

Enterprise Investment Scheme and Venture Capital Trusts: Better Focus

Who is likely to be affected?

Companies raising money under the Enterprise Investment (EIS) and Venture Capital Trust (VCT) schemes, and individuals investing under the schemes.

General description of the measure

This measure will better focus the EIS and VCT schemes through:

- introducing a new disqualifying purpose test for the schemes;
- providing that acquiring shares in another company (other than by subscription in a subsidiary) will not be a qualifying activity; and,
- providing that receipt of Feed-In Tariffs (FiTs) or similar subsidies will not generally be a qualifying activity.

Policy objective

The aim of this measure is to focus the EIS and VCT schemes better on higher risk activities, preventing tax relief being provided for investment in companies or activities outside the purpose of the schemes and so helping smaller, higher-risk UK companies to obtain finance.

Background to the measure

The Government announced in Budget 2011 its intention to improve the focus of the reliefs, and proposals were included in a consultation document Tax-advantaged venture capital schemes: a consultation published on the Treasury website on 6 July 2011.

Comments received in response to that document have been reflected in the measure. In particular, the overall approach taken on the purpose test has been revised.

Detailed proposal

Operative date

Purpose test: For both EIS and VCTs the new disqualifying purpose test will apply to shares in underlying investee companies issued on or after 6 April 2012.

Share acquisition: The exclusion of share acquisition as a qualifying activity will apply, for EIS, to shares issued on or after 6 April 2012 and for VCTs, to money invested in a VCT on or after that date.

Exclusion of FiTs based activity: For both EIS and VCTs, the exclusion will apply to all shares in underlying investee companies issued on or after 6 April 2012. The exclusion will also apply to shares issued between 23 March 2011 and 6 April 2012 where the investee company has not commenced subsidised electricity generation before 6 April 2012.
