The Age Of Partnership Europeans In Asia Before Dominion:

The Age of Partnership Blair B. Kling, Michael Naylor Pearson, 1979 European Commercial Expansion in Early Modern Asia Om Prakash, 2020-04-28 Regular commercial contacts between Europe and Asia date back to at least the early years of the Christian era but the pattern of trade underwent a structural modification following the Portuguese discovery of a route to the East Indies via the Cape of Good Hope This volume illustrates the consequences of the arrival of large numbers of Europeans in the East Europeans both participated in modified and exploited existing trade relationships in the Indian Ocean and the Pacific The studies reprinted here show how some environments such as Japan were hostile whilst most states welcomed the European commercial contact The necessity for Europeans to pay for Asian goods using precious metals is emphasised by the inclusion of articles in monetary transfers in Asian trade a phenomenon which provides a link between economic developments in the Americas and those in Asia from the 16th century onwards South East Asia, Colonial History: Imperialism before 1800 Paul H. Kratoska, 2001 The six volumes that make up this unique set provide an extensive overview of colonialism in South East Asia In the majority of cases authors chosen were specialists writing about their individual areas of expertise and had first hand experience in the region Outline of contents I Imperialism before 1800 Edited by Peter Borschberg II Empire Building in the Nineteenth Century III High Imperialism IV Imperial Decline Nationalism and the Japanese Challenge V Peaceful Transitions to Independence VI Independence through Violent Struggle The Political Economy of Commerce: Southern India 1500-1650 Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2002-07-18 Explores the relationship between long distance trade and the economic and political structure of southern India South East Asia: Colonial Hist V1 Paul Kratoska, 2022-01-26 First published in 2004 The six volumes that make up this set provide an overview of colonialism in South East Asia The first volume deals with Portuguese Spanish and Dutch Imperialism before 1800 the second with empire building during the Nineteenth Century and the third with the imperial heyday in the early Twentieth Century The remaining volumes are devoted to the decline of empire covering nationalism and the Japanese challenge to the Western presence in the region and the transition to independence The authors whose works are anthologised include both official participants and scholars who wrote about events from a more detached perspective Wherever possible authors have been chosen who had first hand experience in the region Volume I includes Imperialism in South East Asia before 1800 Business, Race, and Politics in British India, c.1850-1960 Maria Misra, 1999-04-29 This is a study of the political and economic activities of an important group of British businessmen in India between 1850 and 1960 Though denounced by Indian nationalists as the economic arm of the British Raj the firms of these Managing Agents seemed unassailable before the First World War However during the inter war period they rapidly lost their commanding position to both Indian and other foreign competitors Dr Misra argues that the failure of these firms was in part the consequence of their particular and ultimately self defeating attitudes towards business politics and race She casts new light on British colonial society in India and makes an important contribution to current debates on the nature of the British Empire and the causes of Britain's relative economic decline

Profit and Principle Martine van Ittersum, 2006-03-01 This monograph is a study of the interaction of politics and political theory in The Netherlands and Asia in the early seventeenth century Its focal point is the Dutch jurist Hugo Grotius 1583-1645 who developed his rights and contract theories for the benefit of the United Dutch East India Company or VOC The monograph reconstructs the immediate historical context of his political thought as conceptualized in his early manuscript De Jure Praedae On the Law of Prize and Booty and Mare Liberum The Free Sea 1609 It argues that Grotius' justification of Dutch interloping in the colonial empires of Spain and Portugal made possible the VOC's rise to power in the Malay Archipelago which resulted in the slow but steady loss of self-determination on the part of the inhabitants of the Spice Islands

European Commercial Enterprise in Pre-Colonial India Om Prakash, 1998-06-28 European traders first appeared in India at the end of the fifteenth century and began exporting goods to Europe as well as to other parts of Asia In a detailed analysis of the trading operations of European corporate enterprises such as the English and Dutch East India Companies as well as those of private European traders this book considers how over a span of three centuries the Indian economy expanded and was integrated into the pre-modern world economy as a result of these interactions The book also describes how this essentially market-determined commercial encounter changed in the latter half of the eighteenth century as the colonial relationship between Britain and the subcontinent was established By bringing together and examining the existing literature the author provides a fascinating overview of the impact of European trade on the pre-modern Indian economy which will be of value to students of Indian, European and colonial history

Merchants of Maritime India, 1500-1800 Ashin Das Gupta, 2024-10-28 The focus of this volume is the rise and fall of the Indian maritime merchant in the early modern period the heyday of Moghul Surat the appearance of a group of independent merchant shipowners and their eclipse at the end of the period in the face of European competition and monopolies Much of the evidence for the activity of these Indian merchants comes from the records of the Dutch and English East India Companies as well as the papers of English private merchants and this is carefully assessed by Professor Das Gupta in these articles He is also concerned to set the picture thus gained in the context of the trade of the Indian Ocean region as a whole and to relate it to the questions of continuity and change raised by Van Leur

Portuguese Merchants in the Manila Galleon System Cuauhtémoc Villamar, 2020-12-16 Villamar examines the role of Portuguese merchants in the formation of the Manila Galleon as a system of trade founded at the end of the sixteenth century The rise of Manila as a crucial transshipment port was not a spontaneous incident Instead it came about through a complex combination of circumstances and interconnections that nurtured the establishment of the Manila Galleon system a trading mechanism that lasted two and half centuries from 1565 until 1815 Villamar analyses the establishment of the regulatory framework of the trade across the Pacific Ocean as a whole setting that provided legality to the transactions predictability to the transportation and security to the stakeholders He looks both at the Spanish crown strategy in Asia and the emergence of a network of Portuguese merchants located in Manila and active in the long distance trade. This informal community of merchants participated from the inception of the trading system across the Pacific with connections between Europe, ports in Asia under the control of Portugal, the Spanish colonies in America and the city of Manila. From its inception, the newly founded capital of the Philippines became a hub of connections attracting part of the trade that already existed in Asia. Surveying the Portuguese commercial networks from the Estado da Índia across the Spanish lake, this book sheds light on the early modern globalization from a truly comprehensive Iberian perspective. This is a valuable resource for scholars of Pacific and Iberian trade history and the maritime history of Asia.
