Cinema Kriss Ravetto Biagioli explores how contemporary European filmmakers treat mythopoetics as a critical practice that questions the constant need to provide new identities a new Europe and with it a new European cinema after the fall of the Soviet Union Mythopoetic cinema questions the perpetual branding of movements ideas and individuals Examining the work of Jean Luc Godard Alexander Sokurov Marina Abramovi and Theodoros Angelopoulos Ravetto Biagioli argues that these disparate artists provide a critical reflection on what constitutes Europe in the age of neoliberalism Their films reflect not only the violence of recent years but also help question dominant models of nation building that result in the general failure to respond ethically to rising ethnocentrism In close readings of such films as Sokurov's Russian Ark 2002 and Godard's Notre Musique 2004 Ravetto Biagioli demonstrates the ways in which these filmmakers engage and evaluate the recent reconceptualization of Europe's borders mythic figures and identity paradoxes Her work not only analyzes how these filmmakers thematically treat the idea of Europe but also how their work questions the ability of the moving image to challenge conventional ways of understanding history
