Environmental Protection: Public or Private Choice D.J. Kraan, Roel J. in 't Veld, 2012-12-06
This volume is the result of a collective effort made by its authors to reason and write about environmental policy from an empirical rather than from a prescriptive perspective Since the authors like most people care about the environment and as professional economists or political scientists have some expertise to offer in the area of policy design it was not always easy for them to keep on the intended track Whereas they knew that it is unusual to follow a strictly empirical approach in such a practical field as environmental policy they discovered only during the effort what kind of difficulties would be encountered Moreover they learned that it is sometimes necessary to reason normatively in order to catch essential features of empirical reality As it turns out moral notions cannot entirely be neglected in political life The predominance of homo economicus is not absolute We feel that the effort has been worthwhile and deserves to be repeated and expanded It has been a truly co operative project and we are very grateful to all authors for their willingness to contribute Special gratitude we owe to Frans van Nispen and Annemarie Rima Frans van Nispen has assisted us in every conceivable way during the preparation of this book
Free-Choice Learning and the Environment John H. Falk, Joe E. Heimlich, Susan Foutz, 2009-05-16
Most environmental learning takes place outside of the formal education system but our understanding of how this learning actually occurs is in its infancy By surfing the internet watching nature documentaries and visiting parks forests marine sanctuaries and zoos people make active choices to learn about various aspects of their environment every day Free Choice Learning and the Environment explores the theoretical foundations of free choice environmental education the practical implications for applying theory to the education of learners of all ages and the policy implications for creating new and sustainable environmental education opportunities

The natural choice Great Britain: Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, 2011-06-07
This white paper sets out proposals for a detailed programme of action to repair damage done to the environment in the past and urges everyone to get involved in helping nature to flourish at all levels from neighbourhoods to national parks The plans are directly linked to the groundbreaking research in the National Ecosystem Assessment that showed the strong economic arguments for safeguarding and enhancing the natural environment They also act on the recommendations of Making Space for Nature a report into the state of England s wildlife sites led by Professor John Lawton and published in September 2010 which showed that England s wildlife sites are fragmented and not able to respond to the pressures of climate change and other pressures we put on our land Key measures proposed include i Reconnecting nature with New Nature Improvement Areas NIAs with a 7 5 million fund for 12 initial NIAs biodiversity offsetting New Local Nature Partnerships with 1 million available this year phasing out peat ii Connecting people and nature for better quality of life with Green Areas Designation better urban green spaces more children experiencing nature by learning outdoors strengthening local public health activities the new environmental volunteering initiative Muck in 4 Life to improve places in towns and countryside for people and nature to enjoy and iii Capturing and improving the value of nature with a Natural Capital Committee an annual statement of green accounts for UK Plc a business led Task Force to expand the UK business opportunities from new products and services which are good for the economy and nature alike

Environmental education in the schools creating a program that works. , Ethical Issues in Preventive Medicine S. Doxiadis, 2012-12-06 The first suggestions and exchange of ideas for this Workshop began about two years ago when at the invitation of Professor E Bennett Director of Health and Safety of the Commission of the European Communities and Professor W W Holland of the Panel of Social Medicine and Epidemiology of the EEC I asked the Panel to sponsor a project for the study of Ethical Issues in Preventive Medicine The Panel gave its approval and support and asked Dr L Karhausen Dr R Blaney and me to undertake the planning Since then we have had several meetings in Brussels and have added Professor Heleen Terborgh Dupuis and Mrs Susie Stewart to our small planning team The Planning Committee invited many experts to collaborate with us on the project and as can be seen from the list of participants they represent many scientific disciplines and many countries About a year ago we also asked for the help and sponsorship of the NATO Science Council which was generously given The culmination of our efforts was the Workshop held in Athens in January 1985 the proceedings of which are contained in the present book The members of the Planning Committee and the participants at the Workshop would like to express thanks to Mr H Durand Secretary General for NATO Scientific Affairs and Dr M di Lullo Programme Director of NATO Scientific Affairs and to Professor Bennett and Professor Holland for all the moral and financial support they have given to this project ERDA. , Choice , 2009 Oversight Hearings, Near Term Energy R. & D. United States.
